This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Resolved, That the printed Schedule of the District Associations shall contain the names of all the members of each Association arranged in the order of ministerial age, the date of ordination of each minister, his post office direction and his occupation, whether as pastor, stated supply, or without charge.

Resolved, That the name of the Register of each Association be printed in Italics.

Resolved, That the person who superintends the printing of the Minutes be requested to correspond with the Registers of those Associations which have not furnished complete Schedules of their Members, and to insert the Schedules so obtained in the printed Minutes.

Heard reports from the delegates to foreign Ecclesiastical Bodies.

Heard the communications of the delegates from foreign Ecclesiastical Bodies on the general state of the churches and religion within their bounds.

A communication from the Corresponding Secretary of the American Temperance Society was received, containing the following resolutions, which were respectively adopted by this Body, viz :

1. "Resolved, That we hear with deep regret that some of our countrymen are engaged in exporting ardent spirit to the South Sea Islands, and in selling it to be used as drink ; thereby increasing the diseases, demoralizing the character, shortening the lives, and endangering the souls, of the inhabitants of that part of the world.

2. "Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with our brethren in those islands, and in Great Britain, in view of the distresses which these events have brought upon them, and especially in view of the hindrance which they have occasioned to the progress of the Gospel, and to the promotion of civilization and Christianity.

3. "Resolved, That, as ardent spirit is a poison, the drinking of which is highly injurious to the bodies and minds of men ; as it tends to prevent their intellectual elevation, their social improvement, and their eternal salvation, the traffic in it, to be used as a drink, and especially the exporting and furnishing of it to the unevangelized and partially civilized nations and tribes of men, is, in our view, a gross violation of the revealed will of God,—an immorality, which ought to be reprobated, and abandoned throughout the world.

4. "Resolved, That we will cheerfully co-operate with the friends of humanity, by the diffusion of information, the exertion of kind moral influence, and in all suitable ways, to cause a practice so manifestly immoral, so disgraceful to our country, and destructive to our fellowmen, universally to cease.

5. "Resolved, That it be, and it hereby is, respectfully and earnestly suggested to the consideration of all pastors and churches, whether the continuance of this traffic, by members of the church, is not manifestly a violation of the laws of Christ; whether it does not tend to prevent the success of the Gospel, and especially among the heathen; and whether suitable and effectual measures ought not to be taken to remove an evil so offensive to God, and so hurtful to men, from the Christian church.

6. "Resolved, That it be, and it hereby is, respectfully and earnestly suggested to the consideration of all legislators, whether the perpetuating of this traffic, by licensing men to pursue it, is not a violation of the great principles of morality, as well as of political economy; and whether, if the continuance of legislation on this subject is required by the public good, it ought not to be, not on the ground of licensing the sin, but only of defending the community from its evils."

Voted, That one hundred additional copies of the Minutes of this General Association be published and left with the Treasurer for the benefit of those churches and ministers that may call for them.

The following Resolution was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, viz: "Resolved, that the several Bodies with which we are in friendly correspondence in the New England States be respectfully requested to use their counsel and influence to prevent the ordination by any of their councils or consociations, of men who propose to pursue the work of the ministry within the bounds of any Presbytery belonging to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church; and that the delegates from this Assembly to those Bodies respectively be charged with communicating this Resolution."

Whereupon, voted unanimously, that this Body concur in sentiment and feeling with the spirit of the above Resolution, and recommend it to the District Associations for their approbation.

Resolved, That this General Association regards the practice of ordaining men to the work of the ministry at their own request, without charge, and without any special call to the missionary work among the unevangelized, as inconsistent with the interest of the churches.

Recess until 2 o'clock, P. M.

Convened at 2 o'clock, and united with the professors of religion present, in commemorating the sufferings and death of our Lord Jesus Christ in the sacrament of the Supper.

Heard Addresses in behalf of the American Tract Society, by Ornan Eastman;—of the American Bible Society, by Thomas Shepherd;—and of the American Board for Foreign Missions, by Benjamin B. Wisner.

Resolved, That this General Association render thanks to God for the evidence we have that he will use religious tracts in connexion with the personal labors and prayers of Christians as an efficient means for the conversion of the world; and that we most cordially approve of the resolution of the American Tract Society to attempt to raise 30,000 dollars the present year to meet the demands upon them from foreign and unevangelized countries, and that we earnestly recommend to the churches in this State to continue and increase their efforts in aid of this and all the other extended operations of that Society.

Resolved, That this General Association view with gratitude to the great Author of revelation the recent openings in different parts of the unevangelized nations for the spread of the Bible, and that we, and the churches connected with us, have increased motives for enlarging our efforts in this cause, until all the families of the earth are supplied with the sacred Scriptures.

Resolved, That this General Association recognizing the obligation and the privileges of the followers of Christ to promote as efficiently as practicable the evangelizing of the world, rejoice in the openings of Providence for missionary efforts in unevangelized countries, and in the advancing resources and operations of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and earnestly recommend the object and the claims of the Board to the fervent prayer and increased patronage of our churches.

The Committee for nominating a Committee in reference to Church Psalmody, reported the following persons,—Jeremiah Day, Laurens P. Hickok, and Theophilus Smith, which was accepted, and the above named persons were appointed.

The Committee to whom was referred the State of Religion in our churches and foreign Bodies in connexion with this General Association, reported.

The annual reports of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Missionary Society of Connecticut Auxiliary to the American Home Missionary Society were read, accepted, and directed to be printed. Addresses were made by W. Ely, A. Savage, A. McEwen, H. L. Vaill, B. R. Allen, and A. Peters.

The Report of the Secretary of the Missionary Society of Connecticut was accepted and adopted, and directed to be printed with the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. III.)

Voted, To accept the Report of the Committee on the State of Religion, and after some alterations it was adopted, and directed to be printed with the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. IV.

The Committee on the subject of correspondence between this Body and the Congregational Union of England and Wales made a Report, which was accepted, and adopted, as follows:

1. That the Register of the General Association be requested to put into the hands of the English delegation now in America, such a number of copies as he may think proper, of the printed Minutes of this Body, to be communicated to the Congregational Union of England and Wales.

2. That a Committee be appointed, as last year, for the purpose of commissioning any persons whom they may think proper, to visit England as delegates to the Congregational Union.

3. That an individual be appointed for the purpose of deliberating with other individuals, who may be appointed by the five other Bodies of Congregational Ministers in New England, on the subject of correspondence in future years, between the Congregationalists of New England and the Congregational Union of England and Wales; and that it be the duty of the person here contemplated, to report the result of such deliberation to a future meeting of this General Association.

4. That a copy of this last resolution be transmitted to the next meeting of the several Ecclesiastical Bodies in New England with which this Association holds correspondence; and that they be invited to unite with this Body in the measure above contemplated.

The following persons were appointed a Committee to nominate the Committee referred to in the preceding resolutions: Allen McLean, Leonard Bacon, and Joel Mann.

Voted, That the next Annual Meeting of this Association be held at Enfield, at the house of Francis L. Robbins, on the third Tuesday of June, 1835.

Voted, That this Association approve and adopt the resolution of the American Peace Society, recommending to all ministers to preach on the subject on some Sabbath in December.

The Committee for preparing a Pastoral Letter to our churches, viz: Joel Hawes, Aaron Dutton, and Cyrus Yale, having failed for reasons assigned by them, were appointed to the same service for the ensuing year.

Andrew Kingsbury, Esq. was appointed Treasurer of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, and Horace Hooker, Auditor.

Resolved, That to buy and sell human beings, and to hold them and treat them, as merchandize, or to treat servants, free or bond, in any manner inconsistent with the fact that they are intelligent and voluntary beings made in the image of God, is a violation of the principles of the word of God, and should be treated by all the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ as an immorality inconsistent with a profession of the Christian religion.

Resolved, That this Association regards the laws and usages in respect to slavery, which exist in many of the States of this Union, as inconsistent with the character and responsibilities of a free and Christian people; and holds it to be the duty of every Christian, and especially of every minister of the Gospel, to use all prudent and lawful efforts for the peaceful abolition of slavery.

Resolved, That this Association regards with great sympathy and hope, the efforts which have recently been commenced by Christians of different denominations in the slave-holding States, for the thorough instruction of the colored population in the Christian religion; and looks to the gentle and peaceful yet mighty influences of the Gospel of Christ, as the great and indispensable means not only of making the masters willing to emancipate and enfranchise their slaves, but also of preparing the slaves for the use and enjoyment of freedom.

Resolved, That in view of the recent exposition of their principles and plans by the Managers of the American Colonization Society, in their address to the public, and in view of the efficiency, fidelity, and wisdom of the present Governor of Liberia, as manifested in the narrative of his proceedings contained in his late communication to the Board of Managers, this Association entertains an increased confidence in that institution, and does hereby recommend to the ministers and churches of Connecticut to continue their co-operation in that benevolent undertaking, especially by contributing to the funds of the Society at some convenient opportunity on or about the fourth day of July.

Samuel Spring was appointed to superintend the printing and distribution of the Minutes of this Body.

Voted, That the thanks of this Body be made to the people of Vernon, for their courteous and Christian hospitality during the present meeting; and to the choir of singers, for their appropriate and acceptable services.

Voted, That the above be accepted as the true Minutes of this Body.

The closing prayer was offered by Charles Philips.

NO. III.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Vernon, on the third Tuesday of June, 1834, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS AND BRETHREN :—

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1834, were $2,467 36. The expenditures, for the same period, were $1,780 59—leaving a disposable fund of $1,266 32. The amount of the Permanent Fund is $29,877 25—the interest of which, with now and then a donation or legacy, forms the available resources of the Society.

It was mentioned in the last Report to this Society, that in consequence of some diversity of opinion among the missionaries on the Western Reserve, in regard to the best mode of conducting their labors, the Trustees had commissioned Rev. Dr. Tenney, who was about to visit that section of the country, to examine into the matter, and report to the Board. On his return, he submitted a report, at the meeting of the Trustees in August last. After discussing the subject, the Trustees submitted to the missionaries, a plan for putting the immediate management of our operations on the Reserve, into the hands of a Board of Directors. This plan, with some trifling alterations, was approved by the missionaries, and was adopted by the Trustees at their meeting, last January.—The plan is as follows:

1. "That the Synod of the Western Reserve, be authorized and requested to appoint a Board of Directors, to oversee and transact the missionary operations of this Board, on the Reserve, which are now overseen and transacted by the General Board.

2. "The Board of Directors shall consist of nine persons, of whom three shall be laymen, and one the Secretary of the Domestic Missionary Society of the Western Reserve Auxiliary to the American Home Missionary Society, for the time being, who shall be, ex-officio, a member.

3. "The Board of Directors shall have power to choose their own Chairman and Secretary, and to fill their own vacancies, from time to time.

4. "They shall report their doings, annually, to the Trustees of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

5. "The Board of Directors shall be appointed at the meeting of the Synod of the Western Reserve, for the year 1834.

6. "Five of the Directors shall form a quorum for business."

It is believed that this plan is more eligible than any other which, in the circumstances, can be adopted by the Trustees. While it leaves to them the general control of the operations, it gives the immediate oversight to a body of men, who, from their local knowledge and situation, without any interests or prejudices, to be consulted, can judge what ought to be done, better than it is possible to judge, at this distance. The Trustees, also, if they find that the plan, or the manner in which it is executed, is objectionable, can at any time, adopt some other system.

Another advantage of this organization is, that it gives more unity to the missionary operations on the Reserve. The same men, probably, to a considerable extent, will be members of our Board of Directors, and of the Board of the Domestic Missionary Society of the Western Reserve. This will prevent any collision of feeling or action, and enable the Board to proceed with a reference to the whole field that needs to be occupied.

A short extract from the Report of the Board of Missionaries, to the Trustees, will show the Society the general result of the labors of its missionaries, the last year.

They say, "The close of another year, the eighth of the existence of our Board, finds our number undiminished by death, with the exception of brother Storrs, of the Western Reserve College. Although we are not permitted, as in some former years, to report the outpouring of the Spirit of God, accompanying our labors, yet we trust that we have not labored in vain. Small churches have been encouraged and strenthened, and through your bounty, a number of congregations have been enabled to enjoy, statedly, through the year, the preaching of the word of life.

"It appears, by the eighth Report of the First District Board, which has been presented to us, and approved, that its members have labored in your service, during the past year, to the amount of 225 weeks—67 of which they have charged to the Missionary Society of Connecticut, and for which they expect to draw from your treasury, $537.

"By the Report of the Second District Board, it appears that the members of that Board have, during the past year, labored in the missionary field as circumstances have permitted, but that none of them have made any charges against the Society.

"The members of the Third District Board have labored in the service of your Society 69½ weeks—46 of which they have charged to the Society, and expect to receive, in compensation, the sum of $379 from your treasury."

It may not be improper to state, here, that President Storrs, who is referred to in the above extract from the Report of the General Board, and whose premature death has been extensively and sincerely lamented, was appointed a missionary by the Trustees of this Society, in 1822. He continued to labor under their patronage until 1828, when he was appointed Professor at the Western Reserve College, an Institution in which all our missionaries have felt the deepest interest. The Trustees, that they might have the benefit of the counsels and experience of Mr. Storrs, when, in consequence of higher duties, they could no longer expect his active service, regularly gave him a commission every year, until his death.

In the report of Dr. Tenney to the Trustees, before alluded to, he says, "Permit me to add, that I was exceedingly delighted with the influence, the great and manifest usefulness on the Western Reserve, of the missionaries from our Society. Many Christian laymen spoke to me in the highest and most flattering terms on this subject. In one place, an aged, venerable man, the founder of the settlement, said, 'All that the Western Reserve is, in morals and religion, we are indebted to the Missionary Society of Connecticut for; I wish the Society knew how grateful we are. We cannot repay them; but we are attempting to meet our obligation, by sending the Gospel further on, to those who are now in the same condition in which we were.' He then added, with great modesty, 'I gave about $200 last year, to promote Domestic Missions.'"

By such deeds it is that this region is proving its title to the name early given, of New Connecticut—and by such deeds it can best repay the charities of its Eastern friends. This is the choicest portion of the Permament Fund laid up by the venerable founders of our Society—never failing, we trust, but ever increasing—the full worth of which will not be known, till missionaries from the Reserve shall scale the Rocky Mountains, and tread the shores of the distant Pacific. Every successive stage of their progress will be a New Connecticut—and our little State, multiplied, we care not how often, but never divided, will continue, for ages, to rejoice in the living proofs of its early and persevering benevolence.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 16, 1834.

NO. IV.

Report on the State of Religion.

For more than one hundred and twenty-five years, it has been the duty of the General Association of Connecticut to assemble from year to year, for consultation and conference respecting the interests of the churches. The time was when these meetings consisted of eight or ten delegates only, assembled to consult for the welfare of a few scattered churches in a despised and unprotected colony, on the frontiers of civilization, and at the remotest outposts of Christendom. God smiled on those humble beginnings. The faith which took for its motto, He who transported will sustain, was not disappointed. And now the two hundred and thirty churches of Connecticut, over whose interests this General Association is called more immediately to watch, are the parent stock of thousands of other churches scattered over a wide and widening empire, on which are turned the eyes of wondering nations, and from which the blessings of God's salvation are going forth to fill the earth with light and gladness. The hills which, when the General Association was organized, were just beginning to brighten with the first blushes of the morning; the vales which then were beginning to become as the garden of the Lord, are now the ancient seats of knowledge and religion, venerable to the thoughts and dear to the affections of millions of the children of our fathers, who now inhabit younger States, or are planting in new territories the institutions of social order and of Christian truth. Thus though Connecticut is, in population and wealth and political power, among the least of the States of this great confederacy, and though the churches over which we watch are in themselves an inconsiderable portion of the kingdom of our common Lord, the influence which these churches are able to employ for the glory of God and the salvation of the world, is such as involves an incalculable responsibility. The revival of religion here, the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon our congregations, the ingathering of converts into our communion, stimulates the hopes and zeal of thousands far away. The suspension of the work of God here, weakens the hands and chills the hearts of sympathizing brethren over all the land. The prevalence here of error, of disorder, or of discord and contention, the alienation of church from church and pastor from pastor, the setting up of warring parties would be distressing to thousands who now joy in beholding our order, our peace, and our steadfastness, and would send trembling and paleness through all the hosts of Israel, as when a standard-bearer fainteth. Nothing that is done in our churches or by our ministers, is done in a corner. What is whispered in the ear is published on the housetops, and the multiplied reporters of religious intelligence send it abroad as on the wings of the wind, wherever there are eyes to read or ears to hear.

The question then, What is the present state and aspect of our churches, is a question of no trivial import. And on this review of the year now closed, the Association would unitedly offer, and would call on their brethren in all the churches to join them in offering, their humble gratitude to God, for the unnumbered privileges and blessings which his grace confers upon us.

The external prosperity of our ecclesiastical institutions is not less abundant than at any former period. With very few exceptions, our congregations are reported as undiminished in numbers, and our ecclesiastical societies as thriving and increasing in strength. Old houses of worship are frequently rebuilt, and new congregations are gathered and established in new sanctuaries. And generally, our people manifest an increasing ability, and an increasing willingness to sustain an efficient and faithful ministry, and an increasing readiness to honor them that are over them in the Lord, and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake.

All our reports from District Associations speak with strong encouragement of the progress of the Temperance reformation. The principle that the use of ardent spirits as a drink is wrong, and that the traffic in ardent spirits as a drink, is a sin against all the interests of the community, and a sin against that God whose tender mercies are over all his works, is beginning to fill the public mind; and an awakened and indignant public sentiment will soon stamp reprobation and shame on the brow of every opposer, and especially of every opposer who claims the holy name of Christian.

As the progress of the Temperance reformation, has obviously much to do with the external prosperity of our churches and parishes, so it is intimately connected with the prosperity of every benevolent enterprise. Total abstinence from the wasting and polluting products of the distillery, not only enriches but ennobles; and the people who have vanquished a corrupt and mischievous custom among themselves, are the better prepared to act manfully for the extension of the kingdom and glory of the Saviour. Accordingly, it is refreshing to perceive that all the great branches of the enterprise of the world's salvation, are wakening, from year to year, a deeper and stronger interest throughout our community, and are receiving larger and more regular and cheerful contributions. Probably twenty thousand dollars are annually contributed by the people of this State, freely and gladly, to the American Board of Foreign Missions. Twelve thousand dollars more are contributed to the Home Missionary enterprise. The American Education Society is still growing in favor with our churches. More than eighty of its beneficiaries, now pursuing their studies in our colleges and schools, are supported by resources drawn from Connecticut alone. The American Bible Society, the American Tract Society, the Sabbath School Union, and the Seaman's Friend Society, find our churches not unmindful of their claims. The people of color in the midst of us are remembered by Christian philanthropy. The slaves in a distant portion of our common country, whose bondage disgraces our freedom, and offends the God of the afflicted, and those masters there, who, amid many embarrassments, are laboring to bless them and to save them,—share in our sympathies and in our prayers. And the great work, now going forward under better auspices than at some former periods, of planting Africa with colonies of her own descendants, who shall carry with them the institutions of knowledge and freedom and salvation, is watched with intenser interest, and by its friends at least, with stronger hope.

In comparison with some former years, the year past has not been illustrious with the display of God's converting grace. Yet it is to be thankfully recorded that not fewer than twenty of our churches have been permitted to enjoy pleasing, and some of them powerful revivals of religion. That there are so many we would acknowledge to the glory of God. That there are no more we would acknowledge with shame for our sins and the sins of our people.

The venerable and sacred institution of Yale College, crowned with its ancient honors, still rejoices in the blessings of a kind and watchful Providence. While a large number of its graduates from year to year enter the various Theological Seminaries in other parts of the country, very respectable classes as to numbers and talents and piety, the spirit of revivals, and the spirit of missions, are enjoying the advantages of the Theological department in that institution. It is especially encouraging to know that the missionary spirit is increasing, both among the under-graduate students, and among those in the Theological classes.

The Association have been also informed, that during the last year a Theological Institute, having a Manual Labor department connected with it, has been established, chartered by the Legislature of this State at their late session, and is now in operation at East Windsor, with encouraging prospects of success and usefulness.

From our brethren of the General Associations of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, of the General Convention of Vermont, and of the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, whose delegates we have been happy to meet on this occasion, we learn that in those States God is remembering his churches to defend and strengthen, and enlarge them. The Lord God of our fathers be with them evermore, and command his blessing upon them like the dew upon Hermon and the mountains of Zion.

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, we learn that during the year past, showers of divine grace have been poured down on nearly forty of their presbyteries ; and that the churches of their communion are waking up more and more to the great work to which God is in these days so loudly calling his people—the work of converting every nation, and filling the whole earth with the praises of a reigning Redeemer. God speed them in that work, till the remotest wilderness shall blossom as the rose.

To that great work the members of the General Association would anew devote themselves. To that work they would again and with a louder voice summon their brethren in the ministry and in the churches. Admonished by the departure of the blessed dead who, during the year have rested from their labors,* they would gird themselves anew for toil, and for conflict with sin and the powers of darkness, and looking up to the throne in heaven with the host of the redeemed on earth, would cry, O Lord, how long! Come, Lord Jesus ; come quickly.

* The Rev. Luther Hart, Pastor of the Church in Plymouth ; the Rev. Salmon Cone, formerly Pastor of the Church in Colchester ; and the Rev. William C. Walton, Pastor of the Free Church in Hartford.

Resolved, 1. That the running of Stages, Boats, Cars, and other vehicles of conveyance for purposes of worldly business, amusement, or profit, and also the travelling in them, on the Sabbath, are, in our view, immoralities, and ought to be universally abandoned.

Resolved, 2. That the patronizing of such establishments, thus violating the Sabbath, by knowingly and deliberately vesting stock in them, is, in our view, morally wrong, and ought also to be abandoned.

Resolved, 3. That it is the duty of all persons, especially ministers of the Gospel and members of Christian churches, by precept and example, by the diffusion of information and the exertion of kind moral influence, perseveringly to make efforts to secure universally, and to perpetuate the proper observance of the Christian Sabbath.

NO. III.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Enfield, on the third Tuesday of June, 1835, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS AND BRETHREN:—

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1835, were $3,446 38. There was expended during the same period, $1,300 43. No addition was made, the past year, to the Permanent Fund, which now amounts to $29,877 43.

The receipts are larger than can be reckoned on, from year to year, from the regular sources of income, belonging to the Society. The interest of the Permanent Fund is all upon which the Trustees, in forming their plans, can place reliance. Donations and legacies will probably be received, occasionally; but in making appointments and incurring expenses, only the avails of the Permanent Fund can safely be taken into the account. If the resources of the Society are enlarged, by donations and legacies, the operations can be extended to a corresponding degree;—but it would not be prudent to anticipate these resources, in plans for future action. This is one reason why the expenditures of the Board, the past year, were less than the receipts. Another reason is, that the Board were changing their mode of operations, on the Western Reserve, to which their attention is now exclusively bestowed. They did not think it expedient to make new appointments, until the arrangements contemplated, were carried into effect.

The new organization has been completed. The principles on which a Board of Directors, to act for the Trustees of this Society, on the Western Reserve, are to proceed, were stated in the last report to this Body. An active and efficient supervision, it is believed, will be exercised over our missionary operations, on the Reserve, under this arrangement. While the Trustees make all the appointments of Missionaries, and commission them for the work, the Board of Directors, who act under their control, will have the best means of judging as to the field of labor, and the amount of conpensation.

The mode of conducting missions of the Western Reserve, is, in some respects, different from that in the oldr States. Congregations are aided, as among us; but the circumstances of the community require that itineracy, within moderate and prescribed limits, should also be allowed. Beside his own congregation, a located missionary is, in some cases, permitted to occupy a field in his neighborhood, embracing not more than three townships. In this way new churches can be planted, and feeble churches be cherished, until, eventually, it is hoped, every township on the Reserve, will have its church and its minister, and be able to support religious institutions, without foreign aid.

No peculiar results crowned the efforts of the missionaries of this Society, the past year. The General Board say in their Report, "God has graciously blessed the labors of some of our number, and through our humble instrumentality, brought many sinners into the fold of the Great Shepherd." But the year seems not to have been so signally marked, by the enlargement of the churches, as were some former periods, in the history of our Society. The arrangements for the promotion of piety and salvation, in that section of our country, have never been better than at the present time. May the Spirit of God smile on our feeble attempts, that "glory may dwell in our land."

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 15, 1835.

NO. IV.

Report on the State of Religion.

From the statements of the several District Associations, it appears that during the year past, the State at large has not been blessed with so extensive revivals as in some preceding years; yet in the aggregate, the work of grace has been considerable. The sections most affected by the Divine Spirit, have been the county of New London, the northern district of Hartford county, the northern district of Litchfield county, and the eastern and western districts of New Haven county. A number of churches in these locations have received large accessions. In other parts of the State, effects of divine grace, to some extent, have been noticed, and some additions made to the churches.

A few places in the western district of New Haven have been signalized by a special revival. The account of this work cannot be better given than in the words of the Report from that District.

"Some of our churches have been signally blessed, and we have reason to rejoice, that within a short period, in Milford, North Milford, Yale College, and other places within our limits, two or three hundred, as we hope, have passed from death unto life. These victories of divine grace have stimulated many of God's people to prayer and effort for a general revival of religion.

"Through the great mercy of God, Yale College has again been blessed with a powerful work of grace. It has been strikingly marked by manifest answers to united, and earnest, and persevering prayer. During the winter, the number of academical students communing with the college church, has been about one hundred and sixty. A few of these, from the commencement of the winter term, were so deeply impressed with the necessity of the Spirit's influence, to deliver from the prevalent security in sin, and to renew the heart to repentance, that they continued to meet and pray, during the term, though they saw no indications of special religious impression upon the body of the students. Near the beginning of the spring term, they commenced a stated meeting for prayer, every evening. The number of those who attended was, at first, from fifteen to twenty; but afterwards increased to a hundred and fifty. This meeting is continued to the present time. In the early part of March, a special meeting of the whole church was held, to offer united supplications for the influences of the Spirit on the college. This was soon followed by a course of frequent preaching, in addition to the stated ministrations of the Sabbath; upon which the blessing of heaven descended, in a very manifest manner. A general solemnity pervaded the Institution. Numbers were deeply impressed with a conviction of guilt; and of these, sixty or more have expressed a hope, that they have cordially embraced the salvation of the Gospel. A solemn attention to the great interests of religion still continues; especially on the part of those who are hopefully pious, who now constitute the major part of the whole college.

"The means which have been used during the revival, have been frequent and fervent prayer, in the public assembly, in meetings of the church, and in various smaller circles; preaching specially adapted to the occasion, religious conversation, and meetings called for the purpose of addressing those whose attention was more or less awakened to the concerns of the soul. Though the religious interest has been deep and general, there has been no derangement of the regular order and literary exercises of the college. Most of those who have become hopefully pious, are the sons of parents who are professors of religion.

"The number of students in the Theological Department of Yale College, is between fifty and sixty. They have manifested a deep interest in the revival in the college, by their prayers and active labors. As there has heretofore been no provision to furnish them with convenient rooms for lodging and study; the Christian community have lately contributed about eight thousand dollars, to erect a building for their accommodation, the foundation of which is already laid."

We are pleased to learn, from the Report of the Hartford North Association, that "the Theological Seminary, at East Windsor, is in a promising state. It now contains sixteen students, and while it is rapidly taking a rank among sister institutions, bids fair to become an instrument of advancing the cause of Christ in our own and heathen lands."

Among the evils to be deplored, is a fearful increase of the profanation of the Sabbath, by travelling and vain recreation. While looking at this alarming sin, we feel some encouragement in the contemplation of a deep anxiety manifestly awakened in the pious, concerning the desecration of God's holy day. It is with surprise, we learn, that in some churches the Monthly Concert of Prayer is hardly observed; and with deep regret we hear, that in many of those in which it is observed, the attendance is very small. While we speak of this with pain and trembling, we rejoice to know that other churches attend this season of devotion with great punctuality, and make constant contributions to Foreign Missions. Another evil is looked at with dismay: The spirit of innovation and instability, pervading a large mass of our Ecclesiastical Societies, renders the dismission of ministers frequent, and their ministrations comparatively unsuccessful. The enemies of religion are encouraged to great intrigue—parishes are subjected to much turmoil and much expense—and the want of home with which ministers are threatened, operates as a powerful restraint upon an entrance into the sacred profession.

In general, the churches seem to enjoy peace, though some speak of trials; and we rejoice to hear that some feel more deeply than ever the importance of discipline. Though the congregations are reported as undiminished, still a conviction seems to be felt, that a larger proportion than formerly, of the population of the State, neglect public worship.

The several religious enterprises of the day, to which both the labors and pecuniary contributions of the people are devoted, have been well sustained, and we should think, with growing zeal and liberality.

Intemperance struggles hard to maintain its existence in our community; and its avaricious patrons are bold and obstinate. The effect of these things is however cheering. Reformers are more confirmed in their purposes, and more active and successful in their labors.

The commissioners from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church state, that the last year has not been so distinguished for revivals of religion as many of the preceding years; but it is believed that the cause of Christian benevolence is, on the whole, advancing. The friends of Missionary, Bible, Tract, and Education Societies, are becoming more numerous and more efficient. Sabbath-schools are regarded with extensive favor, and exerting a most promising influence. While there is much to deplore, there is also gracious evidence of the continued protection and care of the King of Zion over the interests of his ransomed church.

The brethren from Massachusetts inform us, that although the special energies of the Divine Spirit are not generally enjoyed, yet in Bible-classes and Sabbath-schools, over four hundred have been hopefully brought into the fold of the Great Shepherd; that Williams and Amherst Colleges have both been visited with divine influences; that the Theological Seminary, at Andover, continues to enjoy the peculiar smiles of Heaven; that the cause of temperanae steadily advances; that benevolent institutions are liberally and cordially sustained; and that in view of the Lord's mercies they have occasion greatly to rejoice.

From the General Convention of Vermont we learn, that of the two hundred and ten churches connected with the Convention, ninety-two are feeble—which, however, are anxious to support themselves; that the Vermont Domestic Missionary Society is waking up to their aid; that revivals have been enjoyed in Middlebury College, and in a number of towns in the State; that various errors prevail in the waste places; and that there is much occasion for renewed humility, prayer, and resolution in the service of the Great Redeemer.

The General Association of New Hampshire reports, that within the year past, all the churches in one of its District Associations, and many other churches in the State, have been copiously refreshed by showers of divine grace. Seventy feeble Societies receive aid from the Domestic Missionary Society, while fifty-two, unaided, support the Gospel. In addition, the affecting and appalling fact is stated, that New Hampshire contains a hundred towns in which no minister of the Gospel, of our denomination, is to be found. Many of these are desolations, where formerly flourishing churches existed.

By the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island it is reported to us, that their churches are increased in number and activity; that Home Missions, the Temperance enterprise, and the Tract distribution, have received a good degree of attention, and have been marked with success.

An Ecclesiastical Body has been recently organized, called "The Congregational Association of the State of New York," and it has at this session been received into correspondence with this General Association. Their delegate reports, that it is one of the objects of the Association to collect the many churches which are yet disconnected with any ecclesiastical body, that their real situation may be known; that the great objects of Christian enterprise are patronized by the churches generally; that a few revivals of a very interesting character have been experienced; that the prospects of the churches which had been formerly affected by divisions, are considered promising; and that they are encouraged by a condition already more favorable to their spiritual prosperity.

On the whole, the review of every year is a review of sin—of short-comings in ministerial and ecclesiastical duty; but withal, a review of the forbearance, and loving-kindness and grace of our God. In him would we put our trust, and with renovated prayer and labor press into the duties of another year, hoping at the close of it to sing a new song to the praise of his grace.

The following preamble and resolution on the subject of Slavery, were unanimously adopted, viz:

Whereas the system of Slavery as defined and sustained by the laws of some of these United States is contrary to the principles of the Gospel; and whereas

The ministers and members of our Churches are frequently emigrating to the slave-holding States, and whereas, they are there strongly tempted to engage in the traffic in Slaves, and to become upholders of the system of Slavery; Therefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Association the buying and selling of human beings, and the holding them for selfish ends, by the ministers and members of our churches removing to the South, is a great sin, and utterly inconsistent with their Christian profession.

The following resolutions were introduced, discussed, and unanimously passed, viz:

1. Resolved, That while this General Association appreciate and would maintain, at all hazards, the unrestricted liberty of speech and of the press; and while they fully recognize their own and every man's duty to prove all things, and their own and every man's responsibility to God in relation to the reception of the truth; they do not admit an obligation upon the community to hear or read all that associations, or individuals may volunteer to speak or print; or an obligation on the pastors of the churches to admit into their pulpits all those preachers or speakers who may desire to address the people, or in any other ways, directly or indirectly to facilitate the promulgation in the community of sentiments, which are, in their view, of an erroneous, or questionable character.

2. Resolved, That the operations of itinerant agents and lecturers, attempting to enlighten the churches, in respect to particular points of Christian doctrine, and of Christian morals, and to control the religious sentiment of the community, on topics which fall most appropriately within the sphere of pastoral instruction, and of pastoral discretion, as to time and manner, without the advice and consent of the pastors and regular ecclesiastical bodies, is an unauthorized interference with the rights, duties, and discretion of the stated ministry; dangerous to the influence of the pastoral office, and fatal to the peace and good order of the churches.

3. Resolved, That the existence in the churches of an order of itinerating evangelists, devoted, especially to the business of excitement, and to the promotion of revivals, cannot be reconciled with the respect and influence which are indispensable to the usefulness and stability of the stated ministry, to the harmony of ecclesiastical action in the churches, to the steady and accumulating influence of the Gospel and its institutions, and to purity in doctrine and discretion in action.

4. Resolved, That regarding the present as a critical period in relation to the peace, purity, and liberty of our churches, and the efficiency of the pastoral office, we do recommend to ministers and churches to discontinue such innovations as have been referred to in these resolutions, and we consider ourselves bound to sustain each other and the churches in standing against all these innovations on our ecclesiastical order.

The following persons were appointed, by ballot, Trustees of the Missionary Society of Connecticut: Rev. Joel Hawes, D. D., Jonathan Brace, Esq., John Caldwell, Esq., Seth Terry, Esq., Rev. Noah Porter, D. D., Samuel J. Hitchcock, Esq., John Hall, Esq., Rev. Nathan Perkins, D. D., Rev. Caleb J. Tenney, D. D., Rev. Timothy P. Gillett, Rev. Edward Bull, and Thomas C. Perkins, Esq.

The six following persons, in addition to the above, were chosen to constitute the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of Connecticut Auxiliary to the American Home Missionary Society: Rev. Thomas Punderson, Jonathan Barnes, Esq., Rev. Bennet Tyler, D. D., Rev. Daniel G. Sprague, Rev. Samuel Spring, and Rev. Leonard Bacon.

Andrew Kingsbury, Esq. was appointed Treasurer of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, and the Rev. Horace Hooker, Auditor.

Recess until half-past 1 o'clock.

Met according to adjournment, at the meeting-house, and listened to an address from Rev. John B. Pinney in respect to the condition and prospects of the Colony at Liberia.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Minute in relation to the Colonization Society, reported the following; which was accepted and adopted, viz:

That we hold the American Colonization Society in high estimation as a benevolent institution, and would recommend it, as in former years, to the patronage of the churches.

Rev. Messrs. Noah Porter, D. D., and D. L. Ogden were appointed a Committee to report to the next General Association the church standing of dismissed ministers.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Pastoral Letter to the Churches, reported; Whereupon it was Voted, That the Report be accepted, and referred to the same Committee to be revised and completed; and that the same, having been approved by the Moderator of this Body, be published under the direction of the Committee. (See Appendix, No. VI.)

Voted, That the ministers of the respective churches to whom this letter is addressed, be requested to read it from the pulpit on the Sabbath.

S. E. Morse, Esq., one of the Editors of the New York Observer, having proposed to the Association to print 500 copies of the Pastoral Letter, without charge, for the use of the Association;

Voted, To accept the proposal of Mr. Morse, and to offer him the thanks of this Body.

Voted, That the thanks of this Body be made to the people of Norfolk, for their courteous and Christian hospitality, during the present meeting; and to the choir of singers, for their appropriate and acceptable services.

Voted, That the above be accepted as the true Minutes of this Body.

The closing prayer was offered by the Rev. Frederick A. Ross, from Tennessee.

Report of Rev. Dr. Humphrey, Delegate to the Congregational Union of England and Wales.

To the General Association of Connecticut:

Dear Brethren:—A few days before I sailed for England, a little more than a year ago, I received an informal commission, through Dr. Hawes, the Chairman of a Committee of Association, to represent the ministers and churches of your connexion, at the then approaching annual meeting of the Congregational Union of England and Wales. This, which under any circumstances I should have considered an honor, was peculiarly grateful to my feelings, as a son of Connecticut; and still more, on account of those happy ministerial relations, which it was my privilege for so many years to sustain, to the pastors and churches of my native State.

Under the protection of a kind Providence, I reached London in season for the meeting of the Union; and I assure you, Dear Brethren, that your Christian and fraternal salutations, were as warmly reciprocated by that Body, as you could have wished, had you been present on the occasion. It was truly delightful to meet such a body of ministers, in a foreign land, holding the same faith with ourselves, and organized under the same form of church government—but more especially, to meet them as our "brethren, our kindred according to the flesh"—as descended from the same Puritan Fathers, whose blood flows in our veins.

Though but recently formed, the Congregational Union of England and Wales, seems to be firmly cemented and highly flourishing. The delegates who composed it last year, from all parts of the kingdom, were certainly a very intelligent and respectable body of ministers. Their debates were free and animated, but in perfect good feeling and temper. They never seemed to forget, even in the ardor of discussion, that they were the disciples and servants of Him, who "did not strive nor cry, neither was his voice heard in the streets." It was such an interchange of opinions and counsels and Christian courtesies, as reminded me of what I have so often witnessed in New England; and which, wherever they are witnessed, must constrain those who pray for the peace of Jerusalem to exclaim, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment, upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments. As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commandeth the blessing, even life forevermore!"

The number of churches embraced in this Union, is about sixteen hundred, and is annually increasing. They were represented as being, in general, in a quiet and prosperous state. They have frequent, and sometimes large additions, in the course of the year; but revivals, such as we have heretofore so frequently witnessed, are very rare, though not unknown, as many have erroneously supposed. About these "times of refreshing" in America, they inquired with great interest—but we found that the extravagancies which have so unhappily characterized some of these revivals, within the last few years, have excited strong suspicions of their genuineness, in the minds of our trans-atlantic brethren, which it is difficult to remove. This is vastly more to be lamented than wondered at. If we were there, and they here, I have no doubt we should feel as they do.

The Congregational Union is now embarked in the cause of Home Missions, with a good degree of energy and success. In Foreign Missions, the churches which compose that Union, have long been actively engaged. The London Missionary Society is now, I believe, entirely under their direction, and it is chiefly supported by their contributions. They are, also, actively engaged, in other great Christian and benevolent enterprizes. How delightful is it to witness such co-operations with our own churches, in a foreign land;—proving beyond a thousand professions and arguments, that "we are all one in Christ!"

May you, Dear Brethren, enjoy much of the Divine presence, in your present meeting, and be richly endowed with wisdom and grace for the discharge of all the duties of the ministry; and may all the churches of your connexion, walk more and more in the "light of the Lord and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit."

I am, Dear Brethren, very affectionately yours,

H. HUMPHREY.

Amherst College, June 15, 1836.

NO. IV.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Norfolk, on the third Tuesday of June, 1836—the Trustees of the Society respectfully Report:

That the amount of receipts of the Society, for the year ending January 1, 1836, were $2,544 83. The amount of expenditures is $1,703 89. The amount of the Permanent Fund is $29,877 25. No addition has been made to it during the year.

Under the immediate superintendence of a Board of Directors, acting for the Trustees, on the Western Reserve, to which the operations of the Society are now confined, the Missionaries it employs are engaged in strengthening the churches established in former years, and in preaching the Gospel to destitute sections, where its institutions are not yet planted. Their services and the results are so similar to those of past years, and of other missionaries in the Home Department, that it would be an unprofitable use of the time of the Society, to enter into details.

The attention of this Society was turned to the Western Reserve, when the whole white population of that region was only about twelve hundred. To extend the boundaries of Congregationalism, was not the main design of our fathers, in establishing this Society. Their benevolence was as comprehensive as the field of destitution was great; and they were not willing to shackle their movements, by a rigid adherence to the peculiarities of the system in which they had been educated, and to which they adhered from a voluntary preference. If the empire of truth and holiness was only extended, they were not tenacious of the exact form which the churches, springing up under their labors, might adopt. In some parts of the country, their Missionaries, accordingly, gave the churches which they organized, a Presbyterian form—because the emigrants, in the land of their nativity, were, for the most part, educated in that denomination. But on the Western Reserve, where the population were of mingled origin,—and some, from the prejudices of education, preferred a Congregational, and others a Presbyterian form, by an early agreement with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, a modified organization was adopted, that combined some of the principles of both denominations. These churches have prospered, under the smiles of heaven;—and, it is believed, are monuments of the practical wisdom and good sense of the men of that day. Whether a change of circumstances renders a change proper, in the mode of organizing churches, by the Missionaries to be hereafter employed by this Society, is a point respecting which there may be a diversity of sentiment. Were the Plan of Union, which has been the medium of so cheering results to be abandoned, the limited resources still at the command of this venerable Society, might be employed in the formation of churches after the model adopted by our farefathers, and which has been proved, by long experience, to be efficient and salutary. The banner of Congregationalism which floats so magnificently over the hills and valleys of New England, we might hope, would not droop, if it should be thought expedient, from a change of circumstances, to have this banner unfolded hereafter, by our Missionaries, to the breezes of the West. There, as here, it would wave, an emblem of brotherhood and peace.

By order of the Trustees,

H. HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 20, 1836.

NO. V.

Report on the State of Religion.

The reports on the State of Religion from the several District Associations are of a character to excite pain, and cause deep humiliation in the bosoms of all who sympathize in the prosperity of the church. They do not speak of divisions in the churches. Peace and harmony are very generally prevalent—errors do not prevail to a greater extent—the advocates of error are not more active than in former years. The number in attendance upon the ministrations of the Sabbath, is not diminished, though in many places this number is lamentably small in proportion to the whole population. The system of Sabbath-school and Bible-class instruction is sustained with equal if not increased vigor. The various objects of benevolence have been more liberally patronized. The cause of Temperance, though in many places stationary, and in all, advancing with too tardy progress, is represented on the whole as extending its influence, and taking a deeper hold on the convictions of the community. The venerable institution of Yale College, in all its departments, continues to flourish. More than half of the under-graduate students are hopefully pious. Twelve during the last college term are reported to have been brought under the influence of experimental religion. A spirit of Christian activity and diligence and missionary zeal is manifested among the students of the Theological department in a degree cheering to the friends of Zion. The Theological Seminary at East Windsor is in a state of prosperity which greatly encourages the hope of its future usefulness. It is a gratifying fact that several of the members have devoted themselves to the service of Christ in labors among the heathen.

Middlesex Association report six congregations in which very interesting revivals have been enjoyed during the year. The same number of congregations in Litchfield South Association, is mentioned as having been visited, to a greater or less extent, by special divine influence. In Hartford South and Hartford North Associations, there have been a few places which have experienced tokens of special favor. In other Associations there have been single congregations which have been revived to a limited extent. These are cheering facts, and we would not fail to recognize them as such, and express our obligations of unfeigned gratitude to a God of mercy on account of them.

But at the present time, there appears, from the several reports, to be an almost universal suspension of special divine influence. Of the two hundred and thirty churches in connexion with this General Association, there are very few which are animated by the tokens of special divine favor. Spiritual apathy prevails to an extent, almost, if not wholly unparalleled. Christians—and the most active and energetic members of the churches are deeply affected by the spirit of the times. Worldliness—an eagerness to monopolize their full share of earthly gain, which the present condition of our country promises, engrosses their thoughts and their affections—and disinclines and disqualifies them for uniting their efforts to advance the spiritual interests of the churches. Seasons of social prayer, and especially the monthly concert for the conversion of the world and the blessing of God upon Sabbath-schools, are in too many places attended by a very small proportion of those who by their covenant vows stand pledged never to forget Zion in any of her interests. In this state of the churches the sanctity of the Sabbath is evidently losing its hold upon the community at large. The profanations of this day are manifestly increasing, and demand imperiously of every friend of Zion and every friend of his country that he look to his own practice upon this point, and unite his prayers and his efforts with those of his brethren to redeem this sacred institution from the neglect and contempt which are cast upon it.

It is painful to contemplate such a picture of our spiritual condition. It would be far more pleasant to send forth to our churches and to the world a glowing report of our prosperity. But truth must guide us. We must speak as she compels us to speak. The state of religion in our churches at the present moment is such as ought to cause unfeigned humiliation and lead to deep self-abasement in every one who feels for their prosperity and the salvation of immortal minds.

To the ministers of this Association the providences of God the last year say, Do with thy might whatsoever thy hand findeth to do. Four of our fathers and brethren who have often mingled in the deliberations of this Body, and who were loved and respected—Lyman, of Windham Association—Rowland, of Hartford North—and Perry and Talcott, of Litchfield North, have been summoned to their reward in Heaven.

The Delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, states that of the 2800 churches in that connexion, not more than one hundred, have the past year, received the promised presence of the Spirit. Some of the causes which operate to prevent the spiritual prosperity of our own churches, affect them equally, if not to a greater extent. Besides these, there are others from which we are happily, in a great measure, exempt. In twenty-six of the Presbyteries connected with the Assembly, the cause of temperance is reported to be declining—in twenty-five advancing. There is an advance in the receipts of benevolent Societies and of the Missionary spirit in their Colleges and Theological schools. The sin of Sabbath profanations is one which awakens deep concern in the bosoms of the members of that church. Still, with all that is discouraging in their circumstances, they feel that there is sufficient reason for the belief that God has not forsaken that numerous and widely extended branch of his church.

The Congregational Association of the State of New York report no special tokens of the divine favor to the churches in its connexion. This Association is still in its infancy, but promises to be of eminent service in combining the efforts and strengthening the hands of the numerous insulated and feeble Congregational churches in that State.

From the General Convention of Vermont, the report is in many respects similar to those from our own Associations and from the General Assembly. While the churches generally enjoy internal peace, and are prosecuting the various religious enterprizes of the day with their usual vigor, revivals have not been as numerous as in some former years. The Sabbath, by a very great portion of the community, is disregarded, and the ministrations of the sanctuary very little prized and greatly neglected.

The Delegates from the General Association of New Hampshire, state that the reports at their meeting in September last, were of a most highly gratifying character. The period which has since elapsed has been less distinguished by numerous and powerful revivals. Yet they are not left without some precious tokens of divine favor. Several churches have been refreshed. Among these, is that in Plymouth, where the last meeting of the Association was held, which blessing to that church stands immediately connected with the influence of that meeting. The benevolent enterprizes and the efforts to promote temperance are in a healthful and vigorous state.

The report from the General Association of Massachusetts, is highly animating. During the year, there have been, in some parts of the Commonwealth, precious revivals. Revivals of a most interesting character are now in progress, in some parts of that State. In some places these revivals are now in their incipient stages. The Delegate says, "As a general fact, Zion, the past year, has made more than ordinary progress in knowledge and vital godliness. In Amherst College, there have been a few conversions. The Theological Seminary at Andover continues to prosper. The benevolent objects of the day are sustained with increasing interest. The cause of Sabbath-schools is receiving more and more attention. The Temperance reform has gone forward in some places, while in others, to say the least, it has been stationary. Efforts are made to promote a reformation of morals in regard to the seventh commandment."

To close this Narrative, whether we limit our view to our own State, or extend it over the whole country, there is much, very much in the condition of the churches to humble us and excite alarm. Never were those on the watch-towers of Zion—and never were Christians generally more loudly called upon to weep between the porch and the altar, and say, "Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thy heritage to reproach."

NO. VI.

PASTORAL LETTER.

The General Association of Connecticut, convened at Norfolk, to their brethren in the ministry, and to the churches within their bounds, grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ:

God, in the progress of his great designs, has permitted us to live in an age bright with the signals of his coming to accomplish his covenant with his Son, and to fill the earth with his glory. He is casting down thrones; he is breaking up old systems of darkness and spiritual domination; he is removing out of the way of the progress of his Gospel, obstacles that for long ages have stood, like impassable mountains, to hem in the efforts of his people and to discourage their faith; he is providing new means of access to the minds of individuals, and new instruments of power to sway the public mind of nations; he is pouring knowledge, like a flood, over all the earth; he is binding the nations together more and more closely by the ties of mutual dependence, and of commercal, political, and friendly intercourse; he is putting the conversion of the world, of the whole world, more and more into the hands of his people; he is pouring out his Spirit upon his churches and multiplying the numbers of them that believe; he is stirring up his people, every where, to great undertakings for the salvation of men and for the glory of his name; and he is crowning their undertakings with a success that shows his readiness, as well as his might, to do exceeding abundantly above all that they can ask or think.

As we have been assembled at this time, our hearts have been warmed by our fraternal communion; and, standing upon these heights, and looking abroad upon the land of which the Lord God hath said that he will give it to his people, we have felt something of the responsibilities and dangers which we share in common with all the members of the churches in these days. Moved, as we trust, by the impulse of the Spirit of grace upon our hearts, we unite in this epistle, and entreat you to suffer the word of exhortation.

First, we beseech you, in the name of our common Saviour, to be watchful every one of you over the state of his own soul in respect to communion with God by the indwelling of his Spirit. See to it well that you dwell continually as in the secret place of the Most High. There is a vital relation of intercourse, union, and sympathy between the mind of the believer and the mind of Jesus Christ, the infinite mind of God. The Spirit which the Father giveth without measure to the only begotten of the Father, dwells with a secret, yet mighty influence in the soul of every believer, so that he that believeth hath within him, in this vital influence, a fountain purer and holier than the Siloe that gladdened the sanctuary,—a fountain springing up to everlasting life; and out of him, as the Scripture hath said, shall flow rivers of living water. See then, Brethren, if indeed ye have received the Holy Ghost, and are become the temples of God, see that ye defile not God's temple; see that ye grieve not the Spirit; see that ye quench not the Spirit; see that ye live in the Spirit, and walk in the Spirit; see that ye maintain an intimate and constant communion with God in Christ, who hath given us the earnest of his Spirit, the seal of our purchased and promised inheritance. The first great temptation of our times is to worldliness, and thus to a worldly spirit in religion; to a stirring, bustling, showy religion, which finds not its home in the closet, in solitary meditation, in secret prayer, and which lives only by the impulses of sympathy and of public excitement. Brethren, we must be men of prayer, of meditation, of heart-searching, of personal communion with God; or we cannot begin to meet our responsibility.

Next, we exhort you to seek and to cherish a humbling sense of your deficiencies. We pray that our own souls may ever be possessed with such a sentiment. How far do we come short,—O Brethren, how far do we all come short of what we owe to our Redeemer, and to the world perishing in darkness and in sin! Brethren, sinful men are dying within the sound even of our voices, and how little do we feel for them! how faintly do we pray! how feebly do we strive for their salvation! God is calling us as with the voice of seven thunders, to take possession of the world in the name of Jesus Christ, and O! what are we doing! Talk we of our self-denial; talk we of our zeal, of our contributions, of our labors! Alas! alas! God be merciful to us sinners! Let not the great enemy of God get the advantage of us by persuading us to look round upon our institutions, and our arrangements and combinations, and our half-hearted efforts, and to say, Behold our zeal for the Lord. Let us compare our efforts only with our obligations and our opportunities; let us think what God would have us to do, and we shall be ashamed of all that we have done; and no more shall we be tempted to say in our hearts, Is not this great Babylon which we have built?

Next, let us remember, Brethren, that we are not straitened in the Lord. Nay, if we may speak it with due reverence, God is straitened in us. The boundlessness of his love, which is ready to flow forth in light and life over the moral chaos of this apostate world, is kept back by our unbelief, and slothfulness, and hardness of heart. When we have learned to be more holy; when we have attained to a deeper and more vital sympathy with the purity and love of God; when we are prepared by his Spirit for a more engrossing and manly, a more godlike participation in the august designs of God's benevolence, then will joy and glory come down, like a river, from the highest heaven.

And here, Brethren, let us call to your remembrance God's institutions and arrangements for the salvation of men, especially the family, the social relations and connexions of individual men, the Sabbath, and the church with its stated ministry.

It is in your families, Brethren, that a generation must be prepared which shall fill the earth with the kingdom of Jesus Christ. The influence of the father and the mother; the gentle, sacred, resistless influences that gather around the fire-side, the domestic altar, and the family Bible,—these are the influences that are to purify and save the world. No associated energies for the accomplishment of schemes for the reformation of morals,—no public excitements sweeping over the community, can accomplish any great or lasting good, save as they purify and quicken these influences. It is in the family, or no where, that men must learn to keep God's commandments,—there purity, temperance, compassion, meekness, self-denial, and love must live and flourish; there heaven must come down to mingle with earth; or the world is still undone.

God designs to have men converted, and continually sanctified and enlightened, by the action of friend upon friend, and of neighbor upon neighbor. Till all shall know the Lord, from the least to the greatest, every man must say to his brother, and every man to his neighbor, "Know the Lord; come thou with us, and we will do thee good." Who does not know, that when one believer after another begins to weep in secret over his unconverted neighbors and friends, and to pray for them, and to labor that all his intercourse with them may be profitable to salvation, then and there the work of God begins to be revived. The experience of every church in Connecticut,—the experience of thousands of individuals converted to Christ by influences exerted upon them through the channels of social and friendly intercourse, rebukes all those who expect the work of God to be revived without the effort by friends and neighbors to bring the Gospel home to the minds of individuals.

We hear from all quarters the complaint that the Sabbath is dishonored, and that the public worship of God is treated with habitual neglect by thousands of the children of our fathers. Brethren, the Sabbath is the great pillar on which God's name is inscribed before the world. It is the remembrancer which God appointed from the date of the creation, to keep men in mind of him, and of his relations to them. Let the Sabbath be destroyed, and all is gone. God cannot be honored, Christ cannot be adored and loved, the Holy Spirit cannot be given to sanctify, where there is no Sabbath. Ministers and churches must unite every where to sustain the high honors of the holy Sabbath. All the efforts of the church, and of the pastor, must be concentrated upon the object of throwing into the Sabbath instructions of the family, of the school, and of the sanctuary, the greatest possible life, attractiveness, and power. To this let every other effort in the congregation,—the Bible-class, the conference, the lecture, the concerts of prayer, be made subordinate. The Gospel, the church, the honor and fear of God among men, and the hope of the world's deliverance must stand or fall with the Sabbath.

To complete the system of Divine arrangements for the conversion of men and the promotion of holiness, God has instituted churches, and has organized them by appointing a stated ministry. The local church, with its officers, and its means of instruction and edification, is God's organization for promoting, within its own boundaries, the kingdom which is righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost; and the local church, when completely organized and arrayed for action, must rely upon itself, under God, to perform the work intrusted to it.

If it looks away from itself, and from the array of means and influences with which God has endowed it; if it feels that little or nothing is to be expected from the steady, stated administration of Gospel truth and Gospel ordinances, that church becomes unfaithful to its Head, and unfaithful to its chartered honors. The great principle of the communion and association of churches with their pastors for mutual watchfulness, defence, and edification, is that by means of which the influence of particular churches is to be concentrated and augmented, and wielded over a wide community for the promotion of morals and of piety, for the illumination of the public mind by Christian truth, and for the sanctification of public sentiment. These are cardinal principles of our ecclesiastical order; and while these principles allow to every church the power of employing special efforts, at fit seasons, for the advancement of religion, and while they permit pastors and churches to aid each other in such special efforts, every encroachment on these principles; every thing which tends to set aside the pastoral office, or to rob it of its spiritual honors, and its legitimate influence; every thing which would divert the churches from their reliance on God's institutions, honored by his blessing through successive ages, to hazard and reckless human experiments for the promotion of religion; every thing which would set up over the churches any power other than that of their own consciences, enlightened by mutual consultation, and by the regular administration of the word of God, is to be avoided as fraught with boundless perils.

With these views we have been led, after full, free, and prayerful discussion, to the unanimous adoption of the following resolutions, which we commend to your serious attention, as expressing our most deliberate and unanimous views in relation to several important points of Christian duty, and ecclesiastical order.

1. Resolved, That while this General Association appreciate, and would maintain at all hazards, the unrestricted liberty of speech and the press, and while they fully recognize their own and every man's duty to prove all things, and their own and every man's responsibility to God in relation to the reception of the truth, they do not admit an obligation upon the community to hear or read all that associations or individuals may volunteer to speak or print, or an obligation on the pastors of the churches to admit into their pulpits all the preachers or speakers who may desire to address the people, or in any other ways, directly or indirectly, to facilitate the promulgation in the community of sentiments which are in their view of an erroneous or questionable character.

2. Resolved, That the operations of itinerant agents and lecturers attempting to enlighten the churches in respect to particular points of Christian doctrine and of Christian morals, and to control the religious sentiments of the community on topics which fall most appropriately within the sphere of pastoral instruction and of pastoral discretion, as to time and manner, without the advice and consent of the pastors and regular ecclesiastical bodies, is an unauthorized interference with the rights, duties, and discretion of the stated ministry; dangerous to the influence of the pastoral office, and fatal to the peace and good order of the churches.

3. Resolved, That the existence in the churches of an order of itinerating evangelists, devoted especially to the business of excitement, and to the promotion of revivals, cannot be reconciled with the respect and influence which are indispensable to the usefulness and stability of the stated ministry, to the harmony of ecclesiastical action in the churches, and to the steady and accumulating influence of the Gospel and its institutions, and to purity in doctrine and discretion in action.

4. Resolved, That regarding the present as a critical period in relation to the peace, purity, and liberty of our churches, and the efficiency of the pastoral office, we do recommend to ministers and churches to discountenance such innovations as have been referred to in these resolutions, and we consider ourselves bound to sustain each other and the churches in standing against all these invasions on our ecclesiastical order.

In adopting these resolutions, we have been influenced, we trust, in no inconsiderable degree, by the love and fear of Him whose public ministers we are, and whom it is our hearts' desire to serve effectually in the Gospel which has been committed to us in our unworthiness. We trust also that in this matter we have deeply felt our responsibility both to Christ and to those favored and beloved churches, over which he has made us overseers; and we know that we have been moved by a lively solicitude for the welfare of your souls, and of the souls of those of your children and neighbors who are yet strangers to the renewing grace of God. We have mingled our tears as we have set around the table of our Lord in this holy convocation; we have wept as we remembered our Zion in its present low estate, almost deserted of those special visitations of the Holy Spirit which, during all the past period of our personal ministrations, have been shed down from heaven upon some of these churches, or upon others, in an almost uninterrupted stream of mercy. We have been led with self-abasement and prayer to ask, Is there not a cause? And among other things already referred to in this letter, which seem to have grieved the Spirit of God, we cannot but give a prominent place to that system of blind excitement, of rashly adventurous experiment, and of unadvised innovation, which has of late been so developed in many portions of our country, and which is beginning to touch upon us with its agitating influences.

In the mercy of God our churches have been saved, as yet, from the worst outbreakings of this evil; but you are not ignorant of the fact, which has been confirmed to us in these deliberations by the brethren present from other portions of our country, that in some churches not far distant from our own, and between whom and us there must needs be, and ought to be a close community of sympathy and experience, great disasters have been experienced from these invasions upon order. We have before us, then, such illustrations of the evils referred to, of their origin, their course, and their consequences, as force upon us the conviction that we, in our turn, shall, sooner or later, be overrun, unless, by the blessing of God upon our timely endeavors to obtain an enlightened and cordial agreement in sentiment and action among ourselves, as a body of pastors and churches, this heritage of the Lord may be saved from reproach. We ask then, Brethren, that you will give to this matter your serious and prayerful consideration; and not doubting that your general impressions in regard to it will harmonize with ours, we are confident that you will feel the importance of unanimously "standing against" every kind of teaching and operating in the cause of religion and morals which is contrary to the sound doctrine and established order of our churches as derived from the word of God.

And now, Brethren in Jesus Christ, heirs with us of the grace of life, partakers with us of the blessedness of being co-workers with God, let us awake to appreciate more highly, and to use with more wisdom and diligence God's institutions of mercy, God's means of saving health to the souls of men. O! let us all awake—pastors and people—to realize with a more vivid and abiding apprehension, the grandeur of our position and spiritual relations; the vastness and minuteness of our responsibility; the guilt, the shame of our deficiencies and backslidings; the preciousness of Christ, the Saviour, and the awfulness of having our garments stained with the blood of souls for whose eternal life Christ died. And may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect, in every good work, to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever.

Given at Norfolk, on the 23d day of June, A. D., 1836, by the General Association of Connecticut.

The Committee to whom was re-committed the Report on the church standing of dismissed ministers, made the following Report, which was accepted and adopted :

In the Minutes of the Association, held at Watertown, A. D. 1813, they find certain principles and regulations on this subject to have been reported and adopted, and to which they beg leave to refer the Association. Among these regulations are the following—

"That whenever the pastoral connexion of a minister shall be dissolved, otherwise than by death, he shall continue to be considered and treated as in all respects belonging to the Association.

"That if he remove beyond the limits of the Association, he shall obtain a dismission from his special connexion with them; the dismission to take effect as soon as he shall be received by another Association or Presbytery.

"That no dismissed minister shall be accounted at liberty, of himself, to lay aside the ministerial office, or to dissolve his connexion with Association."

These regulations your Committee believe to be founded on correct and Scriptural principles, and as the acts of the General Association, they are, and ought to be in full force.

In cases where a minister is laid aside from active labor, by ill health, or is engaged in teaching, or any other employment not inconsistent with the sacred office, it is our opinion that he may become connected with a particular church, if the church vote to receive him, and enjoy all the rights and privileges of other members; it being understood that he is amenable both for his ministerial and Christian character, to the ecclesiastical body with which he is connected.

If a minister has been deposed for crime and afterwards gives evidence of penitence, the ecclesiastical body by whom he was deposed may restore him to all the prerogatives of a minister of Christ, or recommend that he be admitted to the privileges only of a private member of the church, according to the aggravations of the case.

The Committee on Finances made the following Report, which was accepted and adopted: That a tax of thirty-seven and a half cents be assessed on each member of the District Associations, payable on demand.

Rev. Samuel H. Riddel was chosen Treasurer.

Voted, That the Treasurer receive Five Dollars for superintending the printing and distributing the Minutes, and that the Minutes be distributed by mail.

Resolved, That Rev. Messrs. Hewit, Bacon, and Cleaveland be a Committee to superintend the publication of an accurate re-print of the Saybrook Platform.

Resolved, That a Committee of one from each Association be appointed to collect from the different Associations and Consociations the various rules and usages which modify the application of the Platform; and to report to the next General Association a summary or digest of the same, which may be incorporated with a new edition of the Platform.

The following persons were appointed under the above resolution: Rev. Messrs. Allen McLean, Calvin Chapin, D. D., Leonard Bacon, Timothy P. Gillett, Abel McEwen, Nathaniel Hewit, D. D., Abner Brundage, Daniel G. Sprague, Frederick Marsh, Noah Porter, Jun., Aaron Hovey, and William Ely. Rev. Mr. Bacon was appointed chairman of the above committee.

An overture from Fairfield East was referred to the following Committee: Rev. Messrs. Punderson, Hewit, and Merwin.

The following Resolution was moved and adopted: In view of the great importance of the field occupied by the American Seamen's Friend Society, and in view of its present pecuniary embarrassments, and the past neglect of this subject of benevolence by the greater part of our churches in the country;—That this Body recommend to the several Consociations of this State the appointment of one of their members, who shall be in correspondence with Rev. Jonathan Greenleaf, Secretary of the American Seamen's Friend Society, and act as agent within the bounds of his Consociation, and report to them of his doings; and that they farther recommend to the churches of this State to fix on some month in the year when they will make an annual collection in aid of the funds of this Society.

An overture on the subject of slavery from New Haven East Association was received; whereupon it was resolved, that this Association deem it sufficient to re-adopt and re-publish the Resolutions passed by this Body in 1834 and 1836.

The following are the Resolutions:

Resolved, That to buy and sell human beings, and to hold them and treat them as merchandize; or to treat servants, free or bond, in any manner inconsistent with the fact, that they are intelligent and voluntary beings, made in the image of God, is a violation of the principles of the word of God; and should be treated by all the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ, as an immorality inconsistent with a profession of the Christian religion.

Resolved, That this Association regards the laws and usages, in respect to slavery, which exist in many of the States of this Union, as inconsistent with the character and responsibilities of a free and Christian people; and holds it to be the duty of every Christian, and especially of every minister of the Gospel, to use all prudent and lawful efforts for the peaceful abolition of slavery.

Resolved, That this Association regards with great sympathy and hope, the efforts which have recently been commenced by Christians of different denominations, in the slave-holding States, for the thorough instruction of the colored population, in the Christian religion; and looks to the gentle and peaceful, yet mighty influences of the Gospel of Christ, as the great and indispensable means, not only of making the masters willing to emancipate and enfranchise their slaves, but also of preparing the slaves for the use and enjoyment of freedom.

The following preamble and resolution were adopted in 1836:

Whereas the system of Slavery as defined and sustained by the laws of some of these United States is contrary to the principles of the Gospel; and whereas

The ministers and members of our churches are frequently emigrating to the slave-holding States, and whereas, they are there strongly tempted to engage in the traffic in Slaves, and to become upholders of the system of Slavery; Therefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Association the buying and selling of human beings, and the holding them for selfish ends, by the ministers and members of our churches removing to the South, is a great sin, and utterly inconsistent with their Christian profession.

The Committee appointed on an overture from Fairfield East, made the following Report, which was accepted and adopted:

1. Resolved, That we deem it highly irregular for any person to engage in the work of preaching the Gospel without a regular license from a duly authorized ecclesiastical body; and that we consider it highly irregular for churches to employ any such persons to preach to them.

2. Resolved, That the Professors of our Theological Seminaries be requested to withhold their recommendations from students that shall practice such irregularities.

3. Resolved, That it be recommended to the several District Associations, that they exercise great caution how they license persons who do not come to them with ample recommendations.

Rev. Messrs. Robert McEwen, Peter H. Shaw, and Nathaniel W. Taylor, D. D. were appointed as delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church; Joab Brace, Lyman Strong, and Asa M. Train, substitutes. [Meeting in Philadelphia, May, 1838.]

Voted, That the thanks of this Body be made to the people of New Milford, for their courteous and Christian hospitality, during the present meeting, and to the choir of singers, for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Committee on so much of the Report of the Trustees of the Missionary Society of Connecticut as relates to the doings of the last General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at their late session, in abrogating the Plan of Union formed between that Body and the General Association, and on the overture from Hartford South Association on the same subject; presented a Report, which was accepted, and an amendment offered thereon; whereupon it was

Resolved, That their Report, together with the amendment to that report be referred to the next General Association, not intending by this postponement to imply consent to the abrogation of the Plan of Union.

The Committee on the State of Religion made a Report, which was accepted and adopted. (See Appendix, No. IV.)

Voted, That the above be accepted as the true Minutes of this Body.

The closing prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Smith; and then the Association, at parting, united in singing the Hymn,

> "Blest be the tie that binds,
> Our hearts in Christian love," &c.

NO. III.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at New Milford, on the third Tuesday of June, 1837—the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS AND BRETHREN,

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1837, were $2,030 58½. During the same period, the disbursements were, $1,376 84. The receipts were almost exclusively the avails of the Permanent Fund,—which now amounts to $29,877 25.

The number of Missionaries appointed by the Society during the year, is twenty. Of these, fourteen were stationed on the Western Reserve—two, in other parts of Ohio—one, in Indiana—one, in Illinois—one, in a very destitute section of Northern Pennsylvania—and one, among the remnant of the Mohegans, in this State. To propagate the Gospel among the Aborigines of our country, was one of the distinctive objects of the organization of this Society.

The "Plan of Union" between the General Association of Connecticut, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church,—under which so much good has been accomplished, and so many churches constituted by the Missionaries of our Society, was dissolved at the late meeting of the General Assembly. The Synod of the Western Reserve has also been declared not to be a portion of the Presbyterian Church. What course the Synod will take, in consequence of this measure, the Directors are not informed; but as their exclusion was chiefly owing to their want of a complete Presbyterian organization, and not to error in doctrine, we may still congratulate the Society that its labors in this section of our country have not been in vain; and it may continue its benefactions to these churches, as constituting an interesting part of the body of Christ.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 15, 1837.

NO. IV.

Report on the State of Religion.

The history of the churches of Connecticut, for the last year, presents some subjects of painful, and some of cheering interest. It is a page marked by the protracted stupidity and ingratitude of a highly favored people, and the forbearance and mercy of God, triumphing over their sins and provocations. It furnishes renewed evidence that He accepts and blesses the imperfect ministrations of his servants, and the feeble efforts of his people; that the Head of the church still walks amidst the golden candlesticks, and holds the stars in his right hand. On parts of the field occupied by the ministers connected with the General Association, the Spirit has been poured in showers of mercy. The parts which have been thus favored, are New Britain, Middletown South, Upper Middletown, Rocky Hill, South Glastenbury, New Haven, Mount Carmel, Woodbridge, Orange, Westville, North Haven, Meriden, Madison, Wallingford, Guilford, Sharon, and Norwalk. The revivals in these places were not the result of new or extraordinary measures, but have generally occurred in connexion with the labors of stated pastors and the special efforts of churches; and have been characterized by stillness, deep feeling, and humble hope. On other parts of this field the Spirit has descended in gentle dews, which have refreshed the languishing children of God, and quickened into life some who were dead in trespasses and sins. Other and perhaps larger parts of this field resemble the mountains of Gilboa, on which there has been neither rain nor dew. But even here the solemn assemblies of the Sabbath have been as full as in preceding years, and no evidence is manifested of an increasing disposition to forsake the house of God.

It is delightful to find attention to the religious education of the young, general among our congregations; that Sabbath Schools, the nurseries of the church, are almost without exception, prosperous; that the benevolent enterprises of the day have been sustained with increasing interest and liberality; and that the cause of temperance, though in some places gaining no accession of numbers, and in others advancing but slowly, is nevertheless getting a stronger hold upon the convictions of the community.

The churches in connexion with the Association are generally peaceful and harmonious. And though among the ministers there are shades of difference in theological views, yet they are not such as need to prevent, and we are happy to believe they will not prevent the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

The Theological Seminaries at New Haven and East Windsor are represented as flourishing; that at New Haven having seventy-six, and that at East Windsor thirty students. To these Institutions the friends of Zion look with interest and hope and prayer, that they may be blessed to the increase of an evangelical and efficient ministry.

The Association would also notice with devout gratitude the continued favor of God to Yale College. During the last term fifteen of its students were hopefully brought under the renewing influences of the Spirit. We cannot but recommend this venerable Institution, brought into existence, and reared by the prayers, zeal, and self-denial of our Pilgrim Fathers, with its beloved faculty, to the continued affections and prayers of God's people.

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, the General Convention of Vermont, the General Conference of Maine, and the Congregational Association of New-York, no reports have been received.

The delegate from the General Association of New Hampshire reports, that the churches in that State have not been blessed, the year past, with extensive revivals, but are harmonious and gaining strength; that they have united their efforts to sustain the Theological Seminary which is established at Gilmanton.

The delegates from the General Association of Massachusetts represent the churches in connexion with that body as generally prosperous, and some of them, to the number of fifty, as having been refreshed with the reviving influences of the Spirit within the last year; and that those orthodox churches which have been constrained to leave Unitarian congregations and form new organizations, have been singularly favored by the providence and grace of God.

The report from the delegate of the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island is most cheering. Though this branch of Christ's church is small and feeble, yet having a little strength, it has kept the faith, and, under the blessing of God, has made considerable aggression upon the regions of darkness with which it is surrounded.

In concluding this report the General Association cannot but express deep solicitude for the interests of Zion in our land, and say to the churches that there is cause of trembling apprehension. It is a day of rebuke. A spirit of discord is abroad among Christians in our land; the foundations of confidence seem to be breaking up, and the ties of mutual affection to be sundering; a spirit of unhallowed ambition has invaded the sacred inclosures of the church, and the spirit of the world has extensively taken possession of the hearts of God's professed people; the judgments of heaven are falling upon our country. There is no doubt that these calamities are intended as a chastisement of God's people, and that their sins have had a principal influence in procuring them. God, then, is loudly calling his people to humiliation and repentance, and his ministers to weep between the porch and the altar, saying, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach.

That we are still disposed to adhere to the agreement referred to in the communication from the Presbytery of New York, and without abandoning the distinctive peculiarities of the Congregational system, to maintain in all respects the most friendly relations towards our Presbyterian brethren.

"Resolved 2. That while we regret the irregularity complained of by the Presbytery, we believe, from information we have received, that the Association complained of, in licensing the candidate in question, acted under an inadvertance, which was natural, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, without any disposition to disregard the before-named agreement.

"Resolved 3. That it be strongly urged on all the Associations, connected with us, to be very careful to avoid all just grounds of complaint, with respect to the licensure of candidates under the care of any Presbytery.

"Resolved 4. That copies of these Resolutions be forwarded to the Association of New Haven West, and to the Presbytery of New York."

Jonathan Greenleaf, Secretary of the Am. Seamen's Friend Soc. and act as Agent within the bounds of his Consociation, and Report to them of his doings: And that they further recommend to the churches of this State, to fix on some month in the year when they will make an annual collection in aid of the funds of this Society.

Resolved, That to buy and sell human beings, and to hold them, and treat them as merchandize; or to treat servants, free and bond, in any manner inconsistent with the fact, that they are intelligent and voluntary beings, made in the image of God, is a violation of the principles of the word of God; and should be treated by all the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ, as an immorality inconsistent with the profession of the Christian Religion.

The Committee on the State of Religion made a Report, which was accepted, and adopted. (See Appendix, No. III.)

An Overture from the New London Association was laid on the table.

The Committee on a Communication from Ministers in New Hampshire submitted a Report, which was accepted and adopted, viz:

The Committee to whom was referred the communication from a Convention of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers in New Hampshire, relative to giving greater permanency to the Pastoral Office, would report as follows:

Whereas the institution of the Gospel Ministry is vital to the best interests of Zion and of the world; and whereas a good degree of permanence, as to its pastoral relations, is necessary in order to its full and legitimate influence; Therefore,

1. Resolved, That this Association deprecate the increasing frequency with which Pastoral relations are dissolved.

2. Resolved, That we deem it inexpedient for Pastors to seek a dismission from their people, or for churches to seek the dismission of their Pastors, except for very manifest and imperative reasons; especially do we regard the practice injurious when the chief design is on the part of Pastors to secure other places, and on the part of churches to obtain other Pastors.

3. Resolved, That we regard the settlement of Pastors on such conditions as that the pastoral relation may be dissolved by either party's giving the other some specified notice, as an undesirable departure from primitive Congregational usage, and a legitimate source of much evil to ministers and churches.

4. Resolved, That the employment by the churches of stated supplies instead of settled Pastors, should be avoided as far as possible.

5. Resolved, That this Association recommend to the several District Associations to consider the above subject, and to lend their aid in giving to the Pastoral Office greater permanency, respect, and usefulness.

The following resolutions were adopted on the subject of Temperance:

Resolved, That the cause of temperance has a continued claim to the love, the prayers, and the co-operation of the ministers and churches of Connecticut.

Resolved, That the late legislative action in relation to intoxicating drinks denotes an advance in public sentiment peculiarly encouraging; and as the best human laws are unavailing unless sustained by public sentiment, it behoves the friends of temperance to increase rather than relax their efforts.

The subject of a Resolution, recommending to the Churches of the State to hold the Monthly Concert on the evening of the First day of the week instead of the second, was given to a Committee, consisting of Messrs. J. Noyes, T. Smith, and E. Hall, to report to the next General Association.

Voted, That the thanks of this Body be expressed to the people of Norwalk for their courteous and Christian hospitality during the present meeting, and to the choir of singers, for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Association having finished the business before them, united in the closing prayer with Rev. Mr. Brainard, and then adjourned.

NO. II.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Norwalk, on the third Tuesday of June, 1838—the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS AND BRETHREN,

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1838, were $2646 66. The disbursements, during the same period, were $2119 15. The amount of the Permanent Fund is $29,877 25.

Of the twenty-one Missionaries employed by the Society, the past year, fourteen were stationed on the Western Reserve—two, in other parts of Ohio—one, in Indiana—two, in Illinois—one, in Northern Pennsylvania—and one, among the Mohegans, in this State. The mode of operation, and the results of effort, are so similar to those in former years, as to require no special detail.

The Trustees are called to lament the death of three of their number, during the year past,—the Hon. Jonathan Brace, John Caldwell, Esq., and Rev. Nathan Perkins, D. D. Mr. Brace was, for many years, Chairman of the Board,—and both he and Dr. Perkins, were members at the time of its incorporation in 1802. Mr. Caldwell was elected a member of the Board in 1817, and at the time of his death, was its Chairman. They were venerable men, whose services were long enjoyed, and whose worth was well appreciated, by the religious and civil community. It is not our design to eulogize them,—they need it not,—but their prompt and almost uniform attendance on the numerous meetings of the Board, during so many years, may well be held up for the imitation of their successors; and deserves the gratitude of this Society. In their example, they yet speak, urging us to fidelity in all our trusts,—and in their death, they admonish us to do with our might what our hand findeth to do.

Andrew Kingsbury, Esq., who had held the office of Treasurer of the Board from its incorporation,—has been removed from this world, since the last meeting of the Society. Faithful, accurate, and ever at his post, he was admirably fitted for such a service—and his death is a severe loss. The Trustees, agreeably to the Constitution, appointed Francis Parsons, Esq. Treasurer, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the decease of Mr. Kingsbury,—and Hon. Thomas S. Williams, in the place of Judge Brace.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 18, 1838.

NO. III.

Report on the State of Religion.

The Committee appointed to report on the State of Religion in the churches connected with this Association, and Corresponding Bodies, respectfully Report :—

The Association are called upon with humility and gratitude to record the rich blessings of grace which God has caused to descend upon the churches of this State within the year. In some of the District Associations, seven-eighths of the churches have been refreshed from the presence of the Lord. Marked revivals of religion have existed in sixty or seventy churches in the State, and more than usual attention to religion has prevailed in many of the congregations. In the counties of Hartford and Litchfield, the operations of the Holy Spirit have been especially manifest; but the salvation of the Lord, with very limited exceptions, has extended throughout all our borders. In the promotion of this heavenly work, it is particularly to be noticed, that the labors of pastors have been unusually blessed, and that the order and decency of the Gospel have been maintained. The benefit of instruction in Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes has been exceedingly apparent in these outpourings of the Spirit of God, and more than an usual proportion of youth have turned unto the Lord.

It is encouraging to the friends of Zion, that Sabbath-schools, in many of our congregations are exciting increased interest.

The efforts which have been made to promote the progress of Temperance, have not been in vain. It is, however, felt, that while on the part of many, the importance and excellence of the principles of this reformation are more fully acknowledged than ever, the number in the community is still great, over whom that strong drink which is raging, is extending its seductive and fatal power.

Amid the pecuniary embarrassments which have affected all classes in society, the public charities of the churches have not, on the whole, been diminished, as was feared. The collections for some objects, have considerably exceeded those of the preceding year, and in many instances, liberality has abounded in poverty.

Attendance upon public worship is much the same as in other years. The number, however, of those who disregard the Sabbath, and slight the institutions of religion, is still such as justly to excite our apprehension and alarm.

Yale College is in a state of prosperity. The Theological school connected with it has about ninety members, which is a greater number than at any former period. It is proposed, in this department, to elect a Professor of Pastoral Duty, as soon as the funds requisite for his support can be obtained.

The Theological Institute of Connecticut, at East Windsor, continues to enjoy the smiles of the Head of the Church. Its present number of students is thirty-eight. The hope is fondly cherished by many of the friends of Zion, that the influence of this Institution upon the churches will be eminently salutary.

During the year, several of the Pastors of the churches have fallen in death. Rev. Nathan Perkins, D. D., who for many years sustained the character of an eminent father in the ministry, has entered upon his rest. His faith, example, and counsels, will cause his memory long to be cherished with respect and affection by the generation which he has left behind. Rev. Joseph E. Camp has been suddenly called away, in a good old age, with the character of those who are declared to be blessed. Rev. William Andrews, and Rev. Charles Prentice, have deceased while in the maturity of their powers, and have left their churches and their brethren mourners. Their lives were devoted to the service of their Divine Master, and during sickness and protracted suffering, the consolations of his Spirit were with them. Rev. Stephen Crosby, a brother greatly beloved, has also recently deceased, while about to resume the relation which, during a part of his ministry, he had sustained to our churches. By these repeated instances of mortality among our brethren, we are warned that our own labors will soon be brought to a close. Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall find watching.

The Delegate from the General Association of Massachusetts reports, "That the churches in connexion with that Body, have been specially blessed, during the past year, with the effusions of the Holy Spirit. The revivals, so far as human instrumentality has been concerned, have been conducted by the pastors of the churches. The operations of Divine Grace have been marked by stillness and great power, and large numbers have been received into many of the churches. The cause of Christian benevolence has continued to advance notwithstanding the almost unparalleled embarrassments of the times."

The Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island report, that although there have been no extensive revivals of religion in their churches during the past year, several congregations have shared in the special influences of the Holy Spirit. "The cause of benevolence is gaining ground. Harmony and brotherly love prevail throughout their borders. Being settled upon the great truths of the Gospel, as held by their fathers, they enjoy peace among themselves, as they contend for the faith once delivered to the saints."

The Delegate from the General Conference of Maine, represents, "their churches and county conferences as maintaining unbroken their mutual fellowship, and enjoying its accompanying peace. A considerable number of churches have been favored with revivals of religion, which, to an unusual extent, have been the result of the Divine blessing upon the ordinary ministrations of the Gospel, and have been characterized, apparently, by the noiseless and thorough operations of the Spirit." An increasing attachment is manifested to religious and benevolent institutions.

The Delegates from the General Convention of Vermont report, that the churches of that State are in harmony, and that religion has, on the whole, an encouraging aspect. Revivals have taken place in many churches; and to most of the others, in which the stated ordinances of the Gospel are enjoyed, additions have been made from time to time.

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church no delegation has appeared, except from the Body called the Constitutional Assembly, and from them we have received a Report on the State of Religion. While we participate in the pain and regret which have been felt by the church at large, in view of the unhappy controversies by which the harmony of that branch of our Zion has been disturbed; we are happy to learn that the last year has been, to a large portion of their churches, a year of the right-hand of the Most High. "In no year, with one exception," it is stated, "have their churches enjoyed so richly or so generally the reviving influences of the Holy Spirit." Two hundred and thirty-four of their congregations have enjoyed special revivals of religion during the last year. In these revivals, the great cities of New York and Philadelphia, and the large and growing churches of Western New York and Ohio have most largely participated. The benevolent action of that branch of the church is represented as on the increase, and their Theological Seminaries are also flourishing.

From the other Ecclesiastical Bodies in correspondence with this Association no reports have been received.

The General Association acknowledge with devout gratitude to God the success which has accompanied the labors of foreign and home missionaries, during the year, and rejoice in the unwearied efforts which are made by these and all other labors of love to extend the blessings of salvation through the land and the world.

NO. II.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Danbury, on the third Tuesday of June, 1839—the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

CHRISTIAN FRIENDS AND BRETHREN,

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1839, were $1850 71. The expenditures, during the same time, were $2678 53. There were no additions to the Permanent Fund, the past year. It now amounts to $29,877 25. The operations of the Society, it will be recollected, are sustained, almost exclusively, from the avails of this Fund.

The number of Missionaries in the service of the Society, the past year, is twenty-six. Of these, sixteen are stationed on the Western Reserve—and for the most part confine their labors to their own congregations;—one, in another part of Ohio;—six, in Illinois;—one, in Pennsylvania;—and one, among the Mohegans in this State. The number of Missionaries employed by the Society, during the last year, is larger than it has been for some time past,—and it is believed that their efficiency has also been increased. The plan of a Board of Direction, on the Western Reserve, to recommend to the Trustees suitable persons for Missionaries, and to ascertain the wants of the weak congregations, is manifestly adding vigor to the operations of the Society.

The Trustees, it will be perceived, have increased the number of Missionaries in Illinois. The call for assistance from some of the new settlements in that rapidly growing State, is urgent,—and a portion of the means placed at the disposal of the Board, it was thought, could not be better employed, than in this section of our country.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 14, 1839.

NO. III.

Simsbury, June 1, 1839.

NOTE.—It may be proper to state that the Report for 1838, included $60 received of Rev. Chester Humphrey, loaned to him when a student in Princeton Theological Seminary. Soon after this was received, the Committee appropriated $30 of it to L. H. Barber, a pious student in Amherst College; and $30 loaned temporarily. The temporary loan has been paid, and is included in the interest received during the year.

NO. IV.

Report of Committee on Windham Overture.

To the General Association of Connecticut, to be convened at Danbury, on the third Tuesday of June, 1839—The Committee appointed at the last meeting of the General Association on an Overture from Windham Association, would Report:

That having carefully attended to the subject of said overture, we have come to the conclusion, that the present ratio of representation from the District Associations to the General Association, is quite unjust, as each Association is now entitled to send the same number of Delegates, while some of the Associations, contain two, and even three times as many members as others. To remove this inequality, in part, we would recommend the following ratio of representation:

1. That every District Association be entitled to send to the General Association, two Delegates.
2. That such Associations as have within their limits, 15 churches, and under 20, furnished with Pastors, and stated supplies, be entitled to send 3 Delegates.
3. That such Associations as have within their limits 20 churches, or more, furnished with Pastors, and stated supplies, be entitled to send 4 Delegates.

According to this plan, no Association will be entitled to less than 2, and no one to more than 4 Delegates to the General Association, and the whole number would be nearly the same as at present.

All which is respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES PORTER, Chairman.

Westford, June 5, 1839.

NO. V.

Report on the State of Religion.

Two centuries have elapsed since our Puritan ancestors planted the first churches of this State in our two principal cities. Under the fostering care of Providence, there are now connected with us 237. Of these, 177 have settled Pastors. The remaining 60 are not under the charge of permanent Pastors, yet most of them enjoy the benefits of a stated supply. We suppose there are in these churches about 45,000 members; and probably an equal number of children and youth and adults in the Sabbath schools and Bible classes connected with them. In several of these churches, the year 1838 will long be remembered as a year of the right hand of the Most High. The congregations in Hartford, Farmington, Southington, and Newington, evidently enjoyed the special presence of the Divine Spirit, and about 800 have made a public profession of their faith and devotement to Christ. The same time was also a season of refreshing to the churches in Woodbury, New Milford, Danbury, and several other portions of our Zion, the fruits of which have been gathered in since the last meeting of this Body. More recently, the congregations in Greenwich, Sharon, Salisbury, Suffield, Wethersfield, Middletown, Millington, and Colchester have largely shared in the blest effusions of the Spirit; and several others, in New London, Windham, Tolland, Litchfield, and Fairfield counties, have been revived by more gentle refreshings from the presence of the Lord.

The pastors and churches are, very extensively, living and laboring together in peace, in harmony, and in love. The pastoral relation, we rejoice to believe, is becoming more permanent.

From nearly all the District Associations we have the cheering intelligence that the attendance upon the public worship of God is on the increase. For this we thank God and take courage.

The cause of Christian benevolence has evidently gained the warm and abiding attachment of our people. In nearly every part of our beloved Zion, the gold and silver cast into the treasury of the Lord, is gaining both in amount, in the number of those who give, and the cheerfulness with which it is given. "God loveth a cheerful giver." Never have we felt that our Zion looked so bright in this respect, or the prospects of the world's redemption so animating.

Sabbath schools too are loved, and are fostered. In nearly all our congregations, they are enjoying unwonted prosperity.

The great thorough-fares, opening through our State, by means of rail-roads, threaten an increased desecration of the Sabbath. Ought not all lovers of their country, and lovers of mankind, to rally around this bulwark of our civil liberty,—this ark of our salvation, and seek to transmit to our children the quiet Sabbaths which the fathers of New England loved so well, and to which, under God, we owe all that is dear in our earthly pilgrimage and our immortal being?

The cause of Temperance is represented as being steadily, though not rapidly, on the advance. In many of the churches it has thoroughly prevailed and completed its work; while in the communities around them, little more, it is thought, can be effected, except through the aid of the law. Those who vend and those who use in these latter days, are regarded as incorrigible by moral suasion.

Yale College, the cherished institution of our fathers, is enjoying its accustomed prosperity. The Theological department contains about 90 students.

The Theological Institute at East Windsor continues to enjoy the smiles of the great Head of the church. The present number of students is 25; and the hope is entertained that this institution may be eminently salutary to the interests of godliness.

By the delegate from the General Association of Massachusetts we are happy to learn, that there are connected with that Body 376 churches, 330 ministers, 56,000 members, and 67,000 pupils in Sabbath schools; that peace and harmony prevail in a high degree among the ministers and the churches; that the cause of Christian benevolence is every year becoming more deeply seated in the warm affections of the pious; and especially that no less than eight of their District Associations have shared, more or less copiously, in the effusions of the Spirit of God.

The delegates from Rhode Island report, that all of their sixteen churches are enjoying the stated means of grace, thirteen of them have 1745 members, and 3300 pupils are receiving instruction in their Sabbath schools.

From the other Ecclesiastical Bodies with which we are in correspondence, no reports have been received.

During the year, one of the fathers has fallen. Rev. Joseph Vaill, of Hadlyme, in the 88th year of his age, and 59th of his ministry, has gone to his rest. He was an eminently good man, full of faith, of simplicity, and godly sincerity. His survivors are instructed by the history of his life,—"though dead, he yet speaketh."

The Committee on the communication from the Congregational Union of England and Wales reported a letter in reply, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed with the Minutes. The Register was charged with the transmission of this letter, and of the documents of this Body. (See Appendix, No. VI.)

Voted, That the next Annual Meeting of this Association be held at the house of Rev. Samuel W. S. Dutton, in New Haven, on the third Tuesday of June, 1841.

Resolved, That the system of American slavery is, in the opinion of this Body, inconsistent with the principles of the Gospel; and its immediate abolition, by those who have the legal power, is a duty, in the discharge of which the blessing of heaven may be expected.

Resolved, That we recommend to the churches under our care a prayerful consideration of this important subject; and the exertion of their appropriate influence for the emancipation of all the enslaved in this land and throughout the world.

Rev. Messrs. Daggett, H. N. Day, and Riddel were appointed a Committee to re-arrange the Schedule of nominations, and prepare it for the press.

The Minutes were read and adopted.

The Association having finished the business before them, united in the closing prayer with President Day, and then adjourned.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at New Haven, on the third Tuesday of June, 1840, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1840, were $ 2012 22. During the same period, the expenditures were $ 3443 72. The Permanent Fund, to which no additions were made, the last year, is $ 29,877 25. The excess of the expenditures over the receipts, was $ 1431 22. This sum was taken from a small disposable fund, accumulated in former years,—which the Trustees thought it better to expend, in supplying the present necessities of the destitute settlements, than to employ only the interest of it, for that purpose.

The number of Missionaries, in the service of the Society, the past year, is twenty. Of these, thirteen are on the Western Reserve,—five, in Illinois,—one, in Pennsylvania,—and one, among the remnant of the Mohegans, in this State.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 15, 1840.

NO. IV.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

In the merciful providence of God, the pastors of the churches assembled on this occasion, are permitted to review the past year, in its moral and religious aspects, touching themselves and these churches, with fresh and increasing cause of gratitude. They would not be insensible, also, to the deep humiliation which they should exercise in view of their deficiencies as men and as ministers, and to the evils which still continue to prevail amid the respective fields of their labor. The circumstances under which they meet, are highly calculated to call forth those fraternal and devout sympathies which should distinguish them as ministers of the Gospel, and by which they are known to the world, as the disciples of one common Master. Their mutual intercourse and consultations in their associated relation, have ever been, it is believed, one great means of cementing their union, animating their hopes, and encouraging their efforts, in the great work to which they are appointed.

At the present time, they feel the necessity of drawing closer the bonds which connect them with each other, and of being quickened in holy diligence, from the consideration that five* of their fellow-laborers have fallen by death during the past year—two in very advanced life, two in the midst of their days, and one young man who had just entered upon the ministry, around whom many hopes were clustered. These our beloved fathers and brethren instruct and admonish us, by the example of their virtues.

There is evidence from the statements which have been given by the several local Associations, that God has been graciously present with his churches, the past year, as he was wont to be in the days of our fathers. The spirit of the Puritans lives, to some extent at least, in their descendants; and wherever their institutions exist and are sustained by the same feelings in kind, like effects have been produced, and that from age to age. The character which these institutions, in their wide diffusion through the land, have formed and nurtured, has always had a peculiar type. It has been marked by simplicity, purity, power—by directness of aim in the religious life, by independence of thought in biblical investigation, and by a love of truth and freedom. Revivals of religion in the churches, with accompanying reformations in the community, which, through the divine blessing, are both a product and a proof of the excellent principles of our puritan ancestors, are now as frequent, it is believed, and as pure, it is hoped, as they were in the early periods of our history. We rejoice in them as God's testimony to Christian faithfulness on the part of pastors and churches, as the answer of prayer, as the token of union in the truth, and as the pledge and earnest of the future complete victory of Zion's King over this revolted world. We give to God the praise of his own blessed work. Let those who have the temerity, speak in disparagement of the operations of the Holy Spirit.

These manifestations of divine power have been enjoyed by the churches within our bounds, during the past year, perhaps, in an unusual degree. In many places, there has been more than the ordinary measure of gracious influence; and in quite a number, the work of God has been very signal. The latter has been the character of the work in Bristol, Barkhamsted, Plainville, Hartford Fourth, and West Hartford. The effusions of the Spirit have been extensively experienced, also, in New Haven, Mount Carmel, East Plains, and Waterbury. In one Association, that for the Eastern District of New Haven, the remarkable fact appears, that out of sixteen churches, ten have been blessed, in a greater or less degree, with the same precious influences. These favored churches are North Haven, Meriden, Northford, North Guilford, United Society of New Haven, Guilford, Wallingford, North Branford, Branford, and Cheshire. The aggregate of supposed conversions in these ten places, is not far from seven hundred, many of the subjects of which have already professed religion. The congregation in Ridgefield, in Fairfield West, has enjoyed a large share of divine influence, as also Ashford, in Windham Association. There has likewise been some degree of a special work in Bozrahville, East Lyme, Salem, Stamford, Norwalk First, Greensfarms, Fairfield First, Thompson, Village Corners, Muddy Brook, and Chaplin. In the whole, thirty-two congregations are mentioned as having been visited in the manner already described, and a great accession of moral strength and spirituality, it is felt, has been brought to the churches. These effects of divine grace have, in general, appeared to follow the ordinary religious means, faithfully applied to Christians and to sinners. In many places, where these visitations of mercy have not been enjoyed, there is nevertheless a state of things which may be called prosperous, partly as the effect of former revivals, and partly as the prayerful anticipation of coming good. We dwell the more on the subject of revivals, as we believe, that at least in this land, and in such a community as our own, they are destined to give to the Christianity which is professed among us, its peculiar form and feature.

* Rev. Abner Smith, aged 97 years, who died in New York State, but continued his connexion with us, formerly pastor of a church in Derby; Rev. Matthew Noyes, of Northford, not far from 50 years in the ministry; Rev. Henry Gleason, of Durham; Rev. Lewis Foster, of Clinton; and Rev. John O. Colton, of New Haven.

We learn with pleasure, that the churches are generally furnished with pastors, and that to a good degree, a spirit of activity and enterprise is manifested in sustaining the institutions of the Gospel, and in promoting the spiritual welfare of the community. The frequent erection of new and commodious houses of worship, and the remodelling of old ones, is a pleasing indication of the interest which is felt on this subject. The comparatively small number of ministers who have been dismissed, and the speedy supply of vacancies of late, lead us to infer, that the permanency as well as the importance of the pastoral relation, is beginning again to be estimated as it was in the days of our forefathers. Connected with this trait, is the gratifying fact that the attendance on public worship seems, for the most part, to be on the increase.

Union, which is the strength, the ornament, and the criterion of Christianity, is represented in almost every report of the District Associations, as extensively prevailing among the pastors and churches, and there seems in general to be that "endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace," which, with the blessing of God, can never fail to accomplish the object, even amidst that diversity of views, on some topics, which is a common attribute of our frail humanity, or a necessary result of our imperfect sanctification. The argument for peace and harmony, in such circumstances, derives immense weight, as well from the fact, that the pastors and churches speak of it, wherever it exists, as a blessing for which they should be eminently thankful, as from its strict coincidence with the precepts and spirit of the Bible.

The commercial and pecuniary embarrassments of the times seem, hitherto, to have had little or no effect, in diminishing the charities of those who love the Gospel, and seek its extension at home and abroad. On the contrary, there has probably been, in the whole State, an amount of contributions to benevolent objects, within the year, beyond that of any former year. This is the right spirit; and shows that a permanent and perennial benevolence may be calculated upon, in the mighty enterprise to which the church has consecrated her energies.

The many thousands of children and youth, who, in our Sabbath schools, are taught the truths of the Bible and the lessons of beneficence, and many of whom are renewed and sanctified by such an instrumentality, inspire within us the hope, that our places will be filled, and this to a better effect than at present, when we shall have been summoned to our final account. The extensive introduction of valuable libraries into these institutions, we feel to be, and would recommend, as a means well adapted to make a race of Christians fond of reading and research—enlightened and patriotic, and of general elevation of character.

Some complaints are made in regard to the desecration of the Sabbath, especially through the increased facilities for travelling. This cannot but be the more regretted, as with every other indication of spiritual prosperity, if that were possible, a disregard of this holy day in the minds of the people, would tend eventually to efface the last vestige of piety and of freedom from the land. More care and prayer, and a stricter discipline of offending church members are due from the faithful, as a testimony of their regard for this sacred institution, and as a means of arresting, in this respect, the downward tendency of the age. However consentaneous it may be to the temper of the times, and of many of our citizens in the pursuit of wealth or of pleasure, to trample on such a divine appointment, it will be found, as in all other cases of transgression, that not only no good is gained, but infinite evil is incurred.

In regard to temperance, a paramount interest also, it is difficult to admit that it is not on the whole on the advance, and yet it would appear, that in a number of places, the aspect of things, is, in a degree, discouraging. The cause is stationary, or possibly retrograde, in some portions of the State; although in others, it is decidedly going forward, and its principles are daily becoming more fixed in the minds of men. It is hoped that the hydra-headed evil of intemperance may ere long receive its final, fatal wound.

Yale College is favored with its usual prosperity, in all its departments. In addition to the revivals which have been recorded above, may be noticed some special influences of the Holy Spirit which have recently been granted to this institution. Though the work has been limited as to extent, it has been pleasant in its effects. Several have manifested their hope in the Saviour, and joined the communion of the church. An additional Professor has been appointed in the Theological department. That department now numbers between eighty and ninety members.

The Theological Institute at East Windsor continues to enjoy its prosperity, and under the smiles of divine Providence, thirty young men are there preparing for the ministry, with encouraging prospects of usefulness.

The Reports of Foreign Bodies, so far as they have been received, present an encouraging prospect, on the whole, in regard to the progress of morals and sound religion.

The General Association of Massachusetts, including within its bounds probably sixty thousand church members, and at least as large a number of Sabbath school scholars—refreshed with revivals in very many towns, and revivals affecting particularly Sabbath schools—giving to the cause of Foreign Missions, by estimate, an amount of seventy thousand dollars—and stemming the tide of intemperance and other evils, affords to them as well as to ourselves, occasion of thankfulness to God for the conservative and sanctifying energies of the Gospel, in a world of sin and evil.

New Hampshire, as we learn through the delegate of its ecclesiastical body, rejoices in the harmony of its ministers and churches—in the increasing settlements of the ministry among them—in the reviving influences which have been enjoyed in several of its congregations—in the new, aroused attention to its Sabbath schools—in the fresh impulse given to temperance, and in the flourishing condition of its Literary Institution at Hanover, and its Theological Seminary at Gilmanton.

Vermont is reported as not being blessed with many revivals of religion at the present time, but as enjoying extensive peace and harmony in its ecclesiastical connexions—the religious sense of the community being manifested by an increasing regard of the institutions of the Gospel, and by forward movements in the cause of benevolence and Christian morals. The condition of the churches is represented as being sound and healthy in an encouraging degree, and their members as being "ready to every good word and work."

From the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island we learn, that the churches connected with that body are in the enjoyment of peace and prosperity—that in several congregations seasons of divine refreshing have been witnessed—that vigorous efforts are made in the cause of temperance—that Sabbath schools are in a flourishing condition—and that great attention, particularly in the city of Providence, is bestowed on common school education, from which are expected the most happy results in regard to the moral, as well as intellectual benefit of the community.

The delegate from the General Association of New York reports, that amid difficulties arising from the violation of the Sabbath by means of public travel, and from consequent intemperance and other evils, in that part of our country, they have, notwithstanding, realized much of the presence and interposition of the great Head of the church—that several of their congregations have been revived—and that a state of delightful union and peace prevails among themselves. They feel cheered and strengthened by anticipations of the future, inasmuch as, through the divine assistance, they have been carried forward in past duties, and sustained in past trials.

The delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which held its sessions in the First Church of Philadelphia, report, that they have enjoyed unwonted divine manifestations for several months past—that a moiety at least of their churches have shared in these manifestations—that most of the large cities on the Atlantic board and in the interior parts of the Union, have been the special seats and scenes of these wonders of grace, and that probably fifteen thousand souls have been added to the Lord. They represent that the moral improvements and enterprises so uniformly consequent on such divine visitations are already signally visible, and they hail those visitations and these effects, as omens of future increased good, and as the day-star of the Millennial morning.

In conclusion, Fathers and Brethren, we feel that we have abundant occasion to bless God and take courage, in view of the condition present and prospective of our Zion, as well as to watch against the evils to which ourselves and the important bodies we represent are liable, in a world of trial.

NO. V.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE RELIGIOUS INFLUENCE OF THE MEETINGS OF THIS BODY.

The Committee appointed to take into consideration the communication from Fairfield East Association respecting the religious influence of the meetings of the General Association, report the following as the result of their deliberation.

Your Committee feel, and trust the members of this body generally feel, the justice of the rebuke implied in this communication, and regret that the meetings of this body, for some years past, have failed to make that religious impression, and afford that spiritual improvement which they ought to have done. Your Committee have the solemn conviction that while these meetings are necessarily employed, to some extent, upon subjects not immediately connected with vital godliness; yet that a great object of them should be, by intercourse and consultation to extend the views, increase the devotedness, and elevate the piety of the ministry and the churches, and that they should be so conducted as to have this effect. We look back to times when this was a prominent object of the sessions of this body; and we can point to other ecclesiastial bodies in whose meetings this object is secured to a much greater degree than with us.

To promote this desirable end, your Committee make the following suggestions:

1. That ministers, especially the members of the General Association and the churches should look forward to the meetings of this body with the expectation of a season of spiritual refreshment, with the determination, as far as depends on the power of man to make them such; and with fervent prayer for the presence of the Sanctifier and Comforter. We believe that much, very much depends on the expectation and preparation of the ministers and the churches where the Association convene, and those in the vicinity. We cannot doubt that God will bestow his blessing on those who are prepared and waiting to receive it.

2. That all the religious services of the occasion should have a bearing upon this object,—should be designed and calculated to promote it. That the sessions of this body should not be perverted to debate and strife about non-essential differences; that the members keep in remembrance that the General Association is not a legislative or a judicial body, but a body for mutual consultation, advice, and the promotion of brotherly love. Your Committee are persuaded that there is an extreme sensitiveness, perhaps fastidiousness in the Christian community in regard to the collisions of ministers, and that therefore they ought especially to watch against all bitterness in their discussions—to avoid every thing which may be an offence to Christian charity.

3. We would suggest that the reports on the state of religion from the District Associations and Foreign Bodies, should be made in a public meeting, either in the forenoon or afternoon of the second day of the session; and that these reports be prepared for the purpose, with conciseness, yet with sufficient particularity to reach the feelings of those who are interested in the welfare of Zion.

4. That religious services should be performed on every day and evening of the sessions of this body, for the benefit of the people and the ministers who are not members of the Association.

LETTER TO THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

New Haven, June 18, 1840.

The General Association of Connecticut to the Congregational Union of England and Wales.

Beloved Brethren in Christ,

It gave us joy to hear read, at the opening of our present session, your truly fraternal letter under date of May last. It was very pleasant to receive the expressions of your sympathy and love, and to know that, on the ground of our common faith and common interests, we have a remembrance in your prayers.

Be assured, dear Brethren, that our hearts are drawn to you, not only by the ties of our common Christianity, but by the remembrance of our origin as formed among the churches of your land; and most heartily do we reciprocate every expression of fellowship and love contained in your very acceptable epistle.

By what means your communication of March, 1838, together with the documents mentioned as sent with it, failed of reaching us, we know not. But neither has come to hand; and it is owing to this, and not to any indifference to intercourse with you, that our correspondence, so pleasantly begun, has for sometime past been interrupted. We joyfully resume it; and while we feel that 'your churches and ours are bound to each other by ties so many, and so strong, that fellowship between them cannot but be sweet and endearing,' we wish to add, that we shall ever be most ready to hold intercourse with you, 'either by mutual delegation, or by interchange of documents and correspondence.'

The printed Minutes of our present meeting, accompanying this, will make you acquainted with the general state of our churches. We are just now closing the annual session of this Body, which has been one of much interest and harmony. We bless our heavenly Father for the sweet influences of his grace upon us and our churches; and while we praise him for the past tokens of his favor, we go home to the work he has assigned us, with new confidence in his love, and with brighter hopes of his assisting grace in future.

Our prayer for you, dear Brethren, and for the churches in connexion with you, is, that the God of peace and love may dwell among you, and give great success to all your endeavors to build up the kingdom of our common Lord. We hear with joy of what you are doing to extend the triumphs of the cross in your own and in other lands; and especially of your praise-worthy and most successful efforts in the great cause of human rights and African emancipation. May your zeal and success in these good works be greatly increased; and the friends of Christ all over the earth soon be united in putting forth their utmost energies for the advancement of the great cause of religion and freedom throughout the world.

Most heartily, beloved Brethren, do we unite in the prayer expressed in your letter, that your country and ours may abide in peace; and that 'no war or strife may arise between the parent and the daughter people,' who should always be as one. The heart sickens at the thought, that between two great Christian nations, like yours and ours, on whose mutual efforts and continued co-operation, the advancement of the cause of God in our world so greatly depends, there should ever exist any thing but mutual attachment and the most kindly good feelings. Let our united prayers ascend to the God of nations, that he may preserve your country and ours in firm and ever enduring peace.

We bid you farewell, dear Brethren, in the name of the Lord; and wish all grace, mercy, and peace to be multiplied to you from God the Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Signed in behalf of the Association,

DAVID D. FIELD, Moderator.

STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES.

REPORT OF THE AGENT ON STATISTICS.

The last General Association requested the undersigned to act as General Agent in collecting and embodying the Statistics of the Churches in our connexion.

Complete returns have been received from the churches connected with the following Associations, viz: New Haven West, New Haven East, New London, Fairfield West, Fairfield East, and Middlesex. The returns from the four following Associations are nearly complete, viz: Hartford North, Hartford South, Litchfield South, and Tolland. From Windham Association, 15 churches out of 24 have made report. In Litchfield North, only 7 churches out of 20 have made report. The whole number of churches reported is 212; the number of churches not reported 31; whole number of churches connected with the General Association, 243.

The reports from the District Associations have all been copied and reduced to the same form. A few alterations and additions have been made to the Statistical Tables, and a general Summary appended to the whole. Some of the results of these tables will here be stated.

It appears that 228 churches are consociated; and 15 not consociated.

Number of Members.—212 churches report 34,644 members, which is an average of 163 members to each church. If we allow the same average to the 31 churches not reported, the total number will be 39,714; which is probably not far from the true number. 194 churches distinguish male and female members. The numbers are 9,888 males, and 20,445 females; which is somewhat more than two females to one male.

Additions and Removals.—The 212 churches reported have received by profession 971 members; which is an average of about 4½ to each church. The removals by death have been 522; which is about 1½ per cent. of the whole number of members. The number of excommunications is 59; being to the whole number of members, as 1 to 587. The additions by profession exceed the removals by death and excommunication, by 390. The additions by letter are 813; removals by letter 997; decrease on this score, 184. Total additions, 1,784; total removals, 1,578; nett increase, 206.

The churches in the 6 following Associations have received more members than have been removed, viz: Hartford North, Hartford South, New London, Fairfield West, Windham, and Tolland.

The churches in the following 5 Associations have received fewer members than have been removed, viz: New Haven West, New Haven East, Fairfield East, Litchfield South, and Middlesex.

Baptisms.—The number of adults baptized is 392; which is about $\frac{4}{11}$ of the whole number that have united with the churches by profession.

The number of infants baptized, is 1,093 ; which is about 3 to every 100 church members. It is worthy of notice, that in 32 of our churches, no infants were baptized in the year 1839.

Non-residents.—The whole number reported is 2,572 ; which is about 7 per cent. of the whole number of members. But in this item, nearly half the reports are defective.

Pastors.—The list of Pastors is believed to be complete. 5 churches have 2 pastors each ; and 183 churches have 1 pastor each. Whole number supplied with pastors 187 ; which is somewhat more than 77 per cent. of the whole number of churches. Of the remaining 55 churches, 28 have stated supplies, and only 27 are vacant ; i. e. the vacant churches are but 11 per cent. of the whole number.

Ministerial Age of Pastors.—The date of ordination is ascertained in every case except one. The whole number of pastors is 193. The aggregate ministerial age of 192 pastors is 3,029 years ; which is an average of $15\frac{148}{192}$ years to each pastor. 97 pastors received ordination at the time they entered upon their present pastoral relations ; and 96 had been previously ordained.

Age of present Pastoral relations.—The date of the last installation is ascertained in every case except four. The aggregate age of 189 existing pastoral relations, is 1,925 years ; which is an average of $10\frac{34}{189}$ years to each existing pastoral relation. Of the 189 pastoral relations, 135 are under 10 years of age ; 18 are between the ages of 10 and 20 years ; 16 are between the ages of 20 and 30 years; 11 are between the ages of 30 and 40 years ; 6 are between the ages of 40 and 50 years ; and 3 are between the ages of 50 and 60 years. The three oldest pastors are, Nathaniel Gaylord, of West Hartland ; Samuel Nott, D. D., of Franklin ; and Frederick W. Hotchkiss, of Saybrook.

The District Associations vary considerably in respect to the permanence of the pastoral relation.

In Hartford South, the average age is		$14\frac{1}{15}$ years.
Hartford North,	"	$12\frac{14}{22}$ years.
New Haven East,	"	$12\frac{3}{13}$ years.
New Haven West,	"	$12\frac{1}{13}$ years.
Middlesex,	"	$11\frac{10}{14}$ years.
New London,	"	$9\frac{18}{22}$ years.
Tolland,	"	$9\frac{13}{16}$ years.
Litchfield North,	"	$9\frac{6}{11}$ years.
Fairfield West,	"	$8\frac{11}{17}$ years.
Windham,	"	$7\frac{18}{19}$ years.
Litchfield South,	"	7 years.
Fairfield East,	"	$4\frac{1}{7}$ years.

An attempt has been made to exhibit a complete list of the members of each District Association, arranged in the order of ministeral age, with the place of residence, the date of ordination, the ministerial age, and the occupation whether as Pastor, stated supply, or without charge, annexed to each name. Those of Litchfield North, Hartford South, and Tolland, may be found to be defective.

The whole number of members given is 174. Of this number, 188 are pastors; 20 are stated supplies; 1 is a missionary to the Indians; 1 is a President of a College; 5 are Professors of Theology; 6 are teachers; 3 are editors; 2 are agents; and 48 are without charge.

The date of ordination is ascertained in 259 cases. Aggregate ministerial age of these 259 members, 4,549 years; average to each member, $17\frac{14}{259}$ years.

The Ministerial age	of 97	members,	is under 10 years.
"	of 66	"	between 10 and 20 years.
"	of 49	"	between 20 and 30 years.
"	of 28	"	between 30 and 40 years.
"	of 12	"	between 40 and 50 years.
"	of 6	"	between 50 and 60 years.
"	of 1	"	between 70 and 80 years.
	259

The oldest member is Isaac Lewis, D. D., of Greenwich, who was ordained Oct. 25, 1768, and is now in the 72d year of his ministry, in the full possession of all his mental powers.

A list of licensed preachers is given in connexion with each District Association. The whole number is 95.

A table exhibiting a summary of the principal results, is annexed to the list of members.

All which is respectfully submitted,

The following persons were appointed receivers of statistics in their respective District Associations, viz. Messrs. Daggett, Whittlesey, Putnam, Griggs, Shipman, T. Smith, Stone, Tillotson, Ives, Camp, Field, and Miller.

Resolved, That the various duties of the General Association, give the Body no time for attending to addresses from the Agents of Benevolent Institutions except such as may be conveniently connected with the customary, public religious exercises; and such as relate to matters of business, on which the advice or action of the General Association is requested. The Committee to whom was referred the proposals of Messrs. Tyler and Porter, reported the following resolutions, which were accepted and adopted.

1. Resolved, That the documents presented to this Body by the Committee on Rules and Usages, be published under the superintendence of the Committee.

2. Resolved, That the Committee be authorized to make corrections and additions, as upon further inquiry, they may find requisite; and that to this end they be requested, to cause a copy of the Digest at least, to be sent to one or more ministers in each District, before publication, for their revision.

3. Resolved, That the publication include the Confession of Faith assented to by the Synod, at Saybrook, with the Heads of Agreement and Articles of Discipline, and also the Cambridge Platform.

4. Resolved, That the Committee be authorized to append to the Cambridge Platform, any Notes and Illustrations which may be in their judgment expedient.

5. Resolved, That our delegates to the General Association of Massachusetts, be requested to inform that Body of our intention to publish the Cambridge Platform in connection with our own Rules and Usages, and that they be respectfully invited to render to our Committee any assistance in their power, which may make the work more complete and more extensively useful.

6. Resolved, That the proposals of Rev. E. R. Tyler and Mr. Samuel Porter be accepted, it being understood that the said proposals refer to the volume as described in the preceding resolutions.

The Committee on Statistics reported: whereupon,

Voted, That the Statistics received from the District Associations be published with the Minutes.

Rev. Timothy P. Gillett, was appointed to preach the Concio ad Clerum at the next Commencement in Yale College.

Voted, That the Reports of the Treasurer and Directors of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, Auxiliary to the American Home Missionary Society, be printed with the Minutes of this Body. (See Appendix, No. VI.)

The following persons were elected by ballot Trustees of the Missionary Society of Connecticut; Rev. Joel Hawes, D. D., Hon. Seth Terry, Rev. Noah Porter D. D., Hon. Elisha Stearns, Hon. Samuel J. Hitchcock, Rev. Oliver E. Daggett, Rev. Timothy P. Gillett, Rev. Alvan Bond, Thomas C. Perkins, Esq., Hon. Thomas S. Williams, Rev. Horace Bushnell and Edward Goodwin, Esq.

Francis Parsons Esq., was chosen Treasurer; and Rev. Horace Hooker, Auditor of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

The following persons were appointed Directors of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, Auxiliary to the American Home Missionary Society; Rev. Thomas Punderson, Rev. Bennet Tyler, D. D., Rev. Samuel Spring, Jonathan Barnes, Esq., Rev. Leonard Bacon and Rev. Anson S. Atwood.

Heard Addresses by delegates of the Washington Temperance Society in the city of New York, at the close of which, prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Field.

Voted, That the Moderator express the sympathy of this Association with these Delegates and its thanks for their remarks before the Body; and the following expression of the views and feelings of the Association, was ordered to be put upon the Minutes. This General Association, having heard of the wonderful movement recently commenced in several of the cities of the United States, among that unhappy class of our fellow men who have been deluded and almost destroyed by the use of intoxicating liquors; a movement which has already resulted in the hopeful reformation of several thousands of drunkards; and having listened to the affecting statements of some of this class who have come to this city for the purpose of extending the movement; do offer up their devout thanks to Almighty God for this merciful interposition of his providence to save the lost. This General Association in view of the cheering facts above recited, would earnestly, as ministers of a merciful God, entreat all the friends of religion and humanity, throughout the State, to make a special effort at the present time to convince the intemperate of the practicability of immediate and permanent reformation, and by kindness to encourage them to bind themselves by the pledge of total abstinence, that they may be saved from temporal and eternal ruin.

Resolved, That it be recommended to all the Ministers and churches to co-operate with the Executive Committee of the Connecticut Temperance Society, in the effort which they are about to make through their Secretary and General Agent, the Rev. Charles J. Warren, to carry forward the cause of Temperance throughout the State.

Resolved, That the doctrine, that sinless perfection is ever attained in this life, is, in the view of this Association, contrary to Scripture and Christian experience, and is dangerous to the welfare of Christ's kingdom.

Voted, That the thanks of this Body be expressed to the church and congregation of the United Society and to the members of other churches and societies in New Haven, for their courteous and Christian hospitality during the present meeting, and to the choir of singers for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Minutes were read and adopted.

The Association having finished the business before them, united in the closing prayer, with Rev. A. Dutton; and then adjourned.

Should the surviving members be re-appointed, they request that a Layman be added, and beg leave to recommend Dea. Lansel Foot, of Canton.

NO. II.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at New Haven, on the third Tuesday of June, 1841, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

During the past year, the Society employed nineteen Missionaries;—of which thirteen are stationed on the Western Reserve,—five, in Illinois,—and one, among the Mohegans, in Connecticut. There has been nothing marked in their operations, or success, different from what has been often reported, to render it necessary to take up time in details. Happily, the Society entered so early upon the work of Home Missions, that the labors and influences connected with them, are familiar to the people of this State. Though, since the union between our Domestic Missionary Society, and the American Home Missionary Society, the funds at the disposal of the Trustees have been greatly diminished,—the Missionary Society of Connecticut continues to bless and cheer a portion of the churches it planted, in former days.

The receipts of the Society, for the year ending January 1, 1841, were $2,676,79. The expenditures, during the same period, were $2,673,54. The present amount of the Permanent Fund, is $30,000.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 14, 1841.

NO. III.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND USAGES.

The Committee appointed by the General Association of 1838, to collect and digest the rules and usages of the several Associations and Consociations in this State, directing or modifying the application of the Platform, respectfully report;—

That in attending to the duty assigned to them, it seemed proper to inquire, first, into the origin and history of the Associations and Consociations,—secondly, to inquire how far the several articles of the Saybrook Platform are now observed by those bodies and by the churches,—and thirdly, to combine and arrange the existing rule sand usages in the form of a Digest.

The Committee further report, that it seemed to them convenient to distribute these three parts of the work among the three members of the Committee; and that, accordingly, the Historical Account of the origin and progress of our ecclesiastical confederation has been prepared by the Rev. Dr. Field,—The account of the degree in which our ecclesiastical order is now conformed to the principles of the Saybrook Platform, has been prepared by the Rev. Mr. Gillett,—and the Digest has been drawn up by the Chairman of the Committee.

All which is respectfully submitted,

LEONARD BACON,
DAVID D. FIELD,
TIMOTHY P. GILLETT,

NO. IV.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The General Association of Connecticut, in presenting their Annual Report of the present state of religion among the churches and congregations within the bounds of their supervision, feel that they have their usual, and more than their usual occasion for devout thanksgiving to the great Head of the Church for the favors conferred upon them. All the local Associations have forwarded to this body those specific statements of evangelical labor and its results in their own immediate neighborhood, without which any estimate of our actual progress and present position can be nothing more than matter of conjecture. A careful investigation of this documentary evidence leaves no room to question that we have more than ordinary reason to thank God and take courage. It must be difficult, if not impossible, to convey within the narrow limits of a general statement, any adequate impression of results, the importance and preciousness of which consists mainly in the circumstance that they tell upon the conduct and live in the hearts of individuals. While there is joy among the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth, we are apt to feel indifference in view of the mere statement in round numbers, of the scores or the hundreds who, by the blessing of God upon the means of his own appointment, have been hopefully brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. A few lines of modest and unostentatious narrative lay before us the results of prayer, and labor, and self-denial, and solicitude, which have occupied and exhausted the energies of many a patient painful laborer in the vineyard of our common Lord. The daily visitation, the nightly vigil, the careful pondering of the sacred volume, the prayerful importunity that God would prosper his own work and plead his own cause, the Sabbath ministration, the weekly conference, all the diversified pleading of Christ's embassadors that sinners would be reconciled to God, and all the varied co-operation and conflict of the sacramental host of God's elect, which have integrated and filled out the evangelical labor of another revolving year, are laid before us in a hasty sketch; and in the mean time, some who bore their part in the burden and heat of the day, are no longer numbered with the living, but are gone to their rest and their reward. It is indeed an affecting thought, that rarely or never can the members of this Association convene on an occasion like the present, without finding their numbers diminished by the decease of some who had for many years stood by them shoulder to shoulder and heart to heart, in all their endeavors for advancing the Redeemer's kingdom.

During the course of the last twelve months death has removed from us five of our number. The Litchfield North Association records in terms of affectionate regret the decease of Rev. Grant Powers, pastor of the church in Goshen. From Fairfield East we hear of the death of Rev. James Kent, for many years pastor of the church in Trumbull. From New Haven West we have similar intelligence respecting Rev. Abraham Browne, some time pastor of the church in Oxford. The Association of Hartford North mourns the loss of Rev. Nathaniel Gaylord at the advanced age of four score and ten years; while Fairfield West is at length called upon to record the departure to his rest of the Rev. Isaac Lewis, D. D., the oldest minister in the State of Connecticut, and perhaps in the United States. In the 95th year of his age, and the 72nd of his ministry, he rested from his labors and his works do follow him. In the departure of these aged and venerable servants of Jesus Christ, the question of the inspired penman seems to reach the heart with a peculiar enforcement—"Our fathers! where are they? and the prophets! do they live forever?"

But if the servants of Christ cannot live or labor here forever, it is a consolation to know they neither live nor labor in vain. And though it becomes us to feel that we are only instruments, feeble and imperfect instruments, in the hands of God, still such consolation is ours. We have received from almost every local Association within our limits that which every servant of Christ and lover of the souls of his fellow men should hail as glad tidings of great joy. Tolland Association informs us that there have been two revivals of religion in their district, one in Ellington and the other in the society of Vernon 1st. Windham Association records the same blessing as having been enjoyed in Ashford, in Chaplin, and in the united society of Voluntown and Sterling. Litchfield North makes grateful mention of a quickened state of feeling in several churches, and a pleasing work of grace in Norfolk. Fairfield East informs us of considerable religious interest in the church in Danbury. In Fairfield West also, several congregations have enjoyed something of the special presence of the Holy Spirit. New London Association complains of prevailing apathy, and yet informs us that the congregations of East Lyme, Lebanon 1st, and Exeter have in the course of the year enjoyed a little refreshing. Within the bounds of the Middlesex Association, Deep River, Westbrook, Chester, Haddam, East Haddam, Saybrook, and one or two smaller places are mentioned as having recently shared in the effusions of renewing grace. Out of the thirty three churches included in the district of Hartford North, seventeen are represented as having enjoyed a precious season of revival within the year. These favored churches are the five in the city of Hartford, the church in East Hartford, the first church in Windsor, the churches in Bloomfield, Granby, East Granby, Suffield, West Suffield, Enfield, East Windsor North Society, Unionville and Canton; to which catalogue is added as demanding a more distinct and special commemoration, the church in Windsor 2nd, or Poquonoc, which after a long age of desolation, sixty years after the removal of its last pastor, and nineteen years after the decease of its latest surviving member, has at last risen from the dead in the beauty of youth, and Christ has given it light. In Hartford South, numbering sixteen churches, thirteen have been visited with the dews of divine grace, while in several the work of God has been powerful and extensive. The association of New Haven East speaks of two revivals within its bounds, the North church in New Haven, and the church in Cheshire, while that of New Haven West records the precious effusion of the Holy Spirit in all their churches in this city, in the two societies of Milford, in Derby, Middlebury, Salem and Woodbridge. These scenes of religious awakening are without exception spoken of as having been marked by an entire absence of noise and extravagance, by deep and solemn thought and that profound engrossment of the understanding and the heart which furnishes reasonable assurance that the rational soul is wrestling with the awful powers of the world to come. While so unusual a number have been added to our churches, it would be unreasonable to expect that all of them should hold on their way, without wavering, to the end; yet we doubt not that permanent fruits of the revivals in our churches during the past year will be left, sufficient to convince the most doubtful, that it was indeed a year of the right hand of the Most High.

Nor is it merely among those churches which have experienced the extraordinary presence and power of divine grace, that a good work has been wrought. Our brethren with one accord bear testimony that during the past year the public worship of God has been attended with general interest; that increasing numbers, by their serious and thoughtful deportment in the sanctuary, evince their desire to know the way of truth more perfectly; and that in several places pleasant additions have been made to the churches where there was not supposed to be any thing which could be called distinctively a revival. This is as it should be; for it is greatly to be deprecated that any in our evangelized community should come to imagine that no successful agitation of the question "what shall I do to be saved" can take place except in connexion with a general agitation of the same question on the part of others. If any unhappy consequence of these periodical returns of special religious awakening in our congregations is to be apprehended, it is that the alternation from interest to indifference, (originating in a measure from the nature of the human mind) will come at last to be looked upon as the settled order of divine providence and grace, and the impenitent will conclude that none can be healed in the waters of the gospel pool till they have been stirred by visitations of the angel of revival. It is therefore a matter of peculiar gratification to us, that by the still and uninterrupted descent of the dew of his Holy Spirit upon many portions of our Zion, the Lord has been adding to his church of such as shall be saved.

Either as the cause or the consequence of this desirable state of things, or both, we are next called upon to mention with devout gratitude the remarkable prevalencc of peace and harmony both among the churches and the ministers of our connexion. Rarely have we been favored with a more wide-spreud exhibition of how good and how pleasant a thing it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. With very few exceptions, our churches throughout the State are supplied with pastors, and satisfied with their pastors; the expense of maintaining the institutions of the gospel is in most places cheerfully encountered and regarded not as a burden but a privilege. Beyond all reasonable question, pastoral relations and arrangements are assuming the appearance of greater permanency than they possessed a few years since, and the good people of Connecticut, taught by the experience of some trying reverses, both temporal and spiritual, have been convinced of the expediency of recurring once more to those steady habits in things both secular and spiritual, which were once their highest and best characteristic.

To advance the various enterprises of religious benevolence and moral reformation which have heretofore received the patronage of our churches, as much as usual has been done the last year, and in some instances more. The instruction of our children and youth in Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes would seem to be pursued with undiminished interest. We are sorry to hear from the Association of New London East that the sanctity and stillness of the Lord's day are invaded within their bounds by the disturbances connected with traveling on steamboats and rail-roads; and we would earnestly implore those members of our churches who may have any agency or influence, direct or indirect, in reference to this matter, that they wash their hands and keep their consciences free from trampling under foot in this sacreligious manner, that divine institution which may be looked upon as the palladium at once of our spiritual and temporal prosperity. The cause of Temperance, though but little has been done in the way of direct effort for its advancement, may be looked upon as on the whole maintaining its ground, and perhaps slowly progressing in the strength of its own intrinsic merits, which recommend it to the highest regard of every friend of God and man. The two Theological Seminaries within our bounds, and under the peculiar patronage of ministers and churches in our communion, are steadily advancing, while the venerable Literary Institution from which the heart of a Connecticut Congregationalist cannot suffer itself to be lightly withdrawn, has during the past year partaken largely of that refreshing shower of divine influences which has clothed in fresh beauty so many portions of our Zion.

On the whole, in reviewing calmly the incidents of another year, we are constrained to exclaim, "What hath God wrought!" And while multitudes in so many parts of the State are rejoicing over those who, once dead, are now hopefully alive again, we feel that it were unbecoming in us the shepherds of the flock, standing here in our associated capacity, to repress the grateful conviction that God hath not forgotten to be gracious. We are humbled indeed under the consciousness of our own deficiences. We feel that all our labors for the benefit of souls have been but too much characterized by human imperfection, and that we have not prosecuted our Master's work with half the ardor that became us. Still God hath seen fit to bless our feeble efforts; and He hath wrought in the midst of all the lets and hindrances of human ignorance or imperfection. Blessing and honor, and glory and power be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne and unto the Lamb, forever and ever.

We have received gratifying communications from nearly all the ecclesiastical bodies in correspondence with us. We are happy to learn from our brethren in Massachusetts, that the cause of evangelical truth and piety may be looked upon as steadily advancing. They also have been watered with the dew of heaven. Amid the various commingling and conflict of light and darkness, and though when addressed with the inquiry, "Watchmen, what of the night?" they have reason to respond, "The morning cometh and also the night," they look forward with increasing hope to the period when the unadulterated doctrines of grace shall have regained their former influence in that ancient commonwealth. Reports substantially of the same description have been received from other ecclesiastical bodies in correspondence with us—from the Congregational Association of the State of New York, the General Convention of Vermont, the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, and from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. We are happy to learn that in these several divisions of the great household of our common Lord, the ordinances of the gospel are enjoyed as heretofore, and the interests of truth and righteousness seem to be advancing. We cherish as among our most sacred and delightful privileges, that of meeting with the delegates from these different branches of the church, and we look forward with hope to the time when all they who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity shall be one and their name one.

In concluding this summary of our religious state and prospects, we feel that it is incumbent on the Congregational churches and ministry in Connecticut, to acknowledge that the lines have fallen to them in pleasant places, and that they have a goodly heritage. Doubtless there remaineth yet among us much land to be possessed. Doubtless there are many evils which cannot be too much deplored. Doubtless many impending dangers remain to be guarded against with a holy diligence. Doubtless there is yet among us enough of the spirit of innovation without improvement to keep alive within us a prudent jealousy. Still, while we witness the progress that has been made in many of our churches, and the steadfastness of all; while we witness the resuscitation of several from which the candle of the Lord seemed to have been finally removed, and the establishment of others where none had previously existed; while we see in connexion with our increased religious interest, breaches repaired and the waste places of many generations built up, we are constrained to feel that God is in the midst of our Zion, that he taketh pleasure in her dust and in her stones; that he hath not forgotten to be gracious, nor quite shut up his tender mercies from us, but that we may repeat as the auspicious motto of our commonwealth, both temporal and spiritual, "He who brought us hither will here sustain us."

NO. VI.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT, AUXILIARY TO THE A. H. M. SOCIETY.

In making their twenty-fifth Annual Report, the Directors deem it not unsuitable to glance at the condition of the feeble churches in this State, a quarter of a century ago;—as the review will present a contrast, which, if not all we could wish, may still be enough to excite our warmest gratitude. A sermon preached in the year 1814, which had no small influence in causing the organization of this Society, has the following language,—

"That there are desolations in this State, will not be questioned by any, minutely acquainted with our circumstances. Not a few societies have ceased to hear those doctrines of the gospel, by the instrumentality of which the Spirit of God awakens, converts and sanctifies men. A number of churches have become feeble, and by hard struggling prolong, from year to year, the enjoyment of divine institutions;—while some have long since fallen, and are lying, now, in utter desolation."

"Societies might be named, where the church is extinct, and the house of God in ruins. The blasts of winter rave through it, the flocks of summer find a shelter in it. The Sabbath is a holiday. The authority of revelation has ceased with many,—and by others, is employed to sanction doctrines not less destructive than atheism. Preachers are patronized, whose object it is to keep the audience laughing by ridiculing the ministers, and the doctrines of the gospel. A revival of religion would be regarded with as virulent enmity, as Jews or Pagans regarded Christianity. There are, in this State, districts as far from heaven,—and, without help, as hopeless of heaven—as the Pagans of Hindoostan or China."

"From these wastes, also sally forth the Infidel, seeking whom he may devour;—the Universalist, to quiet profligates in sin, and multiply their number;—the political empiric, to augment his party;—and the sectarian of every name, to proselyte, until a broad circumference around shall become as divided, and weak, and desolate as Babel itself. Evil communications corrupt good manners. Their word eateth as doth a canker. Facts, lamentable facts may be found in this State, to justify these apprehensions. There are, at this moment in this State, waste places which exert precisely the kind of influence which we have ascribed to them."

To remedy, or prevent these evils, was the the object for which this Society was soon after instituted;—and if the statements just quoted are correct, we need not enter into a detail of facts to show its healthful influence upon our feeble churches. For though the number of such churches, from a variety of causes, is even larger than it was at that period,—where shall we find a counter part to this description? In what dark corner of the State, shall we look for the original of this picture? Much as now exists of error, and irreligion, and disregard of sacred institutions,—it is somewhat difficult not to believe that the picture is overdrawn. We still have what, in a loose sense, are termed "waste places"—but not such "waste places;"—the waters still cover some fair portions of our heritage—but they have abated, and the bow begins to gather its colors in the heavens.

At the first meeting after the formation of the Society, the Directors voted that sixteen churches in this State, demanded their attention. At their next meeting, a few months after, they added two more to the list,—and four more were added, the year following. Other churches appear either not to have had energy enough, at that time, to attempt to recover from their decay,—or to have been prevented from applying for aid, on account of the very scanty means placed at the disposal of the Directors. Without specifying the particular times of application, it may be stated, that from the organization of the Society, to the present period, it is believed to have extended aid to sixty-eight churches and congregations, in Connecticut. Of these, twenty-one now rely on their own resources,—though it is proper to state that two of the number have asked for temporary assistance to meet unexpected difficulties. Thirty-two of these churches were aided, last year, by this Society,—several, by auxiliaries to the A. H. M. S., in New Haven and Fairfield Counties,—while some others, from various causes, did not apply for aid, though they will, probably, need it when they attempt to settle pastors, and enjoy regularly the institutions of the gospel. Two or three of the number are so weak as to give little promise of the re-establishment of the ministry among them, at an early day, if ever.

The friends of Home Missions, as some recent events teach, ought not, however, to give over their labors in despair, even in very discouraging circumstances. A new church was organized, a few days ago, with flattering prospects, in Poquonnoc,—a society which was included by the Directors, at their first meeting, among the sixteen waste places,—and surely no follower of Christ would be sorry to hear this young sister knocking at your doors for help, even should it increase the number of the recipients of your bounty. It is understood, however, that this will not be necesssary. An application for aid was also lately presented, by the society in Milton, where there are favorable indications that the ministry, after so long an interval, may be re-established. Facts like these should encourage us not to be "weary in well doing,"—but to labor with patient diligence, in the hope that the "set time" shall yet come, to "favor" and invigorate every feeble church in the State.

Of the societies now on our list, three were among the original number selected by the Directors, as needing aid. One of these, it is thought will, at no distant day, not only have resources sufficient for its own wants,—but will practically learn, that it is as much more blessed for communities as for individuals, "to give than to receive." The circumstances of the other two forbid the hope that, even after so long a time, they will soon be able to dispense entirely with foreign aid; though their condition has been much improved since they have been under our patronage. In one of them, a new meeting-house was erected, a few years ago, and there is a gradual increase of strength,—and a revival, of great interest, was enjoyed the past season, by the other.

Among the marks of advance, we may mention that eleven of the congregations on our list, last year, have, since they began to receive assistance, built new houses for worship, or thoroughly repaired old ones,—and two other houses are in progress; while various conveniences for worship have been gradually accumulating, in most of the feeble churches. Two or three societies have provided parsonages.

Seventeen of these churches have pastors, and eleven have stated supplies, who, with two exceptions, have been several years in the same congregations, performing pastoral duties.

Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, Temperance Societies, and the various benevolent associations which exist elsewhere in our denomination, are found here, and are as well patronized perhaps, in proportion to the ability. The reviving influences of the Spirit have been shed on them, it is believed, as often and as copiously, as on the other parts of our vineyard; and the pure doctrines of the gospel are, probably, as clearly preached, and as cordially received, as in their sister churches. Whatever may have been the case once, error now finds no more ready entrance among them, or a more secure resting place, than among the highly favored congregations that have never known, by experience, what it is to have their sanctuary a scene of revel for the wild wintry wind, or a fold for the summer flock. In short, they are just like other churches, with the single exception that they do not feel quite strong enough, yet, to suppot religious institutions without some aid. A comparison of what they were, or would have been, with what they now are, is the best test of the real influence of our Society. It has not stopped—and it never undertook to stop, ecclesiastical changes, or changes in commerce, manufactures, or the currency; but it has sustained weak churches under the influence of these changes, and brought into existence a considerable number, which, but for the encouragement it holds out, would never have been formed. It has not stopped—and it never undertook to stop,—the tide of emigration, but for which, in many cases, the weak churches would have been able, years ago, after supplying their own wants, to extend a helping hand to others. In retiring, a few days since, from a post which he had occupied sixteen years, a missionary writes, "This people could not have existed as a people, without your aid. While assisted by you, they have, at different times, contributed one third more to benevolent objects, than they have received; at no time less. They will greatly need your encouragement in future. You have sustained the ordinances here, and raised up in number an equal congregation in other places."—If this congregation which was scattered "in other places," had continued where many of them were introduced into the family of Christ, that church would not now be asking for aid. But it is gratifying to reflect that they did not, in the language quoted at the beginning of this Report, "sally forth" to "devour," or to "quiet profligates in sin, and multiply their number;" for the missionary adds, "Probably no society in the county contains a greater proportion of promising youth, than this. Within the limits of the parish, the present year, have been employed or sent to other places, about twenty-five school teachers, most of whom have at different times, been under the training of the pastor." While such facts unfold one reason why so many churches continue to need aid, they show also that under the influence of our Society, emigration becomes a river of life, instead of rolling over our country the bitter waters of death. Who, then, so parsimonious as to grudge the slight expense of purifying the fountain?

In addition to what this Society has done in Connecticut, it has, since its union with the A. H. M. S. contributed about $50,000 to extend the institutions of religion in Rhode Island and in the Western States.

Appropriations were made, the past year, to thirty-two feeble churches in Connecticut. Their names, together with the amount of aid, follow, viz:—

SUMMARY.

The whole amount of appropriations, for Connecticut during the year, is, viz :—

Hartford County,		$805
New Haven,	"	455
New London,	"	545
Windham,	"	150
Fairfield,	"	380
Litchfield,	"	130
Middlesex,	"	100
Tolland,	"	336
	Total,	$2,901.

In addition, the sum of $500 has been paid to the Directors of the Rhode Island Domestic Missionary Society, to be expended by them, in that State.

The whole expenditures of the Society, for the year ending June 3, 1841, are $3,333,26.

The receipts into our treasury, for the same time, are 3,356,90. The receipts last year, from this State, by the Parent Society, are $5,320,34. Add to this, the receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, $2,676,79,—and the whole amount from this State, for Home Missions, during the year, is $11,354,03. This is $1,330,-73 less than the receipts of the year ending June 1, 1840, and $1,-152,66 more than those of the year ending June, 1839.

Soon after the last meeting of the Society, the Directors appointed an agent to visit the churches, for the collection of funds,—but, after some negociation, he thought it his duty to enter a different field of labor. They subsequently appointed another, who was providentially prevented from fulfilling the service. Near the close of the year, Rev. George J. Tillotson, at the request of the Directors, performed a short, but very efficient and acceptable agency, chiefly in Litchfield County,—his pulpit being supplied at the expense of this Society. Rev. Augustus Pomeroy, within a few days, entered on an agency in the Eastern part of the State. An increase of interest and of funds may be confidently expected, as the result of these efforts.

By order of the Directors.

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 14, 1841.

* Mr. Ely was dismissed just at the close of the missionary year.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Wethersfield, on the third Tuesday of June, 1842, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

Twenty-one Missionaries were in the service of the Society, during the past year;—of which fifteen were stationed on the Western Reserve,—five in Illinois,—and one, among the Mohegans, in Connecticut. In Illinois, the labors of the Missionaries have been efficient and successful in the conversion of some to the right ways of the Lord, and in recovering others from the dominion of error. The churches on the Western Reserve appear, from the reports made to the Trustees, to be increasing in strength and stability; and the undue excitement and agitation, to which they were exposed a few years since, seems to be dying away. The little church among the remnant of the Mohegans enjoyed a precious season of refreshing, during the last winter. The Missionary, Rev. Anson Gleason, states in his Report, a few weeks since, that "nearly all the natives of influence now at home, are professedly pious." "The family altar has been erected where we could hardly look for it." "There has been more solemn praying in Mohegan and about here, than there ever has been, since I came to the place,—and God has put great honor on our little Zion." The Missionary Chapel which was erected about ten years since, through the benevolence of christian friends in that neighborhood, was found to be too small for the increasing congregation. It has been enlarged and repaired, chiefly by the same liberality,—and it was, last week, devoted anew to the worship and service of God. Thirteen persons were received into this little church, the first Sabbath in April,—six of whom were natives;—and eleven more stand as candidates for admission, at the next communion.

The receipts of the Society, for the year ending January 1, 1842, were $1,655 24;—and the expenditures, during the same period, were $2,110 93. The Permanent Fund amounts to $30,000.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 21, 1842.

NO. IV.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

During the year which this General Association is called to review, two ministers of Christ, who were formerly pastors of churches within our bounds, have closed their accounts and gone to their rest. The Rev. Otis Lane, of Windham Association, having ceased to labor several years ago, on account of bodily infirmities, and having fulfilled the three score years and twelve of his pilgrimage, has ceased also to suffer. The Rev. Sylvester Selden, of Tolland Association, a man much beloved by those who knew his modest worth, his patience, and his faith, has been delivered from his afflictions, and has gone to join the multitude above, redeemed out of great tribulation by that Saviour who, "in all things like his brethren" was "made perfect through sufferings."

The churches in our connection, with very few and inconsiderable exceptions, are enjoying peace within themselves, peace with each other, and external prosperity. In most of the congregations the attendance upon public worship is increasing. A very few churches only are at this time destitute of pastors; and there is thought to be a manifest improvement in respect to the permanency and sacredness of the pastoral relation. That high appreciation of the Gospel, and of the simple institutions of the Gospel, which the people of this Puritan State have always manifested, is still active and fruitful.

All our Associations unite in gratefully commemorating the continued and increasing progress of the temperance reformation. Within the last twelve months, many drunkards, even of the most depraved class, have been released from their bondage, and have been restored to their friends and to society, and in some instances, have been made partakers of the liberty of the sons of God. The conviction that total abstinence from the ordinary use of all intoxicating drinks, is safe and right, has become well nigh universal.

The evidence is increasing from year to year, that our churches have committed themselves with an inflexible purpose to the enterprise of converting the whole world to God. Notwithstanding the continued commercial embarrassments of the country, not less than $50,000, perhaps more than $60,000, are now contributed annually by the people in connection with the Congregational churches of Connecticut, to various objects directly bearing on the propagation of the Gospel in the less favored portions of our own country and in other lands. Nor is there any reason to doubt that as new exigencies arise, and as the work of converting the world expands by progress, these churches will be found ready to impart more and more out of their abundance, or, if need be, out of their poverty. The pastors of these churches, we humbly trust, will never cease to urge their people, with all earnestness, to increased zeal and self-denial, in every department of the work of filling the world with the blessings of salvation.

Though the past year has not been one of the years especially remarkable in our religious history for the outpouring of renewing grace upon our congregations, we find that nearly every Association has some grateful memorial to make of God's goodness in this respect. In Hartford North Association, the Fourth church in Hartford, and the churches in East Avon, Collinsville, Canton, and Wapping;—in Hartford South, the churches of Newington, and Middletown South Society;—in New Haven West, the churches of Milford First and Second, Middlebury, and Derby;—in New London Association, the churches of New London First and Second, East Lyme, Montville, Salem, Colchester, Norwich First and Second, Greenville, Jewett City, and Hanover;—in Fairfield West, the churches in Wilton;—in Litchfield South, the churches of Woodbury, South Britain, Southbury, Plymouth, and Plymouth Hollow;—in Windham, the churches of Thompson, Killingly North and West, Brooklyn, Pomfret, Abington, Woodstock South and West, Muddybrook, Eastford, Ashford, and Westfield;—in Middlesex, the churches of East Haddam, Lyme, and Grassy Hill;—and in Tolland, the churches of Vernon First and Second, Columbia, Somers, Hebron, Gilead, and North Coventry are mentioned as having enjoyed in various degrees, and some of them in an eminent degree, the special presence of the renewing Spirit.

Yale College enjoys the continued favor of God's providence. The number of students in the four undergraduate classes, is more than four hundred, of whom two hundred and thirty-two are communicants in various evangelical churches, two hundred and eleven of these being members either in the College church, or in other churches of the Congregational or Presbyterian order. It is to be recorded with thankfulness to the great "Shepherd and Bishop of souls," that of the sixty-eight who, during the religious revival with which the College was visited more than a year ago, seemed to their teachers and associates to give evidence at the time, more or less decisive, of having been born again, more than fifty are known to have united with Evangelical churches; and among the remainder there have been thus far only a very few cases of manifest defection. Some have already finished their course with joy; and of the others, nearly all give in a life of seriousness and prayer, increasing evidence that God has begun in them the good work of his grace.

In this connection we are constrained to call the attention of ministers and churches to the necessity of some more adequate provision for bringing forward to the highest advantages which our Colleges afford, those young men in our churches, who are too poor to educate themselves without assistance, and whom God has qualified by the gifts of nature and of grace, for his service in the ministry of the Gospel. If our country is to be provided with an educated ministry—if the Bible is to be published, and the Gospel is to be preached, ere long, in every language under heaven—the business of bringing forward in sufficient numbers a ministry thoroughly educated, must be pursued with new vigor instead of being abandoned or neglected. In whatever form the work may be pursued, the work itself is of unspeakable importance. Of the undergraduate students in Yale College, eighty, who give hopeful evidence of piety, and most of whom, if not all, are pursuing their studies in the hope of serving God in the ministry,—receive some pecuniary aid either from the College treasury or from certain funds specifically appropriated to that use. To forty-four of these, the American Education Society extends its shelping hand. But within the past year, the quarterly appropriation of that Society to its beneficiaries, have twice failed—a failure which has compelled some to relinquish their studies, and has placed others in circumstances of increased distress.

The classes in the Theological department of Yale College, include about sixty-five students. And we are happy to be informed that so far as may be inferred from the character and habits of those who resort to that school of sacred science, the disposition on the part of candidates for the ministry to make the best use of their advantages for becoming "scribes well instructed," is manifestly increasing.

The Theological Seminary at East Windsor, continues to enjoy the smiles of a kind and watchful Providence. It numbers twenty-eight students, pursuing a three years course of study.

From the General Associations of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, from the General Convention of Vermont, and from the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, we have received, through their delegates, present at this meeting, cheering accounts of the prosperity of the Redeemer's kingdom in the Congregational churches of those several States. Delegates have also been affectionately received from each of the bodies into which the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States has been divided; and we have listened with grateful satisfaction while each delegate has told us of the peace, the enterprise, and the progressive enlargement of the churches connected with the body represented by himself. Happy will it be if in the providence of God, who can so counteract the natural tendencies of things as to change darkness into light, and disorder into beauty, and whose word of old charmed chaos into the harmony of the spheres,—the things which have happened to them shall be made to turn out for the furtherance of the Gospel.

NO. V.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT AUXILIARY TO THE A. H. M. SOCIETY.

Of our Saxon forefathers, "as they were on the continent, before they possessed themselves of the south part of Britain," their able historian remarks, "The human mind has seldom displayed qualities more inauspicious to the improvement of intellect or moral character. When they first landed, they were bands of fierce, ignorant, idolatrous, and superstitious pirates, enthusiastically courageous, but habitually cruel. Yet from such ancestors a nation has, in the course of twelve centuries, been formed, inferior to none in every moral and intellectual merit, and superior to every other, in the love and possession of useful liberty;—a nation which cultivates with equal success the elegancies of art, the ingenious labors of industry, the energies of war, the researches of science, and the richest productions of genius. This improved state has been slowly attained, under the discipline of very diversified events."

How striking the contrast,—how great the distance between the two extremes!—And yet, had an annual report of the state of the country been required of a Board constituted for this purpose, how few of all these years would have furnished any prominent evidences of progress. As the historian glances from the fifth century to the eighteenth, the improvement is too manifest to be mistaken; but the advance by which it has been attained was so gradual, that during one year, or even one generation, it would scarcely admit of measurement. Take even the most favored portion of that period, the reign of Alfred,—when so great a change was effected in the intellectual and moral character of the nation, and so many seeds of future improvement were sown,—not many are the years of which a report would electrify, or even satisfy, the hearts of the ardent friends of the human race. Indeed, truth would probably have compelled the sad tale, during some passing years, that the motion was seemingly retrograde. At any rate, a just description would exhibit a mingling of apparent advance and retreat. While the main current was really moving onward, its surface might indicate, at one time, progress,—at another, retardation,—and at another still, a going backward. One year would show a good law enacted,—a good institution established,—a bad custom laid aside,—a bad practice discarded. Another year might show this law abolished, or trampled on,—this institution overthrown,—this custom or practice regaining its power.

It is "under the discipline of diversified events" like these, that the moral and intellectual improvement of society must ever be attained; and he who has not enough strength of faith, and courage, and tenacity of purpose to meet the discouragements which spring from this diversity, is not fitted for the work of a reformer. To "walk by faith" is a prime requisite for one who intends to enjoy, and be successful in, most departments of benevolent action. The real results of Home Missions, especially in the older settlements of our country, ought to be estimated in view of the principles here faintly illustrated. If any look for definite, tangible, overwhelming evidences of success, in this work, from year to year,—their expectations are unreasonable, and will surely be disappointed.

During the past year, appropriations were made to thirty-nine feeble churches and congregations in Connecticut. Their names, and the amount of aid follows, viz.:—

Summary.

The whole amount of appropriations for Connecticut during the year is, viz.:—

Hartford	County,	$ 925
New Haven	"	555
New London	"	635
Windham	"	300
Fairfield	"	355
Litchfield	"	280
Middlesex	"	100
Tolland	"	336
	Total,	$3,486

In addition, appropriations were made, for the year ending May 1, 1841, to Westville, $100; to Unionville, $100; to Exeter, $60. Total, $260.

Rev. Ephraim K. Taylor, has been in the employment of the Society, during the year, as Missionary in Western New York,—and Rev. Marcus Harrison, in Jackson, Michigan, by appointment of the Parent Society.

One hundred and fourteen dollars and 70 cents—were paid, during the year, to Rev. Augustus Pomeroy for services as agent.

The sum of $500 was paid, during the year, to the Domestic Missionary Society of Rhode Island;—and $2,000 to the A. H. M. S.

The whole expenditures of the Society, for the year ending June 1, 1842, are $5,855 34.

The receipts, for the same period, are $6,316 74. There were received into the treasury of A. H. M. S. from this State, last year, exclusive of the donations from this Society, $5,959 02. This is $2,576 97 more than the receipts of the previous year, and shows a gratifying and growing interest among the people, in the objects which the Society aims to accomplish. If to this be added $1,655 24, the receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, the whole amount devoted to Home Missions from this State, during the year, is $13,931 00.

At their last meeting, the Directors passed a resolution, that in their view it is not expedient to aid congregations which unnecessarily defer the settlement of a minister, according to the usages of our churches, and depend on a stated supply. This resolution, if carried into effect in a liberal spirit, and with due adaptation to the circumstances of individual congregations, will, it is believed, tend to strengthen and perpetuate the pastoral relation,—which experience has shown to be more salutary, than that of a stated supply, between a minister and the people to whom he officiates.

The Directors have issued a Circular, during the year, to the congregations which they aid,—containing inquiries to be answered before an appropriation is granted. Specific answers are to be given to these inquiries, on every application for assistance;—and while the information thus elicited will furnish data for the action of the Board, it will show, from year to year, the effect of the operations of the Society. The Circular attends this Report.

Though there is much in the pecuniary condition of the country to discourage benevolent effort,—especially in the manufacturing villages,—the Directors feel they have cause for thanksgiving, that they are able to report this as a year of more than ordinary success. To more than a usual degree, the Spirit has been poured out on some of the churches under our patronage. The onward progress of the cause of Temperance, among many of these churches, has been rapid, and most cheering in its results, not only in respect to the happiness of individuals and families, but to the prospects of congregations themselves,—promising accessions of strength, where before could have been anticipated only opposition or indifference. The waters of salvation have flowed—and, it may reasonably be expected, will flow in still deeper flood, in the channels opened by Temperance,—and verdure and fertility take the place of desolation and death. And when we look on these results, we cannot but ask, what would have been the effect, in regard to revivals, and especially in regard to Temperance, of letting these congregations continue as many of them were, when this Society began its operations,—or of sinking, as others of them would have done, without its aid, into hopeless decay. Would the dews of grace have descended on these barren, uncultivated fields?—Would the voice of praise for sin forgiven have gone up to heaven?—Would so strong an impulse have been felt by the unhappy slaves of appetite to cast off their chains, and come forth to the liberties of men, and, in some cases, at least, to the liberty with which Christ makes his people free?—To keep so many congregations open to the reviving influences of the Spirit, and to the various intellectual and moral influences which, in this age, are moulding the institutions and shaping the destinies of society, is not a work of small import.

We have encouragement enough from the success of the past,—we have motive enough in the wants of the present,—to rouse us to new activity in prosecuting the object for which we are associated, even if we look no farther than our own State. But the encouragements and the wants are multiplied a thousand fold, when we look to the wide regions of the West, with which our affections, our interests, our destinies, are so closely interwoven. On a set exhibition of this subject we need not here enter. "Our country—its capacities—its perils—its hope"—have been lately presented by the Secretary of the A. H. M. S., in a manner so vivid, that those who look at the picture must feel all in them of self-interest, patriotism and piety urging to instant and energetic action in the work of Home Missions. This pamphlet has been widely circulated in the State, and every friend of our country ought to read it, and consider well its contents.

If any feel a more intense desire for engaging in Foreign than in Home Missions, they may still enter into our fellowship,—and while helping onward our cause, most efficiently promote the object around which cluster their own predilections. In the Western valley, Home Missions so mingle with Foreign, that it is difficult to decide in which department operations in this field ought to be reckoned. The local position—our own country, would favor an arrangement in the Home department;—the material to be operated on—the mind to be enlightened—the heart to be influenced—the soul to be sanctified, are from abroad;—and this would point to a classification in the department of Foreign Missions.

The Providence of God has developed two modes of extending the Gospel;—one, to send the teacher to the pupils,—the other, to bring the pupils to the teacher. The former is the mode adopted at the outset of Christianity,—and the few converted Jews were dispersed abroad to evangelize the world. While Christianity was struggling with Judaism, and its institutions had scarcely begun to take root,—even had Judea contained the physical resources to make the plan feasible,—it would have been of little use to bring the heathen from their own lands, to the residence of the ancient people of God. But at a later period, when the institutions of Christianity had gained a firm establishment, the Northern nations were brought down, in myriads, from the regions where they had erected altars to their idols, and from the groves where they had sacrificed human victims, to the midst of Christian temples, Christian habits, and imperfect, though still in a measure, Christian laws and civilization. And if, with all the corruptions of Christianity then prevalent, with its native power weakened, and itself falling beneath the sword of ruthless conquerors, it still had enough of vitality to pervade the mass—and after ages of seeming darkness, to present a form of civilization to which the world has never had an equal,—what may we not expect from the pure doctrines and youthful energies of American Christianity, in the midst of laws and institutions itself has aided to frame, bearing with unobstructed force,—not upon hordes of savages flushed with victory, and despising the effeminacy that could offer no effectual resistance,—but upon men who have, in many cases, fled from oppression and want, and look to our shores as the abode of freedom, and the home of the exile?—Who would think it more hopeful, or more strictly in the department of Foreign Missions, to send the herald of the cross to Roman Catholics in Ireland,—where early associations, and early attachments, and the influence of friends and of priests, the temples in which they had been accustomed to worship, and the presence of pompous rites which they had been accustomed to venerate, would render their conversion to our faith a work of peculiar difficulty, —than to attempt the conversion of Irish Catholics in our own country, in the midst of Protestant institutions, influences, and sympathy?—If there is on earth a spot where mind could be concentrated, with brighter hope than in any other of bringing it to the knowledge, belief and practice of the pure Gospel of Jesus Christ, that spot is the United States. If on earth Christianity, by its institutions and influences, can attract the human heart, and win that respect which is so essential to its power, it can do this in the United States. We need not wonder, then, that the Head of the Church is gathering minds, from the four winds of heaven, and thick as leaves of the forest, to our shores. It might be said to be the natural attraction of Christianity, manifesting itself through forms of government and institutions in harmony with the powers and wants of man. Let them congregate in our borders, and while they gaze on the full beauty of the Gospel, bow to Him who is King in Zion. And while our hearts go forth in sympathy towards those who remain in lands of darkness, and we send them the means of salvation, let us cheerfully co-operate in accomplishing the grand design for which Providence sends these millions to drink with us from the fountain of life.

By order of the Directors,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, July, 1842.

16. What is the prospect of increase, and of ability to support the Gospel, without foreign aid, in future?

The Directors require of every Society to answer the foregoing inquiries specifically, not only on first applying for aid,—but on any subsequent application. Every application should be recommended by at least two neighboring ministers acquainted with the circum stances of the Society;—or, when convenient, by the Association or Consociation within whose bounds the Society is located.

The regular meetings of the Board of Directors are on the first Wednesdays of May and August, in each year.

It is a standing rule of the Board to make no appropriation to any Society or Congregation that is in debt.

Hartford, June 1, 1842.

We have examined the above Account and find it correct, and that on the first of June, 1842, there was in the hands of the Treasurer, the above balance of three thousand six hundred and eighty-eight dollars and 33 cents.

STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES.

REPORT OF THE AGENT ON STATISTICS.

The following tables have been compiled with care, and it is hoped that the dates and numbers will be found to be generally correct.

It is to be regretted that the materials were not more complete. 208 churches have furnished their Statistics, and 40 have neglected to do so. The principal deficiency is in Hartford North, Fairfield East, and Litchfield North Associations.

I have not supplied these deficiencies from the tables of previous years; because I believe that accuracy is more important in this case, than completeness.

Number of Church Members.—The whole number reported is 36,423; which is an average of 175 members to each church. If we allow the same average to the remaining 40 churches, the total number would be 43,423. But some of those churches are small; and the true number will not greatly vary from 42,000. More than one-eighth part of the entire population of this State, are members of churches connected with this General Association.

Additions and Removals.—The 208 churches reported, have received, on profession, 2,114 members, which is an average of more than 10 to each church. The additions and removals by letter, nearly balance each other. The net increase of members, is 1,418.

Baptisms.—The number of adults baptized is 721, which is about one-third part of those who joined the churches by profession.

The number of infants baptized is 1,086; which is rather less than 3 to every 100 church members. The tables, if carefully examined, will show, that in many of our churches, infant baptism is greatly neglected.

Pastors.—The list of pastors is made out for June 21, 1842, the day on which the General Association met. This list is complete. 191 churches are supplied with pastors; which is 77 per cent. of the whole number; 26 have stated supplies; and 31 are vacant. The vacant churches are one-eighth of the whole number.

Ministerial Age of Pastors.—This is reckoned from ordination to June 21, 1842. The dates of ordination are all ascertained except two. The average age is $15\frac{29}{194}$ years.

Age of present Pastoral relations.—This is reckoned from the last installation to June 21, 1842. The dates of installation are all ascertained. The average pastoral age is $10\frac{18}{196}$ years. The oldest pastors are Samuel Nott, D. D., of Franklin, 60 years; and Frederick

W. Hotchkiss, of Saybrook, 59 years. The rest are all under 50 years.

It will be seen, in the last table, that the several District Associations still differ considerably in respect to the permanence of the pastoral relation.

Schedules of the District Associations.—I have attempted to give the usual lists of members of the District Associations. The list of names is nearly complete; but the residence, and ministerial age could not in every case be ascertained. The number of members is 289; of whom 186 are pastors; 17 are stated supplies; 22 are presidents, professors, teachers, agents, or missionaries; and 65 are without charge.

Licentiates.—This item is complete, except in the two Associations in Hartford County, from which no list was received. The whole number reported is 66.

THEOPHILUS SMITH, Agent.

Rev. Dr. Bacon submitted a Report on the subject of Church Psalmody, in behalf of the committee appointed for this purpose last year, which was accepted. The following resolutions were then adopted unanimously:

1. That it is not expedient for the General Association to select from among the various books of Psalmody lately published in this country, any one to be recommended exclusively to our churches.

2. That it is expedient for the General Association to take measures for the preparation of a book of Psalms and Hymns suited to the wants of Congregational Churches, the copy-right of which shall belong to the Association, and the profits arising from the sale be devoted to some public object.

3. That the basis of the Psalmody should be the book of Psalms as imitated in the languags of the New Testament, by Dr. Watts and Dr. Dwight, with such additional versions of particular Psalms, or parts of Psalms as may be thought worthy of a place, either on account of poetic merit, variety of metre, or special adaptedness to particular occasions of public worship; and that the appended collection of Hymns should be such as may be judged nccessary to constitute a complete system of Christian Psalmody, adapted to the institutions, habits, and usages of American Congregational churches.'

The subject, in accordance with these resolutions, was referred to the former committee, consisting of Messrs. Jeremiah Day, D. D., Bennet Tyler, D. D., Joel Hawes, D. D., Eleazar T. Fitch, D. D., and Leonard Bacon, D. D.

Resolved, That this Body regard the practice of settling ministers on the condition that the relation of pastor and people can be terminated by a three or six months' notice, as greatly unfavorable to stability and permanence in the pastoral relation; and that it be recommended to the churches, in extending calls to candidates for settlement, to avoid this practice.

The committee appointed to prepare a Narrative of the State of Religion, submitted a Report, which was accepted and adopted. (See Appendix, No. III.)

The committee appointed to prepare a Letter to the brethren in Wisconsin, reported a Letter, which was accepted and adopted.

The committee on the subject of Slavery reported the following Resolution, which was accepted and unanimously adopted:

Voted, That the committee on Statistics be instructed to provide in the next Schedule for the the nomination of delegates to the Presbyterian General Assemblies and the Congregational Association of New York, by the District Associations.

The committee on a religious Paper, reported the following Resolutions, which were accepted and adopted:

1. That the Association regard it as unfortunate that while other denominations in the State are furnished with their local religious Newspapers, the Congregationalists of Connecticut are without any such organ, in which to defend the interests of Congregationalism, and communicate with their churches.

2. That as the Religious Herald has been established with the view of supplying this want, the Association recommend the Pastors to become acquainted with that paper, with the view of its being patronized, should it be found such as the interests of Congregationalism demand.

Attended public worship at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Hewit preached a Sermon from Acts xiv. 23.

Voted, That the thanks of the Association be expressed to Rev. Drs. Goodrich and Hewit, for their very seasonable and impressive Sermons, and that they be requested to furnish copies for publication.

Voted, That Rev. Mr. Hyde be requested to express the thanks of this Body to his people for their kind and Christian hospitality, and to the choir of singers for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Minutes being read and adopted, the Association adjourned, after uniting in prayer with Rev. Aratus Kent.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Westbrook, on the third Tuesday of June, 1843, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

The receipts of the Society for the year ending January 1, 1843, were $1,687 69; and the expenditures, for the same time, $2,367 89. To the Permanent Fund, amounting to $30,000, no addition was made during the year.

The operations of the Society, with its restricted means, have been in the same fields as for several years previous, and with no peculiarity of results to render specifications necessary. The missionaries employed were, on the Western Reserve, eighteen;—in Illinois, four, and one among the Mohegans.

The General Association of Michigan, a few months since, directed a Committee 'to open a correspondence with the Missionary Society of Connecticut, with a view to obtain the means of supporting a missionary among the destitute churches,' in that State. They inquire, 'Will not the venerable Missionary Society of Connecticut, the alma mater of many a western church, sustain this enterprise? Will not Connecticut add this Peninsula to the list of her beneficiaries? She has a large and influential representation here; and when we ask that she would extend hither the wide hand of her liberality, we may say with much propriety, our request is that of a child asking bread at a parent's hand.' A correspondence has been opened with the Committee, though no definite arrangement has yet been concluded.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

NO. III.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

In review of the past year this Association is reminded that the time is short;—that the living should do with their "might whatsoever their hand findeth to do." One pastor, the Rev. Chester Humphrey, of Vernon, in Tolland Association, after a laborious and successful ministry of ten years, in the strength of his days, has been suddenly called to his rest. And it is grateful to learn, that as he lived and labored in the Lord, so he died in the consolation and support of that Gospel which he had preached; and his "works do follow him."

The testimony from the several District Associations assures us, that the churches in our connexion are, generally, in a state of peace and external prosperity. To a very happy extent, they are supplied with pastors; and it is believed that the advantages of a permanent, stable ministry are being better understood and more highly valued both by the churches and their pastors. Hence few changes, comparatively, occurred within our bounds the last year. Two new churches were formed within the district of Fairfield West, Southport and Long Ridge. A few of our churches, which had been as sheep without a shepherd, have been supplied with pastors,—and are now rejoicing in their prospect of being built up in the faith and order of the Gospel.

Within the bounds of all our Associations, the great Temperance Reformation is reported to be on the advance, while within some of them it has made very marked progress. It is becoming fairly settled that abstinence from all intoxicating drinks is safe, right, and honorable; and it is most devoutly to be desired, that the time may not be distant, when throughout our entire State, the use of intoxicating liquors and the traffic in them, will be what one of the District Associations reports it already is, to a great extent, within their limits, disreputable.

Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes continue to be sustained, generally, with unabated interest, and to give promise of most blessed results.

The various benevolent and charitable operations of Christian philanthropy still keep their hold on the affection and devotion of the churches. Although some of our churches have not made as large contributions as in some former years, others have exceeded what they had been accustomed to give, even in the more favored days of commercial prosperity. The evidence, it is believed, is not diminished, that the churches of Connecticut will continue to sustain the great enterprise of giving the Gospel to the world. And it is hoped that the pastors of these churches will not diminish, but greatly increase their efforts to impress upon those to whom they minister, their responsibility in the work of making Christ and his salvation known to all people.

BOSTON: PUB.

The past year we record as one memorable for the manifestations of the Holy Spirit, in giving success to the ministration of the word and ordinances; thus making the "Gospel the power of God and the wisdom of God to salvation." To a greater or less extent, this heavenly influence has fallen, like the fertilizing dew, upon the thirteen Associations, which are now represented in this Body. Some of the Associations report, that a few of their churches have been thus visited; others, that the blessing has descended upon most of theirs; while others say, that to them the last was such a year of God's right hand as they had rarely, if ever, known. Among the churches most signally favored, we name, in Hartford North Association, the first church in Suffield; in Hartford Central, the fourth church in Hartford, and the churches in Farmington, Bloomfield, and West Avon; in Hartford South, Manchester, Upper Middletown, South Glastenbury, and Eastbury; in Litchfield North, the two churches in New Hartford, the churches in Winchester, Winsted, Norfolk, Torringford, and Wolcottville; in Litchfield South, the churches in Litchfield, Harwinton, Plymouth Hollow, Roxbury, and Washington; in Fairfield West, the churches in Greenwich, Stamford, Darien, Greenfield, and the second church in Norwalk; in Fairfield East, the churches in Bethel, Stratford, and Bridgeport; in New Haven West, the first and second churches in Milford, the churches in Waterbury, Derby, Naugatuck, Orange, West Haven, and Yale College; in New Haven East, North Madison, Madison, and Guilford; in Middlesex, Killingworth, Clinton, Westbrook; in New London, almost every church has been visited, and the addition of about 500 to the churches already reported; in Tolland Association, the churches in Willington, Rockville, West and East Stafford, have shared especially in this merciful visitation of God's grace. The revival in East Stafford, which has been in progress some eight months, continues still with cheering prospects,—a token that the cloud of mercy still lingers over our Zion. And the report from that district states, also, that indications of the special presence of God are now witnessed in other places within their bounds.

In the review of what God has done the past year for our churches, in awakening his people to prayer and effort for the building up of his spiritual kingdom and for the conversion of sinners, we are constrained to exclaim, "What hath God wrought?" "This is the Lord's doing—it is marvellous in our eyes." We regard it, also, as a fact worthy of special note, that the extensive revivals of the past year have poured their blessing upon the churches, with few exceptions, in connexion with the stated and ordinary ministration of the word and ordinances of the Gospel. Already the addition to the churches have been numerous;—still, much of the precious fruit of this time of refreshing remains to be gathered into the visible family of God.

It is highly gratifying to know that the smiles of a kind and gracious Providence still rest upon Yale College. During the past winter, the report from that district states, the College enjoyed, in a considerable degree, the reviving influences of the divine Spirit. From thirty to forty of the students were hopefully converted to God, of whom about twenty-five have already made a public profession of religion. The number of students in the under-graduate classes, is 376; of these more than 200 are professors of religion. The Theological department of this Institution continues to enjoy the favor of the great Head of the church,—having at the present time 76 students looking forward in their course, with settled mind, to the great work of "preaching Christ and him crucified," to their fellow men. The Theological Institute at East Windsor, we are happy to know, also, is prosecuting its work under the continued favor of the God of Zion, having in its several classes 30 students successfully employed in preparing to preach the Gospel. Many of the churches in this and in other States are already enjoying the ministry of those, who have gone out from this "school of the prophets."

The reports from the several Ecclesiastical Bodies in correspondence with the General Association of Connecticut are of a character highly interesting,—fraught with facts most animating to the friends of God and man. As upon our own State, so, also, upon the widely extended field of Presbyterian organization, and upon all those fields, which lie within the circle of our loved and favored New England, the reviving influences of the Holy Spirit have descended in rich profusion. Temperance, righteousness and humanity, in principle and in practice, are advancing to glorious conquest. And, although error and infidelity of various names and forms have thought to over-ride some of these fair fields of the Saviour's heritage, the Spirit of the Lord has lifted up his standard, and the wave, which threatened desolation, it is believed, is retiring.

With gratitude to God we review the past. Cheered by the promise and faithfulness of Him "who never slumbers nor sleeps,"—who carries engraven on his hand the walls of Zion, we anticipate the future. And in view of all that is past and all that is present, we can only add the petition, "Thy kingdom come."

In addition, $ 431 were paid to Rev. Ephraim K. Taylor, for the year ending May 1, 1842, under a commission from the Parent Society, as our missionary among the Congregational Churches in Western New York.

An appropriation of $1,000 was made during the year, to the Rhode Island Domestic Missionary Society, of which only $500 have yet been drawn, and a donation of $1,000 to the Parent Society.

The whole expenditures of the Society, for the year ending June 2, 1843, are $5,612 67.

The receipts for the same period, are $5,610 24. Exclusive of the donation from this Society, $8,133 57 were paid into the treasury of the American Home Missionary Society, from this State, during the year. Add to this $1,687 69, the receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, and the whole sum devoted to Home Missions, in this State, during the year, is $15,431 50. This is $1,500 50 more than the receipts of the previous year.

The past year has been one of unusual religious interest, among the churches aided by the Society. A brief notice of some of the results, may be not inappropriate.

South Glastenbury.—'During the year, there have been some sixty, perhaps eighty who have given hopeful evidence of a change of heart. Of this number, 18 have united with the church. Of the others, some 20 or 30 will in due time doubtless unite with this church. Of the rest, some have already united, and others will unite, with the Methodist and Episcopal churches.'

East Hampton.—'Eight persons have united with the church by profession,' during the year.

West Suffield.—'During the past winter, we have enjoyed an interesting revival of religion, and about forty have hoped in the mercy of God. We have received to the church 12 by profession,—eleven more are to be received next Sabbath. The most of these are heads of families.'

Bridgewater.—There have been a few conversions here, the year past, and seven have united with the church.

Tariffville.—Ten have been added to the church on examination, and eleven by letter, during the year.

Hamden, East Plains.—Fifteen or twenty conversions, the majority of them young persons.

Wolcott.—'More than twenty hopeful conversions, of whom several are heads of families,—from whose altars ascends the morning and evening sacrifice.'

Milton.—Some more than usual attention to religion,—four added to the church, and others expected to join it soon.

Colored Congregational Church, New Haven.—Nine added by profession, during the year;—pupils in Sabbath School and Bible Class, 184;—volumes in the Library, 500;—members of Temperance Society, old and young, 350;—contributions to benevolent objects, $50.

Groton.—A revival has been enjoyed here, reports Rev. J. R. Avery, 'such as has not been experienced by this people, considering the territory embraced, for about eighty years past, if ever.' 'Thirteen united with the church at the last communion; twelve now stand propounded for admission to our church at the next communion, and it is expected that others will be examined, next week. You know that we are a small community.'

Hitchcockville.—This church was organized April 19, 1842, with favorable prospects of growth. There have been some conversions, during the year. The society are making vigorous efforts to build a house of worship, the funds for which have been subscribed, and the building it is expected will be finished in the fall.

Unionville.—'An unusual degree of attention to the subject of religion, during the winter,' and ten or twelve conversions.

Bolton.—'Within a few weeks past we have been cheered with evident tokens of the Divine presence, and some ten or more are indulging hope.'

Salem.—The pastor, Rev. Charles Thompson, reports, April 27, 1843, 'The power of the Holy Spirit has been very great upon the hearts of many persons in this town, and a goodly number of my people have shared in this blessing. Since last July, sixteen persons have been received into our church,—several others will probably unite with us at our next communion.'

North Madison.—A revival of great interest has been enjoyed in this place, the past year. Rev. Lent S. Hough reports, April 27, 1843, 'As fruits of the revival, seventy persons have united with the church, all but five by profession. From 30 to 40 more are indulging hope, a part of whom will unite with the church at our next communion.'

West Avon.—The pastor, Rev. John Bartlett reports, May 2, 1843, 'We have enjoyed another precious season of refreshing. Between thirty and forty we hope have been recently converted.'

Bozrahville.—As the result of a late revival in this place, Rev. George Perkins writes, 'We have reason to hope about fifty have been converted to God, of a population not much exceeding two hundred; of whom fifty were already professors of religion. Thirty-four were received by profession on the first Sabbath in April; we expect ten or twelve more may join, at our next communion season.'

West Stafford.—During the past winter there was in this place more than usual religious interest. Nineteen, between thirteen and thirty years of age, were reckoned among the converts. Ten had been admitted to the church on profession, during the year.

In a former Report, a sketch was given of what had been done by the Domestic Missionary Society of Connecticut, for Home Missions; perhaps the few remaining moments proper to be occupied by the present Report, cannot be better employed, than in a rapid review of what was done previously by our churches, in the same work.

From the very object and circumstances of its settlement, Connecticut ought to be, and in fact to a good degree has been, a missionary State. It cheered the hearts of our fathers on the mighty deep, to reflect that they were about to shed the light of salvation among the native tribes on a distant shore,—though it was not so much to carry the Gospel to others, that they went into voluntary banishment from the home of their affections, as to carry it where they might themselves enjoy its blessings in peace, and form institutions in harmony with its teachings and spirit. They were all missionaries,—they had all given themselves to the work of building up the kingdom of Christ; and if their condition led them of necessity to devote their first energies to Home Missions, the germ of Foreign Missions was in their souls, and needed only the quickening sunshine of opportunity for its full developement. It was, indeed, many years after the settlement of the State, that there was within its own borders, any place for that form of Home Missions which consists in aiding churches destitute of pastors; for our forefathers would not incorporate a town, unless there were inhabitants enough to support a minister. Hence, as well for easy access to church, as for defence against the Indians, they planted themselves down in villages. The people were not suffered to break away from the institutions of religion, and take up their residence remote from the preaching of the Gospel; though, doubtless, many as greedy a look was cast towards the new lands in the distant west of Fairfield and Litchfield Counties, as is now cast towards the richer valleys and prairies over which linger the last rays of shutting day. Those were not times when the traveller could report thriving settlements of one or two thousand souls, without a sanctuary, or a minister of Christ, to lead the living in the ways of peace, and to follow the dead to their resting-place.

For nearly a century after the settlement of Connecticut, the only traces we can discover in the State, of what would now be termed the spirit of missions, was in the attempts to bring the natives to the knowledge of the truth. These were both more numerous and successful than hitherto represented,—though this is not the place to establish the truth of the assertion.

Early in the last century, 'divers ministers in the eastern part of the Colony, were at the pains and charge of going and preaching in the town of Providence, Rhode Island, by turns.' This mode of supplying instruction to the people proving inconvenient, the Association of New London County, in 1722, petitioned Governor Saltonstall to grant a brief for 'contributions in so many towns and congregations as his wisdom should see meet,' for the support of preaching in that place. Two years after, in 1724, the General Court, upon application, allowed a brief to 'be emitted' to 'encourage the building and finishing of a meeting-house in Providence.' This was the beginning of that Christian concern for the religious condition of Rhode Island, which has been more recently manifested by our churches.

In 1774, the General Association deemed it advisable that missionaries should be sent to the emigrants from Connecticut in Vermont and New York,—a large part of which States were then a wilderness. It was recommended to ministers to circulate subscriptions among their people to obtain the funds necessary for this purpose. At a special meeting of the General Association, the same year, two ministers were appointed to go on a missionary tour, the next spring, 'to spend five or six months in their mission, if the committee are able to provide for their support so long;' but the war of the revolution interrupted at once the scheme and the growth of the settlements. The subject was revived by the General Association in 1792,—annual contributions were taken up through the State,—a Committee of Missions was appointed,—and numbers of missionaries entered the field, chiefly pastors, who left their flocks for a time, to minister to the destitute in the wilderness. At least one of these venerable men is still living, and in the exercise of his ministry among those who were at that time the people of his charge. It may tend to give some idea of what was then the location of the ever-shifting west, to mention that the Committee of Missions directed one of the missionaries, 'to go north and south of Mohawk river, in Otsego and Herkimer Counties, as far westward as there are settlements proper to be visited.' A missionary from this State, in 1793, held the first 'regular meeting ever attended,' at Manlius, in the centre of New York, and the next day another at Pompey, ten miles farther south, also 'the first ever attended' there. Finding the settlements, to use his own language, 'more numerous than had been suspected,' he thought it expedient to change the course prescribed for him by the Committee of Missions,—among other reasons for this—that he could thus 'explore the settlements, ascertain their situation, and be in a capacity to give that intelligence respecting them which might be useful to the Committee in regulating future missions, and save missionaries from those embarrassments with which' he 'had been oppressed from' his 'ignorance of the country.' 'To this,' he adds, 'I was particularly induced, by the perplexity I continually experienced, finding all the information I had procured very defective, and no person who could give me any extensive description of the settlements.' This language, at the present day, would be more applicable to Iowa or Wisconsin, than to the very heart of the Empire State,—and from a missionary of no ordinary intelligence, acting under the instructions of President Stiles, and the younger President Edwards. The labor of the missionary seems more strange, than it was needless, in preparing for the use of such a Committee, a map of that unknown region, where were just springing into being villages, now become populous towns or even cities, but then of too recent origin to have one fixed name. A year later, Utica was composed of 'a log tavern and two or three other buildings.'*

The work of missions demanding more system and concentration of effort, the Missionary Society of Connecticut was formed at the meeting of the General Association in 1798,—and its Trustees incorporated by the General Assembly in 1802, with power to hold property not exceeding $100,000. The objects specified in the Act of Incorporation, are to 'Christianize the heathen of North America, and to support and promote Christian knowledge in the new settlements in the United States.' Collections were annually made for the Society from 1798 to 1830, on the first Sabbath of May, throughout the State. The Connecticut Evangelical Magazine, a work still dear to the hearts of many of the older members of our churches, devoted no small share of its pages to promote the interests of this Society. All its profits were consecrated to the formation of a Fund, of which only the interest should be employed in supporting missionaries. A large part of the present Permanent Fund of the Society, which now amounts to $30,000, was from this source.

The Trustees early entered on one part of the object for which they were incorporated—'to Christianize the heathen of North America.' A mission was established among the Chippeways, in 1800, and continued with considerable expense until 1805,—when it was relinquished, as it was thought all the funds of the Society were needed, and could be more profitably expended, among the destitute white settlements. With the exception of a small grant ($100) to aid the Wyandot Indians, in 1809, no further attempt was made to convert the natives through the medium of this Society, until within eight or ten years, it has aided in the support of a minister among the Mohegans in this State.

The Missionary Society of Connecticut, in fact, if not in form, is among the oldest, if not the oldest institution of the kind in the United States,—and for many years its operations were more extensive and efficient than the operations of any kindred institution cotemporary with it, in the country. Those now rising to manhood, if unacquainted with its early history, accustomed as they are to the wider range of National Societies, will scarcely be able to form a just estimate of its influence on the destinies of our country. Its resources, perhaps, were as well proportioned to the wants of that period, as the larger resources of the present are to present want. Its missionaries, at the beginning of the century, were found among the granite mountains of New Hampshire,—on the beautiful hills of Vermont, then covered with woods, and sparsely dotted with log-huts or lowly cottages,—among the scattered settlements of middle and northern New

* On this map it is called 'Fort Schuyler',—and on a later one in 1796, by the same missionary, still has the alias, 'Old Fort Schuyler'—and Rome, 'Fort Stanwix.'

York, and a little later, along the delightful borders of the Seneca Lake, and in the rich valley of the Genesee. They searched for 'the lost sheep of the house of Israel,' on the pine-clad acclivities of northern Pennsylvania,—and wended their solitary way through the dense and lofty forests of New Connecticut. This region, now numbering its people by hundreds of thousands,—filled with flourishing villages and churches,—and in manners, morals, and religious institutions more resembling Connecticut as she once was, than perhaps she now does herself,—the missionary of our Society began to cultivate, when its whole population was less than twelve hundred. We know what it is now,—what it would have been save for the fostering care of this Society, happily we do not know. Extending its operations with the onward tide of emigration, the Society sent its heralds of mercy to the middle and southern parts of Ohio, to Indiana, and Illinois.

In 1812–13, the Trustees sent out Rev. Samuel J. Mills, too well known to the Christian world to need eulogy here, with an associate, to explore the valley of the Mississippi,—which, even at that late day, was almost a terra incognitia in regard to its religious state. They made a diligent examination into its moral and physical condition,—and their Report, published in a large pamphlet and widely circulated, became the basis of many an animated appeal in behalf of the West, and had more influence, perhaps, than any one measure of the period, in turning public attention to the bearing of that Valley on the future destinies of our country,—and awaking the churches to the necessity of supplying it with pastors and religious institutions, if we would save our land from infidelity, Romanism, and ruin.

In consequence of this exploration, the Trustees voted, 'That the State of Kentucky, the Missouri Territory, particularly St. Louis and its vicinity, and the State of Louisiana, particularly New Orleans and its vicinity, be established as three fields of missions.' Accordingly, in 1816, one of the missionaries of the Society penetrated to St. Louis, and there administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, for the first time it had been administered by a Protestant, west of the Mississippi. A short time after, the venerated Giddings established himself in St. Louis, as a missionary from our Society, and organized a Presbyterian church there, the first, it is believed, in Missouri. With great fidelity and prudence he continued his labors, occasionally making missionary excursions to other sections of the State, and organizing churches,—and at length died amid the tears and deep regrets of multitudes. His name is 'as ointment poured forth,' in all that region, and will for ages be had in grateful remembrance. In 1817, Rev. Elias Cornelius, another name dear to the Christian community, was sent as a missionary of the Board to New Orleans, where he laid the foundation of the church of which the lamented Larned soon after became pastor.

The Missionary Society of Connecticut has been the instrument of organizing from four to five hundred churches,—some of which are now among the most flourishing in the land; and in its operations has expended at least $ 200,000. As early as 1799, the Trustees began to procure books for the new settlements. In 1803, a Committee, among whom were His Honor John Treadwell, Chief Justice Ellsworth, and Rev. Drs. Strong and Perkins, of Hartford, was appointed to prepare a 'Summary of Christian Doctrine,' for the new settlements. Six thousand copies of this were published, in 1804, as a first edition. Before 1820, the Trustees had expended nearly $6,000 for books to be distributed among the destitute,—beside distributing a very large number presented by authors and benevolent individuals, in various sections of the country. The work which the American Sunday School Union, and the American Tract Society are now pursuing, with so much energy and success, in the Valley of the Mississippi, is but a continuation of what was begun by the Trustees of our Society, at the opening of the century. Though in consequence of a change in the form of conducting Home Missions in this State, the operations of the original Missionary Society of Connecticut are now more limited than in other days,—it still employs twenty-three missionaries,—eighteen of whom are on the Western Reserve, four in Illinois, and one among the Mohegan Indians.

The quarterly Journals of the missionaries, for half a century, transmitted at first to the Committee of Missions, and after the Missionary Society of Connecticut was organized, to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, are all now on file among its documents. They furnish a mass of facts for elucidating the early religious condition of the new settlements, and the rapid changes in some of the Northern, Middle, and Western States, which it would be difficult to derive from any other source. At the same time, they abound in thrilling incidents to excite the sympathy, and call forth the gratitude, of the Christian heart. It is to be hoped they will yet be woven into a form which shall preserve, for future generations, a record of what Connecticut has done to promote the prosperity of different, and distant, parts of our vast country. She was among the foremost in pouring out her treasures and her blood, to secure its civil independence; she has not been less prodigal of her treasures, or less ready to yield up her sons, to perpetuate that liberty through the conservative influence of the Gospel. To God be the glory of what she has done;—with her be glowing thankfulness that she has been accounted worthy to be permitted to do it.

By order of the Directors,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

T. C. PERKINS, } Auditors.

Hartford, June 19, 1843.

STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES.

The following Statistical Tables have been prepared with considerable care and labor, and it is hoped that they will be found as perfect, as the materials furnished in the several reports from the Ditrict Associations, would allow.

Hartford North Association has, the last year, been divided into two Associations, called Hartford North, and Hartford Central. But their reports did not enable me to draw the line between the two Associations, and both are therefore exhibited under one head, the same as heretofore.

The lists of Churches, Pastors, and Stated Supplies, are nearly or quite complete. There are 252 churches, which is an increase of four in the year. There are 196 pastors, settled over 192 churches; 34 stated supplies in the same number of churches; and only 26 vacant churches, which is about one-tenth part of the whole number: 203 churches have reported their number of members, and 183 have also reported their additions, removals, baptisms, &c.: 49 churches have failed to report either the number of their members, additions, or removals. The reports of churches in New London, Windham, Middlesex, and Tolland Associations, are complete; and those in New Haven West, and Fairfield West, are nearly complete. The principal deficiencies are in Hartford North, Litchfield North, and New Haven East Associations.

Ministerial Age of Pastors.—This is reckoned from ordination to June 20, 1843. The dates of ordination are all ascertained and exhibited in the Tables, except one. Average ministerial age, $16\frac{17}{195}$ years; which exceeds the last year's average by nearly one year.

Age of present Pastoral relations.—This is reckoned from the last installation, to June 20, 1843. The dates of installation are all ascertained, and exhibited in the Tables. Average pastoral age, $10\frac{141}{195}$ years; which exceeds the last year's average by more than half a year.

But it must not be inferred that half the pastors have attained the age of 10 years. Only 93 pastors, (or less than half of the whole number) have attained the age of 6 years; only 59, (or about three-tenths of the whole number) have attained the age of 10 years; 33, (or about one-sixth of the whole number) have attained the age of 20 years; 18, (or about one-eleventh of the whole number) have attained the age of 30 years; 12, (or about one-sixteenth of the whole number) have attained the age of 40 years; 3, (or about one-sixty-fifth of the whole number) have attained the age of 50 years; and 2, (or one-ninety-eighth of the whole number) have attained the age of 60 years.

If these statements embraced a sufficiently extensive field, to warrant general conclusions, we might infer, that a pastor of ordinary age, health, fortitude, and ministerial qualifications; recently installed over a church, of average unanimity, numbers, ability, and Christian character; has nearly an even chance, that he will remain in that relation 6 years.

A chance of 3 in 10, that he will remain 10 years.
A chance of 1 in 6, that he will remain 20 years.
A chance of 1 in 11, that he will remain 30 years.
A chance of 1 in 16, that he will remain 40 years.
A chance of 1 in 65, that he will remain 50 years. And
A chance of 1 in 98, that he will remain 60 years.

From the foregoing statement, we may also infer, that the causes which unsettle ministers, operate with far greater force, during the first 10 years, than during any part of the next 30 years. For while less than one-third of those who commence the first 10 years, reach the end of that period; more than one-half of those who commence the second decade of years, reach the end of it; and more than one-half of those who commence the third decade, reach the end of it; and two-thirds of those who commence the fourth decade, reach the end of it. But at this point the scale turns. For only one-fourth of those who commence the 5th decade, reach the end of it.

The three oldest pastors in this State, are Samuel Nott, D. D., of Franklin, 61 years; F. W. Hotchkiss, of Saybrook, 60 years; and Daniel Smith, of Stamford, 50 years.

The number of Church members reported by 203 churches, is 33,488. Some of the 49 churches which failed to report their numbers, are among the largest in the State.

Additions and Removals.—Additions, by profession, 1,823; by letter, 814—total, 2,637. Removals, by death, 517; by dismission, 1,015; by excommunication, 48—total, 1,580. Net increase, 1,057. Last year, the additions and removals by letter, nearly balanced each other. This year, the removals by letter, exceed the additions by more than 200.

Schedules of the District Associations.—The lists of members are supposed to be nearly complete. Whole number 296, of whom 63 are without charge. The average ministerial age of all the members, so far as known, is $18\frac{30}{295}$ years, while the average ministerial age of those without charge, is more than 24 years. This proves that a majority of those without charge are far advanced in life.

Licentiates.—This item is complete, excepting Hartford North Association, from which no report was received. Whole number reported, 66, which is the same as last year.

The Report of the Treasurer of the General Association was read and accepted. (See Appendix, No. IV.)

Rev. E. R. Tyler was appointed Treasurer of the General Association for the ensuing year.

The following persons, one from each District Association, were appointed a Committee to report on the subject of a Religious Newspaper for the State: Rev. Messrs. F. L. Robbins, H. Bushnell, D. D., Z. Crocker, J. P. Thompson, S. W. S. Dutton, J. R. Arnold, C. Prentice, D. C. Comstock, Asa King, Adam Reid, H. D. Kitchel, N. Miner, and G. A. Calhoun.

Rev. L. Bacon, D. D., from the Committee on Psalmody, made a report on that subject, which was accepted and referred to a Committee consisting of Rev. Messrs. Hewit, D. D., Bushnell, D. D., and Field, D. D.

Rev. Abel McEwen, of the New London Association, was appointed to preach the Concio ad Clerum.

Rev. Messrs. Arnold and Cheesebrough were appointed a Committee to report on certain communications from the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin, and from the General Association of Michigan, and reported as follows:

"That a correspondence has already been commenced between this body and "the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin;" that the communication now received is an acknowledgement of the receipt of the letter forwarded a year ago, a reply to the same, and the expression of a desire that the intercourse be continued.

Also, that they, (the Committee,) have examined the Constitution and Creed of the General Association of Michigan, and of the Body above named, and see no ground of objection to them, and they respectfully recommend, either that delegates be appointed to those Bodies, or that an individual be designated to reciprocate by letter, the regards of those Western brethren, and to signify the readiness of this Body to comply with their request."

This report was accepted and adopted, and Rev. J. Arnold was appointed delegate to those Bodies, and Rev. J. P. Thompson substitute.

Rev. Messrs. Joel Hawes, D. D., Calvin Chapin, D. D., Jeremiah Day, D. D., Abel McEwen, Daniel Smith, Thomas Punderson, Daniel Dow, D. D., James Beach, Gurdon Hayes, Isaac Parsons, George A. Calhoun, Bennet Tyler, D. D., and David Smith, D. D., were appointed to certify the regular standing of traveling ministers.

A communication from the Corresponding Secretary of the American Peace Society was referred to Rev. F. L. Robbins, who reported certain resolutions which were laid on the table.

The Committee to prepare a narrative of the state of Religion, made a report which was accepted and adopted, and ordered to be read publicly during the public services of the afternoon, and printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. V.)

A communication was read from the Rev. Mr. Baird, D. D., giving a very summary account of the last year's operations of the Foreign Evangelical Society, and a resolution was passed expressing cordial approbation of the object of the Society, and commending it to the consideration of Pastors and Churches.

The usual tax was laid of fifty cents on each member of the District Associations.

The Committee on the Concio ad Clerum, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted.

I. That hereafter the time of preaching the Concio be the Tuesday evening preceding Commencement, and the place, one of the Churches in New Haven.

II. That the subject of the Concio be proposed by the General Association.

The Committee on Psalmody reported the following resolutions, which were adopted.

I. That the Committee on Psalmody be authorized to proceed with all convenient dispatch, and publish the book which they may compile.

II. That whatever negotiation they may have with other persons or Bodies out of the State, respecting the copyright, be first submitted to this Association, to be by it approved, before the contract which may be proposed, be adopted.

That the Committee on Psalmody be instructed to inquire into the modes of Public Worship now in use, and submit to the next meeting of this body the result of their investigations, with such suggestions as they may find it expedient to make.

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of a State religious newspaper, reported as follows:—

"That they regard the subject of great importance to the interests of our Churches.

"The Religious Herald, which the last Association recommended to the consideration of the pastors, has maintained an important place, but in its present form is inadequate to our wants.

"We need a paper which shall be the bond of correspondence and union among the ministers and churches of the State, and conduct the various subjects of discussion which affect our interests as Congregationalists. Such a paper might be sustained, could it be generally favored and patronized by the pastors. Your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions—

I. That a Religious paper, conducted on the principle of advocating the doctrines and views of this General Association, ought to be encouraged and sustained.

II. That the Rev. Messrs. Bennet Tyler, D. D., Samuel Spring, H. Bushnell, D. D., and S. W. S. Dutton, be a Committee to make such arrangements on the subject as they may deem expedient, without incurring pecuniary responsibility to the Association."

The report was accepted, and the resolutions were adopted.

The following subject was selected for the Concio ad Clerum, in 1845. "The true import and value of the Lord's Supper."

The subject selected by the preacher of the Concio in 1844 was announced, viz: "Causes and evils of the frequent removals of the pastors of the Congregational churches of this country."

Adjourned to meet at half past seven o'clock in the evening in Rev. Mr. McEwen's church, as the Missionary Society of Connecticut, auxiliary to the American Home Missionary Society.

Met according to adjournment. The reports of the Treasurer and Secretary were read, accepted, adopted and ordered to be printed with the Minutes. (See Appendix No. VII.)

Addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. J. P. Thompson, N. Hewit, D. D., and Milton Badger.

Rev. Thomas Punderson, Rev. Bennet Tyler, D. D., Rev. Samuel Spring, Jonathan Barnes, Esq., Rev. Leonard Bacon, D. D., and Rev. Anson S. Atwood, were appointed Directors of the Society for the ensuing year.

Voted, That the Rev. Messrs. McEwen and Boies be requested to express the thanks of this Body to their people, for their kind and Christian hospitality, and to the choirs of singers for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Minutes having been read and adopted, the Association adjourned sine die., after uniting in prayer with Rev. David Magie, D. D.

COMMUNICATION OF THE ADMINISTRATORS ON MRS. EVEREST'S ESTATE.

To the General Association of Connecticut, holding its session third Tuesday of June, 1844, at New London:

Mrs. AMELIA EVEREST, late of Canton, deceased, widow of Dr. Solomon Everest, of whose liberality the Association is reminded every year, made her will in 1824, in which she gave a certain part of her residuary estate to benevolent and religious uses. In 1828, Mrs. Everest made a codicil, altering her will in several particulars, but NOT varying in the sum bequeathed for charitable purposes. The following is an extract:

"One half of my residuary estate, I give to the American "Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; and one fourth "thereof, I give to the Connecticut Missionary Society for the uses "and purposes for which said Society and American Board were "organized; and the remaining fourth of my residuary estate, I "give for the purpose of buying Bibles or religious tracts for gra- "tuitous distribution, or to the Domestic Missionary Society of "Connecticut, or for the education of indigent pious young men for "the Gospel ministry; to any or all of these purposes as a Com- "mittee to be appointed by the General Association of Connec- "ticut for this purpose may judge expedient."

Mrs. Everest died October 22, 1843, aged 86 years. I was appointed to execute her will, but considering my advanced age, I declined accepting the important trust, whereupon the Probate Court appointed me and my son Henry, administrators on Mrs. Everest's estate, with the will annexed. It is the intention of the Administrators to hasten the settlement of the estate as fast as prudence and expediency will permit.

The Association will see the propriety of action on the subject at session the present month.

No. III.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at New London, on the third Tuesday of June 1844,—the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

THE receipts of the Society for the year ending January 1, 1844, were $2,062 78; and the expenditures for the same period, $2,084 47. The permanent Fund received no addition during the year. Its present amount is $30,000.

No change of any importance has been made in the operations of the Society, as regards either mode or place. Of the twenty missionaries in its service, sixteen were stationed on the Western Reserve, who, in most cases minister to one congregation; three in Illinois, and one among the Mohegans. The little church among the remnant of these early allies of the Pilgrims, is in a prosperous condition; two or three of its native members who had been suspended, have been restored, having given satisfactory proofs of penitence and reformation. May it long continue a token to the world, that the regard shown by our forefathers for this tribe in establishing a school, and employing a preacher among them, more than a century ago, exists in the bosom of their descendants.

The churches organized on the Western Reserve, many years since, by the missionaries of the Society, are in general gaining strength, though some of them are agitated by a diversity of sentiment.

The Trustees have determined to lessen, in a limited degree, the amount of appropriations to the Reserve, in order to be able to extend aid to sections of the country still more needy. This, it is thought, can now be done without material detriment to the churches that have been so long, and will still continue to be, under the fostering care of the Society.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, SECRETARY.

Hartford, June 15, 1844.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee appointed to draft a narrative of the state of Religion respectfully Report:—In our summary of intelligence from the District Associations, the Record of Mortality claims early and affecting regard.

Eight of our fathers and brethren have, within the year past, been called up from among us, to be, as we trust, near the Throne.

From within the limits of Hartford North Association, Rev. Isaac Porter, former pastor of a church in Granby, and Rev. Asahel Nettleton, D. D., of East Windsor.

From Middlesex Association, Rev. Frederic William Hotchkiss, of the church in Saybrook, Rev. Aaron Hovey, of the church in Essex, and Rev. Charles Murdock, of the church in North Lyme.

From New Haven West Association, Rev. Stephen W. Stebbins, of the church in West Haven.

From within the limits of New Haven East Association, Rev. Erastus Ripley, of Meriden, and Rev. James Noyes, of Wallingford. Three of these venerated and beloved brethren were communicants at the Lord's table with the General Association at its last annual meeting.

Thus bereaved, we are deeply sensible of our loss, but mindful of that holy and blissful rest whereto they are gathered, whom the Lord hath released from this conflict and evil below, we are constrained to give thanks that Christians may die. Let us hear "the voice of the rod, and him who hath appointed it." Let us earnestly covet that grace, whereby, having endurance to the end, we may triumph in death, and joyfully forecast the glorious resurrection.

The relations between the ministry and churches, have, as usual, been subjected to some changes; yet we find pleasant evidence of augmented regard to the importance of a settled and permanent ministry. Eleven pastors have been dismissed, and in the majority of cases because of ill-health.

Installations have, in the same period, occurred in ten of our Churches. The Association of Litchfield North, report the erection of two houses for public worship within their bounds.

Upon the progress of vital religion, meanwhile, we should delight to have recorded more cheering facts. The number of Churches reporting special visitations of mercy since our last meeting is small. In Fairfield West, the Churches in North Greenwich and Stanwich—and in Litchfield South Association, the church in New Milford, have been refreshed from above. In Middlesex Association, likewise, the church in North Lyme, recently bereft of its pastor by death, has been comforted by the Great Shepherd through the rich outpouring of the Holy Ghost. Though instruments be laid aside or broken, and though the laboring servant be called home from his toil, Zion is not destitute.

Her God is in the midst of her; He will help her, and that right early.

Yale College has also been the scene of regenerating and quickening influences from on high. About 25 undergraduates, chiefly belonging to the two lower classes, have been hopefully converted.

In addition to these facts, we learn with gratitude, that in a number of the churches last year reported as in a state of revival, the work continued for some time in its power; and during the year, many souls, the fruits of that heavenly dispensation, have been added to the visible fold of Christ.

It becomes us also to record with thanks, the confirming and edifying work of God within our borders, evinced in the better attendance on public worship—the additions of members to the churches generally—the better pecuniary support of gospel institutions and of benevolent enterprises—and in the pleasant progress of the Sabbath School and of the Temperance cause, God has strengthened among us the things which remain. We have plentiful signs of his unwearied love. We are encouraged to seek great blessings from him who hath said to Zion, "Open thy mouth wide and I will fill it."

The Theological Institutions at New Haven and East Windsor, enjoy their usual state of prosperity.

We should have received with deep interest more definite and copious statements from the District Associations respecting the observance of Holy time within their several limits. The vital relation of the Sabbath to the welfare of the church and of the nation, entitle it to our watchful, jealous and ardent regard. We pray for the time when it shall be rigidly consecrated to its appropriate sacred end—when the Church shall sustain no reproach for its desecration, and secular interests shall be universally subordinate to its Divine and blessed claims.

The General Association greet with affectionate respect the Delegates present with us from Corresponding Ecclesiatical Bodies, and note with special pleasure the fullness of that representation. We have listened with deep interest to their narratives of God's dealings with those portions of Zion to which they respective belong.

We heartily respond to their assurances of Christian love. May the Great Head of the church abide always with them and with us, sanctifying his people, cementing our hearts more intimately in bonds of fellowship and unity of the Spirit, animating us to strive together for the faith of the Gospel, until, through rich and sovereign grace, we come at last to the General Assembly and church of the first born, whose names are written in Heaven.

SUMMARY.

The whole amount of appropriations to Connecticut, for the year, is, viz:—

Hartford	County,	$855
New Haven	"	610
New London	"	525
Windham	"	400
Fairfield	"	275
Litchfield	"	405
Middlesex	"	100
Tolland	"	240
	Total,	$3,410

In addition, $50 were appropriated to West Haven, for the year ending May 1, 1843.

Rev. Ephraim K. Taylor was under a commission from the A. H. M. S. for the year, as a missionary, at the expense of this Society, among the Congregational Churches in Western New York, and Rev. Joseph T. Holmes was commissioned by the A. H. M. S. near the close of the year, as missionary, at the expense of this Society, in Illinois.

An appropriation of $1000 was made, during the year, to the Domestic Missionary Society of Rhode Island; and $500, constituting part of a previous appropriation, were also paid during the year, to the same Society.

A donation of $1500 was made, during the year, to the Parent Society.

The whole expenditures of the Society, for the year ending June 17, 1844, were $7056 23.

The receipts, for the same time, were $4981 48. This is $628 76 less than was paid directly into our Treasury, last year. Exclusive of the donation from this Society, $11,231 14, were paid into the Treasury of the A. H. M. S. from this State during the year. The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, were $2062 78, making the whole amount appropriated to Home Missions, by our denomination in this State, during the year, $18,275 40. This is $2843 90 more than the receipts of the previous year.

The increase of contributions is not the only indication that Home Missions are growing in favor with the community. This is from no feverish excitement, on the re-action of which we may look for an empty Treasury, but from an intelligent conviction, that they are essential to the extension of pure Christianity, and that on its extension, rest the dearest hopes of our country. This conviction is fastening on our churches with the power of an elementary truth, and time will only add to its efficiency.

Of the churches under our patronage, twenty-nine have pastors, five of whom were ordained during the year. The remainder, with one exception, have stated supplies. The rule adopted by the Directors, not to aid congregations that needlessly defer the settlement of a pastor, while tending to establish a permanent ministry in the feeble churches, will, it is believed, exert a salutary indirect influence on other parts of the State. Probably not one of the churches we aid, would now enjoy the regular ministrations of the Gospel, and pastoral supervision, but for the past or present action of this Society. In common with many others, once sustained by the sympathy which manifests its existence and strength through the medium of this body, they would have ceased to be; or having a name to live, would be dead to every thing but the power of diffusing pestilence and death over all the surrounding region. If the small sum expended in restoring the wastes in our State, effected nothing but the defense of the healthy vicinity against their noxious influence, the freedom would be cheaply purchased.

The Directors had the privilege, last year, to report many seasons of unusual religious interest, and many additions to the churches, assisted by the Society. The present year, as in other parts of the State, has been distinguished among the feeble churches, rather for the growing stability of religious institutions, than for a large increase in the number of their members. The erection of a new place of worship, or the repair of an old one,—the provision of a parsonage or a conference room, followed by the settlement of an efficient pastor, give ground for hope that the Gospel will have a permanent influence where once it seemed about to lose its hold on the community.

Two congregations the past year, voluntarily withdrew from our list of recipients, and another has made a spirited and successful effort to sustain religious institutions, for the coming year, from its own resources, that others in more destitute parts of the land may receive what it takes pleasure in relinquishing. Such examples the Directors could wish were more common, as they afford so pleasing and palpable evidence of the utility of our operations.

It is the wish of the Directors that all applications to them for aid, and especially a first application, should have the sanction of the Association or Consociation with which the church is connected. While this would awaken interest in behalf of a feeble church among its neighbors, it would, at the same time, be a check on improper applications. A Committee from an Association or Consociation, to inquire into the circumstances of each church in its connection applying for the patronage of the Missionary Society, might so stimulate or encourage their desponding brethren, that the application would be withdrawn; or if not, the exercise of such sympathy and supervision could not be otherwise than salutary to all concerned. We might reckon it among the prominent advantages of ecclesiastical association, as it involves not merely the well-being, but the very being of a church. No caution or care of any individual or organized body, could be more efficient, economical, or desirable than this.

Home Missions, no more than other plans springing from human wisdom, and executed through human agency, are free from defects. The tendency of aiding weak congregations, as of relieving individual want, is to produce undue reliance on foreign support, when self-reliance would be more beneficial and becoming. The vigilance of an Association or Consociation would conspire with that which the Directors endeavor to exercise, in checking this tendency. The churches aided, and especially their pastors, should also guard carefully against it; and by comparing their own necessities with the greater need of others, be incited to lessen their drafts on the funds of the Society. Our first duty, indeed, is to sustain our own churches. The wants of the West, pressing as they are, cannot be wisely supplied at the expense of the established institutions of the East. When we can find churches that for two hundred years, have more firmly than ours resisted the inroads of error, or yielded more of "the peaceable fruits of righteousness,"—when we can find a population better fitted than ours, by homogeneousness, education, habit and the associations connected with a pious ancestry, to support religious institutions, and thrive under religious influences,—when we can find a region where the ministers of Christ are more highly respected, their usefulness more correctly appreciated, their comfort more assiduously promoted, it were wise to send thither men and money from New England, even at the hazard of blighting the churches, colleges and schools, which now make it a praise in the earth. It needs little discernment, however, to see that the interests of the West and the East are here coincident,—and that we best consult the welfare of the former, when we attempt to give vigor and stability to the religious institutions of the latter. The one has the energy and enterprise of youth, while it lacks something of the staid, sober character which marks the more advanced age of the other. Our country and the world need the peculiar qualities of each, and we should embrace both in the wide circle of our charities. While we should not neglect the exhausted soil at home, because a fresh field promises a speedy and more abundant return, we ought not to pour forth our charities on the elder churches, with so lavish a hand as to injure those we design to benefit. To find the proper medium, requires no little judgment and pains-taking. The least amount should be granted which will encourage the feeble congregations to develope and rely on their own resources. This point should be reached with the least possible delay; and until it is attained, we cannot say that we have accomplished nothing—but we must regard the work as incomplete. In their appropriations for the coming year, the Directors have made deductions in all cases where they supposed it could be done with safety.

When contributions for Foreign Missions begin to decline, it is a consideration than which few go with more directness and power to the Christian heart, that if this decrease is suffered to continue, the Missionary must retire from the soil where the Gospel has begun to take root. For this small sum, it is pertinently asked, will the friends of Christ consent to the abandonment of so many stations, and the disbanding of so many schools? And who, we might ask, to save three or four thousand dollars, and even less, since no small part of the appropriations come back to our Treasury, in the shape of donations, would consent to deprive one-sixth of the Congregational Churches of Connecticut of the Gospel ministry, for the enjoyment of which they are at least as ready to make sacrifices, as their sister churches? Through the silent operation of our Society, and at an expense of less than one-fifth of the sum devoted by the Congregationalists of this State, to extend Christian institutions to other parts of the land, thousands in Connecticut hear the invitations of mercy, every Sabbath, whose ears would otherwise no more be saluted by the glad notes of the Gospel, than if they were dwelling in the dreariest desert of heathenism. And if we compare results, in what department of benevolent action are greater effects wrought by an application of equal force? We employ heaven's own agency—"pastors and teachers,"—in a work which it has assigned us to perform—"the edifying of the body of Christ,"—and Heaven has blessed our undertaking. Trusting to the same blessing in future, may we still more abound in this "work of the Lord," with so many evidences before our eyes that our "labor is not in vain."

By order of the Directors,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

F. PARSONS, TREASURER.

Hartford, June 14, 1844.

HARTFORD, JUNE 17, 1844.

WE the subscribers, auditors, have examined the foregoing account, and find that the amount $7056 23 charged, and the amount $8667 38 credited, are correct, leaving a balance in the Treasury, of sixteen hundred eleven dollars and fifteen cents.

SETH TERRY, } Auditors
T. C. PERKINS. } of Accounts.

STATISTICS.

The following tables of the Statistics of the Churches have been prepared as fully as the materials furnished in the reports of the District Associations would allow.

Thirty-eight churches make no report.

Whole number of churches, 254, two more, (Mohegan and Windsor Locks,) than last year.

Whole number of pastors, 180 over 177 churches, eight less than last year.

Stated supplies 24, one more than last year.

Ministers without charge are 42, last year they were 63.

Licentiates reported 49, last year they were 63; several District Associations, who are believed to have licentiates, have failed to report any.

Pastors dismissed and settled.—On this subject, only one or two Associations reported; but by comparing the statistics of last year with those of the present, the following is probably very nearly, if not quite correct, though it has been impossible to ascertain whether the removals of pastors have been by death or dismissal. It is suggested, whether it would not be an improvement in the reports of Associations, if they should include the deaths, dismissions, and the settlement of pastors and members, as well as those of the members of the churches.

Dr. Tyler and Messrs. Dutton and Perkins were appointed a Committee to draft a minute on the subject of slavery.

The Committee on the matter of a religious newspaper, made a report which was accepted, and ordered to be laid on the table.

The Committee on the subject of slavery, made the following report which was unanimously adopted, viz :—

Whereas, this Association has at various times passed the following resolutions, viz:—at their annual meeting in the year 1834, in these words :—

"Resolved, That to buy and sell human beings, and to hold them, and treat them as merchandize, or to treat servants, free or bond, in any manner inconsistent with the fact that they are intelligent and voluntary beings, made in the image of God, is a violation of the principles of the word of God, and should be treated by all the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ, as an immorality inconsistent with a profession of the Christian religion.

"Resolved, That this Association regard the laws and usages in respect to slavery, which exists in many of the states of this Union, as inconsistent with the character and responsibilities of a free and and Christian people ; and holds it to be the duty of every Christian and especially of every minister of the Gospel, to use all prudent and careful efforts for the peaceful abolition of slavery."

And also in the year 1836, the Association unanimously adopted the following preamble and resolutions, viz :—

"Whereas the system of slavery, as defined and sustained by the laws of some of these United States, is contrary to the principles of the Gospel; and

Whereas the ministers and members of our churches are frequently emigrating to the slave states, wherefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Association, the buying and selling of human beings, and the holding of them for selfish ends, by the ministers and members of our churches removing to the South, is a great sin, and utterly inconsistent with their Christian profession."

And also in the year 1840, the Association

"Resolved, That the system of American slavery is, in the opinion of this body, inconsistent with the principles of the Gospel; and its immediate abolition, by those who have the legal power, is a duty, in the discharge of which, the blessing of Heaven may be expected." And also

"Resolved, That we recommend to the churches under our care a prayerful consideration of this important subject ; and the exertion of their appropriate influence for the emancipaton of all the enslaved in this land, and throughout the world."

And also in the year 1843, the Association unanimously adopted the following resolutions, viz :—

"Resolved, That we repeat the avowal so often made by this Body, that slavery is a grievous system of wrong, and a great hindrance to the influence and spread of the Gospel, and consequently, that it is the duty of the ministers and members of our churches to unite their influence against it."

Therefore, Resolved, that we now again express our conviction of the truth of the foregoing resolutions, and direct our Scribe to transmit a copy of these resolutions to the Stated Clerks of the two General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church.

The Committee upon the subject of a day of fasting and prayer, reported, which report was accepted and adopted as follows:

Resolved, That in view of the alarming suspension of Divine influences within our borders, we recommend to our churches to set apart the Friday previous to the first Sabbath in September, as a day of fasting and special prayer, that God would turn again our captivity, and grant us times of refreshing from his presence.

Rev. A. L. Stone addressed the body in behalf of the American Sabbath School Union.

Rev. Mr. Albro addressed the body in behalf of the Massachusetts Sabbath School Society.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That we highly approve the plans and operations of the Massachusetts Sabbath School Society, and cordially recommend its publications to the Sabbath Schools throughout this State.

The Moderator addressed the Association in behalf of Collegiate and Theological Education at the West. After which, the following resolution was adopted, viz.:—

Resolved, That this Association approves the plan of the Society for promoting Collegiate and Theological Education at the West, and commends that Society to the pastors and churches as worthy of a share in their systematic contributions for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ.

Rev. Mr. Storrs, agent of the American Bible Society, addressed the body in behalf of that Society.

Rev. J. B. Pinney addressed the Association in behalf of the American Colonization Society.

Mr. Hammond was heard in relation to a Congregational church in Detroit.

Resolved, That Rev. Horace Bushnell, D. D., and Rev. Leonard Bacon, D. D., or either of them, be authorized and requested, should they visit Great Britain during the ensuing year, to represent the General Association of Connecticut to the Ecclesiastical Bodies in that country with which we are in correspondence—to the Free Church of Scotland, and to any other orthodox churches to which they may have access in their travels.

Resolved, That Rev. Mr. Dunning be requested to express the thanks of this Body to his people for their kind Christian hospitality, and to the choir of singers for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Minutes having been read and adopted, the Association adjourned sine die, after uniting in prayer with Rev. Mr. Humphrey.

LEONARD BACON, Moderator.

COMMUNICATION ON MRS. EVEREST'S ESTATE.

To the General Association of Connecticut, to be convened at Plainfield, third Tuesday of June, 1845.

Being one of the Committee appointed by the General Association at its session in June, 1844, "to act in respect to the bequest of Mrs. Everest," I report that the Committee have not received any thing from the Administrators on her estate.

As Administrator on the estate, it was my intention to proceed in the same manner as in settling the estate of the late Dr. Everest, viz. :—after paying the specific bequests, to make payments from the residuary estate to the American Board, Missionary Society of Connecticut, and to the Committee, in money as it was collected, and in notes as they were prepared. At the close of that procedure, (3 or 4 years,) distribution was made in conformity with such payments. In a few months after Mrs. Everest's will had been proved, I was fully informed that one or two of the heirs at law and specific legatees intended to contest the validity of one clause in the will, to wit:—"and the remaining fourth of my residuary "estate I give for the purpose of buying Bibles or religious tracts "for gratuitous distribution, or to the Domestic Missionary Society "of Connecticut, or for the education of indigent pious young men "for the Gospel ministry; to any or all of these purposes, as a "Committee to be appointed by the General Association of Connec- "ticut for this purpose may judge expedient."

In expectation that the above mentioned clause in the will, will be contested, it has been considered inexpedient to pay over any part of the residuary estate until the whole shall be distributed, which will probably be in two or three months. The part liable to be litigated, it is expected will remain in the hands of the administrators till the decision of the proper court. If the heirs at law prevail, there will be nothing for the Committee. The administrators consider it their official duty to take legal measures to establish the will.

No. IV.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Plainfield on the third Tuesday of June, 1845, the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

The receipts of the Society for the year ending Dec. 31, 1844, were $2139 18, and the expenditures for the same period, $1781 64.

No addition was made to the Permanent Fund during the year. Its present amount is $30,000.

It has employed seventeen missionaries—thirteen on the Western Reserve, three in Illinois, and one among the Mohegans.

The churches on the Western Reserve which now enjoy the services of our missionaries, pay their contributions to Home Missions into the treasury of this Society, in grateful acknowledgment of their obligations for its long continued patronage.

A legacy of $2000 was left during the year to the Society, though not yet received, from Mrs. Eunice Averill, who closed a life of active benevolence by liberal bequests to several similar institutions. In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee appointed to draft a narrative of the state of religion, would respectfully report:—It appears from the reports of the District Associations that during the past year three of our brethren have been called to give an account of their stewardship: The Rev. Artemas Boies, of New London, the Rev. Ezekiel Marsh, of Ellington, and the Rev. J. P. Tyler, of Griswold.* In these instances of mortality we are reminded that we, as well as the people to whom we minister, are dying men, and we are called upon anew, to work while the day lasts, for the night cometh in which no man can work.

In the state of the churches, while there are many things to cheer and console us, and to awaken devout gratitude to God, there is much which should lead us to put on sackcloth and sit in the dust, —to hang our harps upon the willows, and to weep at the remembrance of Zion.

Most of the churches are reported to be in a state of peace and quietness. A good degree of harmony prevails among the brethren. No new errors in doctrine have appeared—no outbreaking iniquities —no unhappy dissentions, and no root of bitterness of any kind have sprung up to trouble them.

The stated ordinances of the gospel are punctually observed, and a large proportion of those who have named the name of Christ, so far as their general outward deportment is concerned, walk worthy of their high vocation.

The Monthly Concert is observed in most if not all of our churches, and in some with an increasing interest.

* The Rev. Ludovicus Weld, who 51 years ago became the pastor of the church in Hampton, where for many years, with signal ability and success, he proclaimed the word of life, also died recently in New Jersey.

The cause of the Sabbath School is well sustained, and with a growing conviction of the importance of imparting more doctrinal instruction than was formerly given. Into some of the schools, the Assembly's Catechism has been introduced with apparent good effects.

The Temperance cause, in some parts of the State, at least, is evidently on the advance; and although in this department of benevolent enterprize, there remaineth yet much land to be possessed, we trust in God that the day of final and complete conquest is not far distant; we cannot but think that the eyes of the community at large are becoming more open to the evils of intemperance, and that an increasing odium is attached to the manufacture and sale, as well as to the drinking of intoxicating liquors.

The various charitable societies are patronized with a commendable degree of liberality; and in some of our churches, the contributions during the past year have been greater than in any preceding year. Not a few have learned from experience that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Our venerable college, whose praise has long been, not only in the churches of this State, but in the mouths of all the friends of sound learning in the land, continues to enjoy its high reputation as a literary institution, and about one half of its students are said to be professors of religion.

The Theological schools at New Haven and East Windsor, still live in the affections of their friends and patrons, and continue to enjoy their usual prosperity.

On some few of our churches, God has shed down during the past year the renewing influences of his Spirit, and numbers, in the judgment of charity, have been called out of darkness into marvelous light. The parishes reported as having been thus blessed, are North and South Glastenbury, West Haven, Trumbull, Middle Haddam, West Chester, Exeter, and Ridgefield.

But while we have cause to bless God for these tokens of his mercy, we have cause also for mourning and deep humiliation. While the love of many has waxen cold, iniquity has abounded. In all our parishes, infidelity and other destructive errors prevail in a greater or less degree, and are connected with a corresponding profligacy of manners. Many profane the Sabbath—forsake the sanctuary, and despise all the institutions of religion; and to many who are regular attendants on the ordinances of public worship, the gospel seems to prove only a savor of death unto death.

We have to lament that so little spirituality pervades the churches —that there is no more faith, and zeal, and fervency of spirit among the professed followers of Christ,—that there is no more disposition among them to speak often one to another, to stir up one another's minds by way of remembrance, and to unite their prayers and efforts for the salvation of perishing sinners around them.

And we have especially to lament that God has, to such an alarming extent, withdrawn from our congregations the convicting and converting influences of his Spirit. We remember the years of the right hand of the Most High. We remember the interest which has been given in years past to this anniversary by the reports of great and powerful revivals in almost every part of the State. But it is not with us as in years past. We do not see God's glory as we have seen it in the sanctuary. We are not called upon to-day to exult in view of our spiritual prosperity, but to weep and mourn, to repent and pray. With few exceptions our churches are suffering a spiritual drought. They are like the barren heath in the desert, which seeth not when good cometh, and like the mountains of Gilboa, upon which there was neither rain nor dew.

> "The blessing from the truth 's withdrawn,
> Its quickening, saving influence, gone;
> Unwarned, unwakened, sinners hear,
> Nor see their awful danger near."

In view of these facts, there should be great searching of heart among us. It should be a matter of constant and solemn inquiry among ministers and churches, wherefore it is that the Lord has thus forsaken us. His hand is not shortened that it cannot save, nor is his ear heavy that it cannot hear, but our iniquities have separated between us and our God, and our sins have hid his face from us that he will not hear. Let us then consider whence we have fallen and repent and do our first works. Let pastors and people humble themselves before God, and engage in their Master's service with new zeal, and with stronger faith; and let it be the resolution of each individual, "For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, till the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth."

From the following ecclesiastical bodies with which this Association is in correspondence, viz:—the General Associations of Massachusetts and New Hampshire, the General Convention of Vermont, the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, the General Associations of New York and Michigan, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, which lately held its annual meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, we have received interesting reports, from which it appears that the general state of religion throughout their limits, is much the same as it is with us. To the delegates from these Bodies we bid a cordial welcome, and we assure them, and through them the Bodies they represent, of our deep interest in their spiritual welfare. We rejoice in their joys, and sympathize in their sorrows, and pledge them our hearty co-operation in the great work of building up the kingdom of our common Lord and Redeemer.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT, AUXILIARY TO THE A. H. M. SOCIETY.

The early, if not the ultimate success of Home Missionary operations in feeble churches, is intimately connected with the nature of the causes which produced their feebleness. In one region, defection may have been occasioned by wide spreading and specious error. Here, though the place of professed worship has been changed, it has been only partially deserted, and religious institutions have not been abandoned, if they are less esteemed. Time, which shows the true character of error, by maturing its fruits, may, in this case, bring back to the right way some who had been seduced to the adoption of a false and corrupting faith; and the soul, whose wants and longings the new system fails to satisfy, may be, in a measure, prepared to return to its former belief. If, at this juncture, the work of repair is begun, it may advance to a speedy and joyful complétion.

In another region, religious institutions may not have been early established, or only partially, and in circumstances to bring them into disrepute. An ignorant ministry, a neglected Sabbath, a population to a large extent uneducated, have well nigh brought religion into disgrace, and made the region a proverb for its want of moral and intellectual culture. Here too, error, by the full developement of its nature, in practical results, may have, in some degree, prepared the way for its successful overthrow. When the people begin to feel that they are behind their neighbors in regard to the institutions and influences cherished by an intelligent ministry, and stated public worship, their experience gives them a depth of feeling, and an energy of action in this matter, which is no doubtful sign that Home Missions will here have a rapid and encouraging growth.

In another region, the decay may have been gradual. The house of God was deserted by one, from dissatisfaction with his pastor; by another, from avarice, which grudged the expense of supporting religious institutions, while deriving inestimable benefits from their existence; by another still, from dislike of plain exhibitions of the truth. Contentions, in the progress of two centuries, have led to the formation of new churches, and left many traces of pernicious influence, even when its source has been forgotten. In this case, error and neglect of the Gospel have not fully developed their true character, for they have been held in check by surrounding truth. Hence, there is less perception of the need of attempts to repair the desolations. Fancying that they are whole, or nearly so, they see no great need "of a physician." They feel not, or if they feel, they are not willing to acknowledge their indebtedness to the conservative influence of Christianity on their temporal welfare. Living in the midst of a population where religious belief and habits have been proverbially strict, they are not roused to support the Gospel, by the taunts or the reproofs of their neighbors. In a case like this, the friends of Home Missions need not look for speedy changes; though connected with the adverse influences enumerated, are many circumstances which favor ultimate and permanent success.

Which of the regions just described, the field of this Society's operations most resembles, it is scarcely necessary to suggest. It lies in the land of "steady habits"—of habits as fixed in the neglect of religious institutions and public worship, as in their support.

If from year to year, while the names of some congregations disappear from our lists, the names of others are still found there, it is just what ought to have been anticipated from the nature of the causes of decay, and the character of our population. But though still needing and asking for aid, they almost without exception manifest indications of increasing strength and stability. And the ground which we gain, from many of the circumstances which make our advance slower than it might be, in some other sections of our country, we may hope the more surely to retain.

Fifteen of the churches to which appropriations are made by the Directors, are designated by epithets, such as North, South, East, West, which show, in most cases, that they were originally comprised within the limits of other Societies. The present feebleness of some of these may be chiefly, and of others, practically, the result of a too minute early subdivision from an injudicious regard to local interests or feelings. Just able to stand, at best, a slight cause would reduce them to a state of weakness demanding foreign support. Nine other churches under our patronage, are in manufacturing villages, and might not have been formed, or connected with our denomination, but for prospective aid from this Society. Two others are composed of colored people, and have from their organization, depended on our assistance.

The following is a list of the congregations in Connecticut, aided by this Society during the year, ending May 1, 1845, with the amount appropriated to each, viz:—

SUMMARY.

The whole amount of appropriations in this State, for the year, is, viz:—

Hartford	County,	$885
New Haven	"	650
New London	"	495
Windham	"	460
Fairfield	"	400
Litchfield	"	400
Middlesex	"	125
Tolland	"	230
	Total,	$3,645

In addition, $100 were appropriated to Burlington, for the year ending May 1, 1844.

Rev. Joseph T. Holmes was commissioned for the year, by the A. H. M. S., as a missionary in Griggsville, Illinois, at the expense of this Auxiliary.

An appropriation of $1000 was made, during the year, to the Rhode Island Domestic Missionary Society, to be expended in that State. This continues to be a field of great promise for Home Missions.

Donations, to the amount of $2000 were made, during the year, to the Parent Society.

The whole expenditures of the Society, for the year ending June 16, 1845, including these donations, were $6,252 36.

The receipts for the same period, were $6,340 35, being $1,358 87 more than those of the previous year. To this, add $12,404 92, paid directly into the Treasury of the Parent Society, and $2,139 18, the receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, and the whole amount will be $20,884 45. This is $1609 05 more than was devoted to Home Missions, from Connecticut, last year.

Early in the year a notice was given that it is the wish both of the Parent Society and this Auxiliary, that contributions to Home Missions, from Connecticut, should be transmitted to our Treasury. It is easier, in many parts of the State, to communicate with New York, than with Hartford, though there can be no serious difficulty of communication with the latter. The successful, and even the intelligent operations of the Directors, requires that this notice should be regarded; for otherwise, while large sums are contributed in the State, for Home Missions, the Board will never know whether they can safely appropriate what is necessary for the very existence of some of our own churches.

In a field so limited in extent, as that which we cultivate, with so little of novelty in occurrences to interest by detail, from year to year, and where the principles of proceeding, on the part of the Board, are so uniform and well understood, it is scarcely worth while to occupy the time of the Society in minute specifications, little else than repetitions of what has been often exhibited in reports of this and similar institutions. Like a peaceful reign, Home Missions, in the older States, are too barren of thrilling incidents to furnish many materials for history, though they are rich in the elements of prosperity and enjoyment. Suffice it, then, to say, that a review of the reports of the missionaries, shows a condition of things, the past year, in the churches under our patronage, resembling that in the other churches of our denomination in the State. The attendance on public and social worship has been good; in most cases, better than usual. Sabbath schools have been kept up with increasing interest; the cause of Temperance has, for the most part, not only held its ground, but made considerable advances; missions, both Foreign and Home, have maintained their place in the public estimation, and the collections for benevolent objects have been greater than in many previous years. Harmony of feeling among Christians in these churches has prevailed, with scarcely an exception,—and a regard for religious institutions been shown by liberal contributions to their support. But the influences of the Spirit have not been manifested in the conversion of sinners, and comparatively few additions have been made to the churches. Another day, however, may show that our work of faith and labor of love have not been in vain, even as regards the turning of the disobedient to the truth. There is a process of preparation, during the dark and dreary hours of winter, for the beauty, and fragrance, and variety of spring. Indications like those just noticed, are the suitable preparatives for a spiritual reviving, as they are not seldom its harbingers.

The very fact that the waste places are brought into sympathy with the other churches, and have a common history with them, is a just cause for congratulation. It was not so once. Whatever change for good or ill came over the vigorous congregations, these wore one melancholy aspect of desolation. Like withered branches, their appearance in the budding Spring, and the ripening Autumn, was unvaried. Revivals might bless the churches around, but in these there was no reviving. A spirit of missions might spring up in other churches, but bitter prejudice against benevolent objects found an undisturbed lodgement in these. Sabbath schools might gather the young for instruction, in other churches, but the children in these too often spent the sacred hours in hurtful amusements. Neat, or even elegant houses for worship might rise to adorn other villages, but from year to year theirs were disfigured by structures as uncomfortable and forbidding to man, as unworthy to be temples for the living God. While other churches rejoiced in permanent and beloved pastors, our ecclesiastical minutes, year after year, exhibited only the disheartening 'vacant,—vacant,'—for them. But these deplorable distinctions no longer exist. Through the blessing of Heaven on Home Missions, they have been obliterated. The work of restoration has, indeed, been gradual,—sometimes seeming at a stand, or even going backward,—but still, with unobtrusive efficiency piling stone upon stone, and rearing pillar after pillar, till a building strong, massive, and, as we hope, durable, meets our delighted view.

And what if it has been at the expense of some treasure, and not a little personal sacrifice? Who that has one feeling in common with the founders of our civil and ecclesiastical commonwealth, will grudge the comparatively trivial cost of restoring and consolidating our feeble churches? Politicians from abroad tell us, on the eve of great political elections, "Keep Connecticut right and all will be well. She is a little State, but she has sons in every part of the land, who are looking to her for an example." "I had rather," said a distinguished orator from the Empire State, addressing a mass meeting, "have the influence of Connecticut in our favor, than that of any other State in the Union." What the influence of Connecticut is, politically, it is in morals and religion. Be it, then, the persevering purpose and effort of our Society, to keep it right in its religious character, so far as depends on the healthy condition of all our churches.

The Parent Society, in the support of whose operations much the larger part of the funds raised for Home Missions in Connecticut is expended, is steadily advancing in usefulness, vigor, and the favor of the community. If Protestantism, if civil liberty, if the pure truth and the simple institutions of the Gospel, are to have an unbroken sway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, this Society has a mighty work to perform, and a high destiny to fulfill. But its action is no more essential for planting churches, in the new settlements, than the action of its auxiliaries is, in sustaining churches already planted in New England. If we neglect these auxiliaries, at no distant day, the missionary tide may change its direction, and the embassadors of the cross, as they now go from our shores to the lands of nominal Christianity and oriental superstition, may come to us in the far East, from Iowa or beyond the Rocky Mountains. Does this seem extravagant, or impossible? So once might have thought Ephesus or Thyatira, or even the Holy City itself. But are we safer than they? No, in no wise. Do we glory in the fathers? So did some of them. Have we a clear knowledge of the truth? To them were committed the oracles of God. Have we an intelligent and pious ministry? They had the teachings of apostles and prophets. Does a missionary spirit pervade our churches? They went every where preaching the word. If fertility shall characterize the moral fields of Connecticut, through all the ages of coming time, it will spring from the blessing of Heaven on the use of means; and one of the most efficient, if we may rely on past experience, is the instrumentality employed by our Society. May it ever enjoy a liberal patronage, and its operations devised in wisdom, and executed with energy, be crowned with the Divine favor.

In behalf of the Directors,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.
